CHAPTER 389

The Surveyors Act

1. In this Act,
   (a) "Association" means the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors;
   (b) "board" means the board of examiners of the Association;
   (c) "council" means the council of management of the Association;
   (d) "Minister" means the Minister of Lands and Forests;
   (e) "surveyor" means a person who practises the profession of land surveyor, or a person, other than an employee of an Ontario land surveyor, who for gain either by himself or by some other person surveys, establishes, locates or defines any boundary, limit or angle of any land, location, claim, limit, common, road, street, lane, way, gore, reserve, concession, section, block, lot, village, town, city, township or other parcel of land or division or property. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 1.

2.—(1) No person shall act as a surveyor in Ontario unless authorized to practise as a land surveyor according to the provisions of this Act, or so authorized before the passing thereof according to the laws then in force, and unless registered under this Act.
   (2) Every person who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of $40. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 2.

3.—(1) The Association of Ontario Land Surveyors is hereby continued and all persons who are now members of the Association shall continue to be members thereof subject to the by-laws of the Association and this Act.
   (2) All persons duly authorized to practise as surveyors shall, upon becoming duly registered as hereinafter provided, become members of the Association. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 3.

4. All fines and fees payable under this Act or under any by-law of the Association belong to the Association. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 4.
5. The Association may purchase, take and possess real estate for the purposes of the Association, but for no other purpose, and after acquiring it, may sell, mortgage, lease or dispose of it. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 5.

6.—(1) The council shall consist of the Minister or his appointee, the Surveyor General of Ontario, the president and the vice-president of the Association, and six other elective members to be elected and hold office as hereinafter provided.

(2) The council shall elect annually one of its members as chairman, and may appoint from among the members of the Association such other officers as are deemed necessary for carrying out the objects of this Act, and such appointed officers shall hold office during the pleasure of the council. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 6.

7. The council may invest, in the name of the Association, any moneys of the Association in such securities as trustees may properly invest in, and the income derived therefrom shall form part of the ordinary income of the Association. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 7.

8.—(1) The Association may pass by-laws for,

(a) the government, discipline and honour of its members;

(b) the management of its property;

(c) the examination and admission of candidates for the study or practice of the profession;

(d) the fixing of the dates and places of annual general meetings of the Association and meetings of the council;

(e) the fixing, levying and collecting of a fee for registration or transfer of articles of apprenticeship or for a certificate to practise or for registration as a surveyor in active practice and for official notice of registration in The Ontario Gazette, and for the fixing, levying and collecting of an annual fee from each member;

(f) all such other purposes as are necessary for carrying out the objects of the Association. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 8 (1); 1956, c. 37, s. 1.

(2) All by-laws shall be passed by the council and shall be ratified by the Association at the next annual general meeting or at a special general meeting called for the purpose. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 8 (2).
9.—(1) Upon the written request of any ten members of the Association in good standing or of the council, the president, or in his absence the vice-president, may call a special general meeting to be held in the City of Toronto at a time not more than thirty days after the receipt of such request.

(2) Notice of any such meeting shall be given by the secretary-treasurer to each member of the Association by letter mailed to his registered address at least fourteen days before such meeting. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 9 (2, 3).

10.—(1) The members of the Association shall elect annually from their number by sealed ballot (Form 1) the president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and two auditors who shall hold office for one year from the termination of the annual general meeting, or until their successors in office have been elected, and two members of the council who shall hold office for three years from the termination of the annual general meeting, or until their successors in office have been elected.

(2) No person is eligible for election to any office or to the council or qualified to fill any vacancy thereon or for appointment by the council to any office unless his fees have been paid and he is duly qualified under this Act and the by-laws of the Association. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 10.

11.—(1) A nominating committee of five members of the Association in good standing, other than members of the council, shall be elected by ballot at each annual general meeting to hold office until the next annual general meeting and it is the duty of the nominating committee to nominate before the 1st day of December in each year at least as many eligible members for each position as are required to be elected in accordance with section 10.

(2) The presiding officer at the meeting at which the nominating committee is elected shall appoint two scrutineers to count the votes cast for members of the nominating committee, and he shall have the casting vote in the case of a tie, and shall appoint one of the members elected to act as chairman and convener of the committee. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 11.

12.—(1) The chairman of the nominating committee shall forthwith after the 30th day of November in each year forward to the secretary-treasurer, by registered mail, the list of persons nominated and the secretary-treasurer shall on or before the 10th day of December in that year mail a copy of the list to each member of the Association at his registered address.
(2) Any ten members of the Association in good standing may, by registered letter delivered to the secretary-treasurer at his office on or before the 31st day of December, require the secretary to add to the list of persons nominated the name or names of any other eligible members, and the names of the members so added, with the names of the members chosen by the nominating committee, shall be placed by the secretary on the ballot paper (Form I). R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 12.

13.—(1) The ballot papers shall be mailed by the secretary-treasurer to each member of the Association at his registered address at least fourteen days before the annual meeting and shall be returned to the secretary-treasurer in a sealed envelope not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon of the day before the annual general meeting.

(2) Two scrutineers shall be appointed by the president to examine and count the votes.

14.—(1) The persons qualified to vote shall be such persons as are members of the Association and have paid all fees due from them to the Association.

(2) In the event of an elector placing more than the required number of names upon the voting paper for members of the council, the first names only not exceeding the required number shall be counted.

(3) Any person entitled to vote at the election may be present at the counting of the votes. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 14.

15.—(1) The qualified persons who have the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

(2) In the case of equality of votes between two or more persons that leaves the election of one or more officers or members of the council undecided, the scrutineers shall forthwith put into a ballot box a number of papers with the names of the candidates respectively having such equality of votes written thereon, one for each candidate, and the secretary-treasurer shall draw from the ballot box, in the presence of the scrutineers, one or more of the papers sufficient to make up the required number, and the person or persons whose name or names are upon the papers so drawn shall be the officer or officers or the member or members of the council, as the case may be. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 15.

16. Upon the completion of the counting of the votes, the secretary-treasurer shall report the result of the election in writing signed by himself and the scrutineers to the president who shall announce the same at the annual general meeting. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 16.

17. In the case of the resignation, death or dismissal of the president, vice-president or any electoral member of the council, the other members of the council have power to fill any vacancy so caused, and the person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 17.

18. In case of doubt or dispute as to who has been elected or as to the legality of the election, the duly elected officers and members are a committee to inquire and decide the doubt or dispute, and the persons whom they decide to have been elected shall be deemed to have been duly elected, and, if the election is found to have been illegal, the committee shall order a new election. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 18.

19.—(1) The board of examiners shall consist of the chairman of the council, the secretary-treasurer, four other members of the Association to be appointed by the council and two to be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 19 (1, 2), amended.

(2) The six members so appointed shall hold office for three years.

(3) In the case of resignation, death or inability to act of any member of the board, the Lieutenant Governor in Council, if such member was appointed by him, and the council, if such member was appointed by it, shall appoint a member of the Association to be a member of the board for the unexpired portion of the term.

(4) The chairman of the council is the chairman of the board and three members of the board form a quorum.

(5) The council may also appoint competent persons to assist the board in any of the subjects of examination, and may fix the expenses and fees to be paid to any of the examiners, subject to the restrictions hereinafter contained in respect of payments to members of the board.

(6) Each member of the board shall take and subscribe the following oath:
I, ........................................... of ............................................., having been appointed a member of the board of examiners under The Land Surveyors Act, do sincerely promise and swear that I will faithfully discharge the duties of such office without favour, affection or partiality. So help me God.

Sworn, etc.

R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 19 (3-7).

20.—(1) The board shall meet in the City of Toronto on the first Monday in February in every year, and may adjourn such meeting from time to time. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 20 (1).

(2) The council shall for each day's attendance pay out of the funds of the Association to each member of the board who attends any examinations such sum as the council by by-law determines, and his travelling expenses. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 20 (2); 1956, c. 37, s. 3.

21.—(1) The board shall grant a certificate (Form 2) authorizing to practise as a surveyor any person who,

(a) has attained the age of twenty-one years;

(b) has served faithfully and regularly for four years, at least two of which have been served in actual survey work in the field under an instrument in writing duly executed before two witnesses, as a student to a surveyor in actual practice and has received from such surveyor a certificate of his having so served or proves to the satisfaction of the board that he has so served or has been wholly or partly exempted from such apprenticeship by the board;

(c) has passed, at least six months before presenting himself for the final examination, an intermediate examination in such subjects as the by-laws of the Association set out or such part thereof as is specified by the board;

(d) has passed a final examination not more than six months before the termination of his apprenticeship, if any, in such subjects as the by-laws of the Association require or such part thereof as is specified by the board;

(e) has paid all fees due from him to the Association;

(f) has produced, if required by the board, satisfactory evidence as to probity and sobriety;

(g) has entered into a joint and several bond to Her Majesty in the sum of $1,000, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office to be deposited in the office of the Treasurer of Ontario and enuring to the benefit of any person sustaining damage by breach of the conditions thereof with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the board or the chairman or secretary-treasurer thereof;

(h) has provided himself with a properly certified standard measure of length;

(i) has taken and subscribed the oath of allegiance and the following oath of office before the chairman of the board or a member thereof deputed by the board for that purpose, which oaths of allegiance and office shall be deposited in the office of the Provincial Secretary:

I, ______________________, do solemnly swear that I will faithfully discharge the duties of an Ontario Land Surveyor according to the law, without favour, affection or partiality.

R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 21; 1956, c. 37, s. 4 (1, 2), amended.

(2) The intermediate and final examinations shall be held in March and September of each year upon such day or days, and at such place or places as the council directs.

(3) Any person who has the educational standing mentioned in section 22, whether or not apprenticed, may take the intermediate examination.

(4) The final examination may consist of two groups of subjects, one group designated as Part I and the other group designated as Part II.

(5) The council shall from time to time prescribe the fees payable by candidates for examination, which fees are payable in advance by the candidates. 1956, c. 37, s. 4 (3).

22. A person may be apprenticed to a surveyor if he produces to the secretary-treasurer a certificate of educational standing as required for admission to the course in civil engineering in a university in Ontario or such other evidence of educational standing as in the opinion of the board is the equivalent thereof. 1956, c. 37, s. 5.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 21,

(a) any person who is a graduate in civil engineering, mining engineering or forestry of a university in Ontario or who is a graduate in any course of an educational institution that in the opinion of the board is the equivalent thereof shall serve two years apprenticeship, one of which must be served in actual survey work in the field, and if such person has been a student to a surveyor in actual practice at any time during which he was an undergraduate he shall be granted up to one year in reduction of the period of such apprenticeship;

(b) any person who is qualifying for a certificate under section 21 and who has served a surveyor before he was apprenticed under section 22 shall be granted up to one year in reduction of the period of apprenticeship; and

(c) any person who has been on active service in the naval, military or air forces of Her Majesty or any of Her Majesty's allies shall only be bound to serve under such articles for such period of time as the board deems necessary after considering his training or experience in surveying or engineering before or during such service in the forces. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 23; 1956, c. 37, s. 6.

24. The board has power to grant exemption from the whole or part of the term of apprenticeship and from the whole or parts of the intermediate and final examinations in the case of a person who has attained the age of twenty-one years and has practised as a surveyor in any of Her Majesty's realms other than the Province of Ontario, and has satisfied the board that the qualifications for practising required in such realm are similar to those required in Ontario and has produced to the board his certificate or diploma; provided that the same or similar privileges are granted in such realm to Ontario land surveyors. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 24.

25. If a surveyor dies or leaves Ontario, or is suspended, dismissed or ceases to practise, his apprentice may complete his term of apprenticeship under an instrument in writing with any registered surveyor in actual practice. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 25.

26.—(1) A surveyor may, with the consent of the apprentice by an instrument in writing, transfer him to another registered surveyor in actual practice with whom he may serve the remainder of the term of his apprenticeship. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 26.

(2) Upon cause shown to the council by an apprentice, the council may transfer the apprentice from the surveyor he is serving to another registered surveyor in actual practice with whom he may serve the remainder of the term of his apprenticeship. 1956, c. 37, s. 7.
27. Every agreement of apprenticeship to a surveyor shall be transmitted to the secretary-treasurer within two months of the date thereof for approval and registration, and, if approved, shall be registered by the secretary-treasurer in his office and notice of the registration forwarded by mail to the apprentice. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 27.

28. Every person desiring to be examined by the board shall give notice thereof in writing to the secretary-treasurer at least one month before the meeting of the board. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 28.

29. Where the annual fees of a member remain unpaid for more than six years and the council is unable to grant total exemption for such period on the ground of extenuating circumstances, the member shall be suspended from membership in the Association until such fees are paid in full or in such part as the council deems just. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 29 (2).

30.—(1) The secretary-treasurer shall make and keep a correct register of all persons entitled to be registered under this Act, and shall enter opposite the name of a registered person who has died, a statement of the fact and shall make necessary alterations in the addresses of persons registered, and, subject to this Act, shall keep the register in accordance with the by-laws of the Association and the orders and regulations of the council.

(2) A registered surveyor desiring to give up practice may have his name removed from the register upon giving written notice to the secretary-treasurer of such desire and paying all fees due from him to the Association, and thereafter he is not liable to the Association for any annual or other fees, and may, upon like notice of his intention to resume practice and paying the annual fee for the year in which such notice is given, be again registered.

(3) No name shall be entered in the register except of persons authorized by this Act to be registered nor unless the secretary-treasurer is satisfied by proper evidence that the person claiming to be entitled to be registered is so entitled, and any appeal from his decision shall be decided by the council, and any entry that is proved to the satisfaction of the council to have been fraudulently or incorrectly made shall be erased from or amended in the register by order of the council.

(4) The Association may provide that any surveyor who has been in the actual practice of his profession for a period... of thirty-five years or more and was during the entire period a duly qualified surveyor may be exempted from payment of the annual membership fee. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 30.

31.-(1) The secretary-treasurer shall in every year cause to be printed and kept for inspection in his office an annual register in which shall be printed in alphabetical order the names and addresses of all persons authorized to practise as surveyors on the 1st day of June of that year.

(2) A copy of the annual register so printed is evidence in all courts and for all persons that the persons therein mentioned are registered under this Act.

(3) In the case of a person whose name does not appear in such copy, a certified copy under the hand of the secretary-treasurer of the entry of the name of such person in the register is like evidence that such person is registered under this Act. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 31.

32. If the secretary-treasurer wilfully makes or causes or allows to be made any falsification in any matter relating to the register he is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not less than $20 and not more than $50. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 32, amended.

33. Any person who wilfully procures or attempts to procure registration under this Act by making or producing or causing to be made or produced any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, either verbally or in writing, is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not less than $20 and not more than $50 and the council may remove the name of the offender from the register. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 33, amended.

34.-(1) A person registered under this Act is entitled to take or use the name or title “Ontario Land Surveyor” and, unless so registered, no person is entitled to take or use the name or title “Ontario Land Surveyor” either alone or in combination with any other word or words, or any name, title or description implying that he is registered under this Act.

(2) Every person who contravenes subsection 1 is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $20 for the first offence and not more than $50 for each subsequent offence. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 34, amended.

35. Every surveyor summoned to attend any civil or criminal court for the purpose of giving evidence in his professional capacity or in consequence of any professional service rendered by him is entitled to $5 for each day he so attends, in addition to his travelling expenses, to be taxed and paid in the manner by law provided with regard to the payment of witnesses attending such court. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 35.

36.—(1) Where after due inquiry by a committee of the Association, appointed pursuant to its by-laws, a surveyor has been found to have been guilty of gross negligence or of corruption in the execution of the duties of his office or of professional misconduct or of conduct apt to bring the profession into disrepute or where a surveyor has been convicted in Canada or elsewhere of an indictable offence, other than a political offence committed out of Her Majesty’s dominions, the council by order may reprimand or censure such surveyor or may suspend him from membership and from registration for such time not exceeding one year as the council deems proper, or may expel him from membership and from registration.

(2) Unless a judge of the Supreme Court otherwise orders, a surveyor who has been ordered by the council to be suspended or expelled from membership and from registration shall not, pending the disposition of any appeal made by him, act as a surveyor while so ordered to be suspended or expelled.

(3) When an order has been made by the council suspending or expelling a surveyor from membership, the surveyor may appeal to a judge of the Supreme Court from the order.

(4) The appeal shall be by notice of motion served upon the president, vice-president or secretary-treasurer of the Association within fifteen days after service upon the surveyor of a copy of the decision appealed from, or within such further time as is allowed by a judge of the Supreme Court.

(5) The judge may hear the appeal on the transcript of the evidence taken before the committee of the Association or upon such further evidence as he permits or he may rehear the case or remit it for rehearing on such evidence as he indicates.

(6) The judge may affirm, vary or rescind the order of the council or make such other order as he deems just.

(7) By leave of a judge of the Court of Appeal given on application made within fifteen days after the decision complained of, an appeal lies to the Court of Appeal from any decision of a judge made under subsection 6.
(8) The council may at any time direct the secretary-treasurer to restore to the register, upon such terms and conditions as are determined by the council, any entry or the name of any person removed therefrom. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 36.

37. On any inquiry concerning the election, dismissal, suspension or restoration of any member, a subpoena under the hand of the president or of the vice-president or of any two members of the council for the attendance of a witness before the council, has all the force of a subpoena issued by the Supreme Court, and any witness not attending in obedience thereto is liable to attachment in the Supreme Court. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 37.

38.—(1) All fees payable under this Act may be recovered as debts due the Association.

(2) All fines recovered under this Act shall immediately upon the recovery thereof be paid over by the convicting magistrate to the secretary-treasurer. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 38 (1, 2), amended.

(3) Any person may be prosecutor or complainant under this Act, and the council may allot such portion of the fine as it deems expedient to the prosecutor. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 38 (3).

39. The secretary-treasurer shall enter in books to be kept for that purpose a true account of all moneys received and paid by him, and such books shall be audited and submitted to the council and to the Association when and so often as they require. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 39.

40.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, all notices and documents required by or for the purposes of this Act to be sent by mail, if sent by registered mail, shall be deemed to have been received at the time when they would be delivered in the ordinary course of mail.

(2) Such notices and documents, when sent to a person registered under this Act, shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed to him according to his address in the register of the Association. R.S.O. 1950, c. 196, s. 40.
