CHAPTER Pr54

An Act to revive
Columbia Metals Corporation Limited

Assented to December 9, 1994

Preamble

Alexander R. Gray has applied for special legislation to revive Columbia Metals Corporation Limited. The applicant represents that he is the executor of the estate of James Joseph Gray and that the estate owned shares in three corporations that owned shares of Columbia Metals Corporation Limited when it was dissolved. Columbia Metals Corporation Limited was dissolved under the Business Corporations Act, 1982 on December 10, 1984 for default in complying with the Corporations Tax Act. The applicant represents that this default was inadvertent, that he was not aware of the dissolution until more than five years after it occurred and that he wishes to revive the corporation in order to carry on business again.

It is appropriate to grant the application.

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. Columbia Metals Corporation Limited is revived and is, subject to any rights acquired by any person after its dissolution, restored to its legal position, including all its property, rights, privileges and franchises and subject to all its liabilities, contracts, disabilities and debts, as of the date of its dissolution, in the same manner and to the same extent as if it had not been dissolved. Corporation revived

2. This Act comes into force on the day it receives Royal Assent. Commencement

3. The short title of this Act is the Columbia Metals Corporation Limited Act, 1994. Short title
