Corporation

4. A majority of the members of the Board is a quorum. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 4.

Quorum

5. Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the Board may make regulations, in Regulations

- (a) fixing the term of office and remuneration of the members of the Board and providing for the payment of necessary expenses of the Board in the conduct of its business;
- (b) prescribing the powers of the Board and the procedure of the Board at its meetings;
- (c) providing for the issuance and renewal of certificates of registration and fixing the fees payable therefor;
- (d) providing for the holding of examinations and fixing the fees payable therefor;
- (e) governing the suspension or cancellation of certificates of registration, the causes and procedure therefor;

- (f) prescribing the duties and remuneration of examiners and other persons employed by the Board;
- (g) generally for carrying out the intent and purpose of this Act. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 5.

Qualification for registration

6.—(1) The Board shall grant a certificate of registration to any person who furnishes evidence satisfactory to the Board that he,

- (a) has received a doctoral degree based upon a program of studies whose content was primarily psychological from an educational institution approved by the Board;
- (b) has had at least one year of experience acceptable to the Board; and
- (c) has passed the examinations required by the Board. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 6.

Where Board
may dispense with examination

(2) The Board in its discretion may waive examination of a candidate for registration if the candidate holds a diploma granted by the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology or has been certified or registered by the examining board of another province, state or country whose standards are considered by the Board to be at least the equivalent of the standards established by this Act. 1965, c. 105, s. 1.

Power to refuse
registration

7. The Board after a hearing may refuse to grant a certificate of registration to any person who is found by the Board to be liable to have his certificate suspended or cancelled for any of the causes mentioned in the regulations. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 8.

Appeal

8.—(1) If the Board refuses or neglects to register a person, refuses or neglects to renew the registration of a person or suspends or cancels the registration of a person, the person aggrieved may, within three months from the day on which notice thereof was served, apply to the Supreme Court which upon due cause shown may make an order directing the Board to make the registration, renew the registration, remove the suspension or withdraw the cancellation, as the case may be, or may make such other order as is warranted by the facts.

Idem

(2) Every such order is final and conclusive and shall be acted upon forthwith by the Board. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 9.

Register to be kept

9.—(1) The Board shall keep a register in which shall be entered the name of every person who has been granted a certificate of registration.

Inspection

(2) The register shall be open to inspection by any person upon reasonable notice to the Board. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 10.

10.—(1) The Board may keep a register to be known as the ^{Temporary register} “temporary register”, in which shall be entered the name of every person who has received a degree within the meaning of section 6 but who has not met all the other requirements specified in section 6. 1965, c. 105, s. 2, part, amended.

(2) The temporary register shall be open to inspection by any ^{Inspection} person upon reasonable notice to the Board.

(3) Upon granting registration in the temporary register, the ^{Conditions of registration} Board may fix the fee payable by the person so registered and the conditions, limitations and restrictions applicable to such person.

(4) Upon any person so registered ceasing to comply with the ^{Removal of name} conditions, limitations or restrictions applicable to such person, the Board may remove the name of the person from the temporary register. 1965, c. 105, s. 2, part.

11.—(1) No person shall represent himself to be a psycholo- ^{Prohibition} gist unless he holds a certificate of registration.

(2) A person represents himself to be a psychologist when he ^{Idem} holds himself out to the public by any title, designation or description incorporating the words “psychological”, “psychologist” or “psychology” and under such title, designation or description offers to render or renders services of any kind to one or more persons for a fee or other remuneration. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 11 (1, 2).

(3) This section does not apply to a legally qualified medical ^{Exceptions} practitioner or to a person in the course of his employment by the Government of Canada, the Government of Ontario or a university, or to a person registered in the temporary register under section 10. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 11 (3); 1965, c. 105, s. 3.

12. No person who holds a certificate of registration shall ^{Treatment of mental disorders} treat any person for any type of mental disorder for a fee or other remuneration except on the request of or in association with a legally qualified medical practitioner. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 12.

13. Nothing in this Act authorizes a person who holds a ^{Practice of medicine not authorized} certificate of registration to engage in any manner in the practice of medicine, surgery or midwifery. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 13.

14.—(1) Every person who contravenes any of the provisions ^{Offence} of this Act is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $100 for the first offence and not more than $500 for any subsequent offence.

(2) The fines recovered for offences under this Act shall be paid ^{Disposition of fines} to the Board. R.S.O. 1960, c. 316, s. 14.
