c Pr9 North Toronto Christian School (Interdenominational) Act, 1994

Ontario
CHAPTER Pr9

An Act to revive North Toronto Christian School (Interdenominational)

Assented to May 31, 1994

Preamble

Stewart Alan Snowball, Allan Mitchell and Oliver Hamilton have applied for special legislation to revive North Toronto Christian School (Interdenominational). The applicants represent that they are the directors of the ongoing organization carried on in the name of North Toronto Christian School (Interdenominational). The corporation was dissolved under the Corporations Act on January 27, 1987 for default in complying with the Corporations Information Act. The applicants represent that this default was inadvertent.

It is appropriate to grant the application.

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. North Toronto Christian School (Interdenominational) is revived and is, subject to any rights acquired by any person after its dissolution, restored to its legal position, including all its property, rights, privileges and franchises and subject to all its liabilities, contracts, disabilities and debts, as of the date of its dissolution, in the same manner and to the same extent as if it had not been dissolved.

2. This Act comes into force on the day it receives Royal Assent.

3. The short title of this Act is the Wordz Processing Corporation Ltd. Act, 1994.
