CHAPTER 9.

The Personation Act.

Information before officer at registry or polling place. Rev. Stat., c. 8.

1. Where a person is charged at a polling place with having committed the offence of personation as defined by The Election Act, the deputy returning officer at such place may take the information on oath of the person making the charge, and it shall be the duty of the deputy returning officer to take the information when requested so to do by a candidate or his agent. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 1.

Mode of recovering penalty.

Rev. Stat., c. 8.

Rev. Stat., c. 136.

2. Where the information is laid before a deputy returning officer, and a warrant for the arrest of the offender is issued by him under this Act, the punishment or penalty imposed by law, notwithstanding the provisions of The Election Act, may be imposed by or recovered before two justices of the peace under The Summary Convictions Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 2.

When offender may be detained.

3. Where the person against whom it is proposed to lay the information has not left the polling place the deputy returning officer may, either of his own motion or at the request of any one proposing forthwith to lay any information against such person, detain him or direct his detention until an information can be laid and a warrant for his arrest issued. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 3.

When warrant may be issued.

4. Where the information is laid, the deputy returning officer may on the polling day, but not afterwards, issue his warrant for the arrest of the person charged, in order that he may be brought before the magistrate or justices of the peace to answer the information and to be further dealt with according to law. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 4.

Authority of constable, etc., under warrant.

5. The warrant shall be sufficient authority for any constable, peace officer or gaoler to detain such person until he is brought before the magistrate or justices of the peace. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 5.

Where name of person charged is unknown.

6. Where the correct name of the person charged is unknown to the informant, it shall be sufficient in the information and other proceedings to describe the person charged as a person whose name is unknown, but who is detained by the authority of the deputy returning officer under the provisions of this Act; or the person charged may be described in such other manner as may sufficiently identify him; but when the name of the person so charged has been ascertained, it shall be stated in any subsequent warrant or proceeding. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 6.

7. Every poll clerk shall have the authority of a constable for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act; and every deputy returning officer may appoint such special constables as he deems necessary for the like purpose, and such persons shall have full power to act without taking any oath. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 7.

Authority of certain officers.
Special constables.

8. Informations or warrants may be in accordance with the forms in the schedule hereto, but it shall not be necessary that a warrant shall have a seal affixed thereto, and the omission of a seal, where a warrant purports to be sealed, shall not invalidate it. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 8.

Form of information and warrant.

9. Every Crown attorney shall keep in his office a sufficient supply of printed forms of such informations and warrants, and shall upon the request of the returning officer furnish him with as many of such forms as are necessary for the use of the deputy returning officers; and every returning officer shall, before the polling day, furnish each deputy returning officer with at least ten of each of such forms. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 9.

Supply of forms.

10.—(1) For providing and furnishing the forms, the Crown attorney shall be allowed $4 for each election for which such forms are supplied, to be paid on the production of the receipts of the officer or officers to whom they were furnished.

Allowance to Crown attorney for supplying forms.

(2) The fees and the disbursements of the Crown attorney in obtaining the forms shall form part of the expenses of criminal justice. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 10.

How chargeable.

11. Every person guilty of any wilful misfeasance, or any wilful act or omission in contravention of this Act, shall, in addition to any other penalty or liability to which he may be subject, forfeit to any person aggrieved by such misfeasance, act or omission, $400. R.S.O. 1927, c. 9, s. 11.

Pecuniary penalty.
