CHAPTER 5.

The Patricia Act.

1. That part of the Province of Ontario hereinafter described and heretofore known as the District of Patricia is hereby annexed to and shall form part of the Territorial District of Kenora and shall for judicial purposes form part of the Provisional Judicial District of Kenora to be known as the "Patricia Portion" thereof, that is to say, the territory described as follows:

District of Patricia annexed to Kenora.

Commencing at the most northerly point of the westerly boundary of the Province of Ontario as determined by The Canada (Ontario) Boundary Act, 1889, chapter 28 of the statutes of 1889 of the United Kingdom, (the said westerly boundary being the easterly boundary of the Province of Manitoba); thence continuing due north along the same meridian to the intersection thereof with the centre of the road allowance on the twelfth base line of the system of Dominion Land Surveys; thence northeasterly in a right line to the most eastern point of Island Lake, as shown in approximate latitude fifty-three degrees thirty minutes and longitude ninety-three degrees forty minutes on the railway map of the Dominion of Canada, published, on the scale of thirty-five miles to one inch, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, by the authority of the Minister of the Interior; thence northeasterly in a right line to the point where the eighty-ninth meridian of west longitude intersects the southern shore of Hudson Bay; thence easterly and southerly following the shore of the said Bay to the point where the northerly boundary of the Province of Ontario as established under the said Act intersects the shore of James Bay; thence westward along the said boundary as established by the said Act to the place of commencement. 1927, c. 4, s. 2.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by proclamation at any time and from time to time detach the whole or any portion of the above described territory from the Territorial District of Kenora and may in like manner annex the whole or such part thereof to any other territorial or provisional judicial district, or may designate the whole of the above described territory or any part thereof as a separate territorial district or provisional judicial district, and nothing in this Act contained shall restrict the powers of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council under this section. 1927, c. 4, s. 3.

Lieutenant-Governor in Council empowered to make regulations.

3. In the event of the whole or any part of the above described territory being detached from the District of Kenora and annexed to any other territorial or provisional judicial district, or being erected into a separate provisional judicial district, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make such regulations as may from time to time be deemed necessary as to,—

- (a) the establishment or jurisdiction of the district court;
- (b) the constitution and territorial jurisdiction of the division courts in such annexed territory or new provisional judicial district;
- (c) the transfer of books, plans and documents to the office of land titles in the district to which such territory is annexed or to the land titles office of the new provisional judicial district;
- (d) the transfer of books, plans and documents to the registry office of the district to which such territory is annexed or to the registry office of the new provisional judicial district; and
- (e) any matter incidental to the necessary adjustment occasioned by such annexation or the erection of such new provisional judicial district;

the intent and purpose of this section being that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, in the event of any such annexation, or the erection of any such new provisional judicial district, make all appointments, issue all commissions and proclamations, give all such directions and make all such regulations and generally do whatever would be necessary and proper to be done upon the transfer of territory from one judicial district to another or upon the erection of a new provisional judicial district as to the administration of justice, registered dealings with land in the land titles office or registry office, and all other matters necessary to be dealt with thereon. 1927, c. 4, s. 4.
