CHAPTER 397

The Threshing Machines Act

1.—(1) Every person owning or running a threshing machine, wood-sawing or other machine, that is connected to a horse-power by means of a tumbling rod or line of shafting, shall cause each of the knuckles, couplings or joints and jacks of such tumbling rod or line of shafting to be safely boxed or secured while running, with wood, leather or metal covering, in such manner as to prevent injury to persons passing over or near such tumbling rod, and the knuckles, couplings or joints and jacks thereof, and shall cause all oiling cups attached to arbors or journals to which driving belts are attached to be furnished with tubes of tin or other material which shall extend above the belts in such manner as to prevent injury to a person oiling the machine when it is in motion, and shall cause a driver's platform of sufficient size to cover the gearing of the horse-power to be so placed on it when used for driving machinery as to prevent an injury to any person from contact with such gearing.

Certain machines to be so protected as to prevent injury to persons

(2) No action shall be maintained, and no legal liability exists, for services rendered by or with any such machine, where the provisions of this section have not been complied with. R.S.O. 1950, c. 390, s. 1.

Non-compliance bar to action

2. Any person owning or running a threshing, wood-sawing or other machine, connected to a horse-power by means of a tumbling rod or line of shafting, who neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this Act, is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not less than $1 and not more than $20. R.S.O. 1950, c. 390, s. 2.

Offence

3. All fines imposed and collected under this Act shall be paid, one-half to the complainant or prosecutor, and the other one-half to the treasurer of the school section in which the offence was committed for the use of the public school in such section. R.S.O. 1950, c. 390, s. 3.

Application of fines

4. All proceedings against any person for a contravention of section 1 shall be commenced within thirty days after the commission of the offence. R.S.O. 1950, c. 390, s. 4.

Limitation of prosecution
