CHAPTER 478

The Vendors and Purchasers Act

1. In the completion of a contract of sale of land the rights and obligations of the vendor and the purchaser shall, subject to any stipulation to the contrary in the contract, be regulated by the following rules: Rights of vendors and purchasers in contracts of sale of lands

1. Recitals, statements and descriptions of facts, matters and parties contained in statutes, deeds, instruments or statutory declarations twenty years old at the date of the contract, unless and except in so far as they are proved to be inaccurate, are sufficient evidence of the truth of such facts, matters and descriptions. Recitals, etc., 20 years old, of facts, etc., prima facie evidence

2. A registered memorial of a discharged mortgage is sufficient evidence of the mortgage without the production of the mortgage, unless and except in so far as the memorial is proved to be inaccurate, and the vendor is not bound to produce the mortgage unless it is in his possession or power. Memorials of discharged mortgages

3. A registered memorial twenty years old of any other instrument, if the memorial purports to be executed by the grantor, or in other cases if possession has been consistent with the registered title, is sufficient evidence without the production of the instrument to which the memorial relates, unless and except in so far as the memorial is proved to be inaccurate, and the vendor is not bound to produce the original instrument unless it is in his possession or power, and the memorial shall be presumed to contain all the material contents of the instrument to which it relates. Memorials 20 years old, when, and of what, evidence

4. The inability of the vendor to furnish the purchaser with a legal covenant to produce and furnish copies of documents of title, is not an objection to the title if the purchaser will, on the completion of the contract, have an equitable right to the production of such documents. R.S.O. 1960, c. 414, s. 1. Inability to furnish covenant to produce and furnish documents of title

2. In an action it is not necessary to produce any evidence that by section 1 is dispensed with as between vendor and purchaser, and the evidence therein declared to be sufficient as between vendor and purchaser is prima facie sufficient for the purposes of the action. R.S.O. 1960, c. 414, s. 2. Evidence in actions

Applications to court as to requisitions, objections, compensation, etc.

3.—(1) A vendor or purchaser of real or leasehold estate or his representative may at any time and from time to time apply in a summary way to the Supreme Court or to the county or district court of the county or district in which the land or any part thereof is situate in respect of any requisition or objection or any claim for compensation or any other question arising out of or connected with the contract, except a question affecting the existence or validity of the contract, and the court may make such order upon the application as may be considered just. R.S.O. 1960, c. 414, s. 3 (1); 1960-61, c. 101, s. 1 (1).
