CHAPTER 353

The Representation Act

1. Notwithstanding anything in any general or special Act, the boundaries of any county, territorial district, city, town, village, township or improvement district shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be the boundaries of such county, territorial district, city, town, village, township or improvement district as defined by statute, by-law, proclamation or other lawful authority on the 6th day of April, 1954. 1954, c. 84, s. 1, amended.

2. The Legislative Assembly of Ontario shall consist of ninety-eight members. 1954, c. 84, s. 2.

3. Ontario shall, for the purpose of representation in the Assembly, be divided into electoral districts as enumerated and defined in the Schedule and one member shall be returned to the Assembly for each electoral district. 1954, c. 84, s. 3.

4. The boundaries of any electoral district as set out in the Schedule are not affected by any alteration in municipal boundaries made after the 6th day of April, 1954. 1954, c. 84, s. 4, amended.

5. The electors entitled to vote in any town or village not expressly included in an electoral district described in the Schedule and lying within the boundaries of two or more electoral districts are entitled to vote in the electoral district in which they would have been so entitled if the town or village had not become incorporated. 1954, c. 84, s. 5.

6. Except as otherwise expressly set out in the Schedule, every augmentation or gore of a township shall for the purposes of this Act be considered as forming part of the electoral district in which the township is situate. 1954, c. 84, s. 6.

7. A city that constitutes an electoral district, or that is divided into two or more electoral districts, according to the Schedule, shall not for the purposes of this Act be deemed to form part of the electoral district within the limits of which it lies. 1954, c. 84, s. 7.
8. Every city, town, village, township or improvement district heretofore or hereafter incorporated, lying within the territorial limits of any electoral district described in the Schedule and not specially included in any other electoral district in the Schedule, forms part of the electoral district in which it is situate. 1954, c. 84, s. 8.

9. Every city, town, village, township or improvement district that by the provisions of any special Act passed before the 6th day of April, 1954, forms or forms part of any electoral district shall, notwithstanding such provisions, form or form part of the electoral district or districts in which it is included in the Schedule. 1954, c. 84, s. 9, amended.
