(a) who was a widow at the time of her death; or

(b) who was married at the time of her death and who supported such child or children at the time of her death, where the widower is not entitled to an allowance under subsection 4.

(6) In this section, “child” includes an adopted child and a step-child and “children” has a corresponding meaning.

(7) The minimum payment under this section shall be at the rate of $300 per annum. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 31 (5-7).

33. Where a person referred to in subclause ii of clause a or subclause ii of clause b of subsection 1 of section 32 was receiving a disability allowance under section 30 at the time of his death and provision was made for a special medical re-examination and no decision was made by the Commission on such re-examination, the Commission may, if it is of the opinion, having regard to the facts established at the time of his death, that the person should have been receiving a disability allowance under section 29, recompute his allowance under section 29 as of the date of his death for the purposes of a dependant’s allowance under section 32. 1960, c. 119, s. 3.

34.—(1) A person to whom section 32 cannot apply may, by a direction in writing signed by him and deposited with the Commission at least two years before he ceases to be employed, direct that the allowance to which he would be entitled be converted and paid as an annuity to him upon his retirement for his lifetime and, after his death, at one-half the rate to any dependant named in the direction.

(2) A person who has not given a direction within the time prescribed in subsection 1 may, at a later date, but not after making application for an allowance, give such a direction upon passing a medical examination satisfactory to the Commission.
(3) A person who has given a direction under this section may, at any time before he ceases to be employed, revoke it.

(4) Where a person who has given a direction under this section dies,

(a) before he makes application for an allowance; or

(b) before he ceases to be employed, the direction has no effect. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 32.

35. An allowance under this Act shall be made only after the receipt by the Commission of an application therefor in the prescribed form. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 33.

36. No application for a disability allowance shall be considered by the Commission until the Commission has obtained,

(b) the report of the medical referee of the Commission containing such recommendations as he deems proper with regard to the granting of an allowance to the applicant. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 34.

39.—(1) Every allowance shall commence as of the first day of the month next following the month during which the applicant ceased to be employed, except that a disability allowance shall not commence as of a date earlier than one year before the date upon which the completed application therefore reaches the Commission.

(2) Every dependant’s allowance shall commence as of the day following the death of the person in respect of whom it is payable. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 37.

40.—(1) Where a person who is receiving a superannuation allowance becomes employed upon either a temporary or a permanent basis, he shall forthwith give notice in writing thereof to the Commission, and in default of so doing forfeits any further claim to any benefit under this Act unless the Commission otherwise directs. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 38 (1); 1953, c. 103, s. 13.

(2) Where a person who is receiving a disability allowance becomes employed upon either a temporary or a permanent basis or becomes engaged as a teacher in a school or institution either in or outside Ontario upon either a temporary or a permanent basis, he shall forthwith give notice in writing thereof to the Commission, and in default of so doing forfeits any further claim to any benefit under this Act unless the Commission otherwise directs. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 38 (2).

41.-(1) Where a person who is receiving a superannuation allowance becomes employed,

(a) the allowance shall cease to be paid; and

(b) he shall contribute to the Fund during the period that he is employed. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 39 (1); 1953, c. 103, s. 14.

42. Where a person who ceased to receive a superannuation allowance because of re-employment again ceases to be employed,

(a) in the case of a person who has been re-employed for a period of less than two school years, payment of the allowance shall be resumed without any adjustment in the amount thereof, upon receipt by the Commission of a notice in writing of the cessation of employment;

(b) in the case of a person who has been so employed for a period of two or more school years, an application for an allowance shall be treated as an application for a new allowance; and

(c) in no case is he entitled to receive a disability allowance. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 40 (1).

43. Where a person who is receiving a disability allowance becomes employed or becomes engaged as a teacher in or outside Ontario,

(a) any application subsequently made for an allowance shall be treated as an application for a new allowance; and

(b) any allowance or refund that he may subsequently become entitled to receive shall be reduced actuarially by any amount that he has failed to repay to the Fund in accordance with section 41. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 41.

(b) having been employed for less than thirty years, is receiving a disability allowance under section 31; or

(c) being a widower, is receiving a dependant’s allowance, to furnish evidence, in such form as it directs, of his mental or physical condition.

(2) Where the person fails to furnish evidence that his mental or physical condition continues to be of a nature that would entitle him to receive an allowance under the section under which his allowance is paid, the Commission may direct that the allowance shall cease to be paid and that no further allowance shall be paid to him or that such other allowance as the Commission finds him to be entitled to shall be paid to him. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 42.

45. Where the Commission is satisfied that a person to whom an allowance is payable under this Act is incapable of managing his own affairs, the Commission may direct that any cheque for moneys payable to him be made payable to a member of his family or household, and in that case the endorsement of the cheque by the person so designated by the Commission is a sufficient discharge of the Fund to the extent of such payment. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 43.

46. The interest of a person in the Fund and in an allowance under this Act is not subject to garnishment, attachment, seizure or other process of law and is not assignable. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 44.

47. (1) A refund under this Act shall be made only after the receipt by the Commission of an application therefor in the prescribed form.

(2) Every refund shall be paid in a lump sum unless the person to whom it is payable, or, where he has died, his personal representative, states in the application that he wishes the amount to be paid in instalments, in which case the amount shall be paid in three equal instalments without additional interest on the days fixed by the Commission for the purpose. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 45.

(3) Where the person to whom a refund is payable dies and has no personal representative, the refund may be paid to such person as the Commission designates. 1957, c. 122, s. 5.

(1) A person who was employed for five or more school years and ceased to be employed by withdrawing from the profession before the 31st day of March, 1949, is entitled to a refund of an amount equal to the whole of his contributions to the Fund with interest at the rate of 1½ per cent per annum compounded half-yearly from the date of cessation of employment to the 31st day of March, 1949.

(2) A person who was employed after the 1st day of April, 1949, for twenty or more days in a school year and ceases to be employed by withdrawing from the profession is entitled to a refund of an amount equal to the whole of his contributions to the Fund, but no such refund shall be made until three months have elapsed after the date upon which the person ceased to be employed. 1953, c. 103, s. 16.

(3) A person who has been employed for fifteen or more school years and who, because he has reached the age limit specified in a by-law or resolution of the board or other authority employing him, ceases to be employed before he becomes entitled to an allowance under this Act, is entitled to a refund of an amount equal to the amounts contributed by him to the Fund with interest to the date of refund at the rate of 4 per cent per annum compounded half-yearly.
(4) For the purposes of this section, the date upon which a person shall be deemed to have ceased to be employed is the last day for which he was paid in the last school year during which he was employed for twenty days or more. R.S.O. 1950, c. 384, s. 46 (2, 3).

49. A person who withdrew his contributions from the Fund and subsequently was employed and ceased to be so employed before the 1st day of April, 1949, is entitled to a refund of an amount equal to the whole of his contributions during such period of subsequent employment together with interest on the total of all the contributions that he has made to the Fund at the rate of 1½ per cent per annum compounded half-yearly from the date of cessation of such subsequent employment to the 31st day of March, 1949, less interest on the amount of his first withdrawal at the rate of 4½ per cent per annum from the date of his first withdrawal to the 31st day of March, 1949. 1954, c. 93, s. 4.

50.—(1) A person who has withdrawn his contributions from the Fund and subsequently is employed for not fewer than twenty days in a school year and desires to be reinstated in the Fund in respect of his former period of employment may be so reinstated by paying into the Fund within five years from the date he commenced the subsequent period of employment the amount of contributions previously refunded to him, with interest at the rate of 4⅞ per cent per annum compounded half-yearly for the period from the date of his return to employment until the date of the completion of his repayment of the withdrawal, and any disability or superannuation allowance or other payment out of the Fund to which he may be entitled during the period of repayment shall be reduced actuarially during his lifetime by the amount withdrawn and not repaid.

(2) A person who has withdrawn his contributions from the Fund and subsequently is employed for not fewer than twenty days in a school year and desires to be reinstated in the Fund in respect of his former period of employment may be so reinstated by paying into the Fund at any time after the expiration of the five-year period mentioned in subsection 1 the amount of contributions previously refunded to him, with interest at the rate of 4⅞ per cent per annum compounded half-yearly for the period from the date of the withdrawal or from the 1st day of April, 1949, whichever is the later date, until the date of the completion of his repayment of the withdrawal, and any disability or superannuation allowance or other payment out of the Fund to which he may be entitled during the period of repayment shall be reduced actuarially during his lifetime by the amount withdrawn and not repaid.
