(b) owned or leased or otherwise held by a corporation having more than one shareholder or member where any one of the shareholders or members, by reason of owning shares in or being a member of the corporation, has the right to present or future exclusive possession of a unit in the rental residential property, but does not include a non-profit co-operative housing corporation as defined in the Residential Tenancies Act; R.S.O. 1980, c. 452

"Minister" means the Minister of Housing;

2. This Act applies to rental residential property, despite any other Act and despite any agreement or waiver to the contrary.

3. This Act does not apply to a rental residential property exempted by the regulations or located in a municipality that is exempted by the regulations.

4.—(1) No rental residential property, or part thereof, shall be,

(b) converted to a condominium, co-operative, hotel, motel, tourist home, inn, apartment hotel, rooming house or any similar use, or any other use for a purpose other than rental residential property;

(d) severed under section 52 of the Planning Act, 1983, by any person unless the council of the municipality in which the property is located approves of such demolition, conversion, repair, renovation or severance.

(2) The council of a municipality, in respect of an approval sought under clause (1) (b), shall, in place of the Minister, exercise the powers conferred on the Minister under section 50 of the Condominium Act (approval or exemption of descriptions).

5.—(1) No person shall sell, lease for a term of twenty-one years or more, or enter into an agreement to sell or lease an interest or share in a co-operative or in a corporation owning or leasing any interest in a co-operative unless the approval of the council of the municipality under subsection 4 (1) has first been obtained.

(2) This section does not apply to the transfer of an interest or share in a co-operative that is exempted by the regulations.
(3) An agreement or conveyance entered into in contravention of subsection (1) is void and any amount paid thereunder is recoverable by the purchaser.

(4) An instrument or notice respecting the sale, lease or agreement for sale of a share or interest in a co-operative may contain a statement by the vendor that an agreement or conveyance does not contravene this section and such statement is deemed to be sufficient proof that the agreement or conveyance does not contravene this section.

6.—(1) No landlord shall serve a notice of termination on the grounds set out in section 107 of the Landlord and Tenant Act unless the approval of the council of the municipality under subsection 4 (1) has first been obtained and a copy of the certificate under subsection 7 (16) is attached to the notice.

(2) A notice of termination served in contravention of subsection (1) is of no effect.

(3) Despite section 113 of the Landlord and Tenant Act, no order for a writ of possession shall be issued by any court in respect of an application under section 107 of the said Act, notwithstanding that the notice of termination was served or application made for a writ of possession prior to the coming into force of this Act, unless the approval of the council of the municipality under subsection 4 (1) has first been obtained by the landlord.

7.—(1) An application for an approval under this Act shall be made in writing to the clerk of the municipality and shall contain such information as may be prescribed by regulation.

(2) Notice of the application shall be given by the owner of the residential rental property to each tenant of a rental unit in the rental residential property within five days of the application being made.

(3) The council of the municipality may require an applicant to cause an architect or a professional engineer to make a physical inspection of the rental residential property and to make a report detailing the condition and structural safety of the property or it may require that such an inspection be made and report prepared by its chief building official.

(4) For the purposes of an inspection under subsection (3), a person authorized to inspect a rental unit has the right to enter the rental unit during daylight hours upon written notice to the tenant specifying the time of entry at least twenty-four hours before the time of entry, and a tenant shall permit the entry of such person during that time.

(5) A copy of the report referred to in subsection (3) shall be made available by the municipality for inspection by the public.

(6) The council may approve the application with or without such conditions as in its opinion are reasonable or reject the application but council shall not approve the application unless such criteria as are prescribed by the regulations are met.

(7) Before considering an application under this section, the council shall ensure that adequate information is made available to the public, and for this purpose shall hold at least one public meeting, notice of which shall be given in the manner and to the persons prescribed, for the purpose of informing the public in respect of the application.

(8) The meeting mentioned in subsection (7) shall be held not sooner than fifteen days after the requirements for the giving of notice have been complied with and shall be open to the public, and any person who attends the meeting shall be afforded an opportunity to make representation in respect of the proposed application.

(9) Every municipality may enter into agreements imposed as a condition to an approval under this Act and any such agreement may be registered against the land to which it applies and the municipality shall be entitled to enforce the provisions thereof against the owner and, subject to the provisions of the Registry Act and the Land Titles Act, any and all subsequent owners of the land.

(10) Written notice of the decision of the council shall be sent to the applicant and to every person who in writing requested to be given notice of the decision within five days of the making thereof.

(11) Where the council refuses or neglects to make a decision on the application filed in accordance with this Act within thirty days after the receipt by the clerk of the municipality of the application, the applicant may appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board by filing with the clerk of the municipality a notice of appeal.

(12) Any person who is not satisfied with the decision of council may, not later than twenty days after the date of the decision, appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board by filing with the clerk of the municipality a notice of appeal setting out the objection to the decision and the reasons in support of the objection.

(13) If an application respecting a matter set out in section 4 or 5 has been made to the Ontario Municipal Board prior to the coming into force of this Act, this Act applies unless the Board has issued its decision.

(14) The clerk of the municipality, upon receipt of a notice of appeal under subsection (11) or (12), shall compile a record and forward the notice of appeal and the record to the secretary of the Board and shall provide such information or material as the Board may require in respect of the appeal.

(15) The Board shall hold a hearing and has the same authority as the council under subsection (6) but if all appeals have been withdrawn prior to the hearing, the decision of the council is final and binding and the secretary of the Board shall notify the clerk of the municipality who in turn shall notify the applicant.

(16) When an approval has been given under this section by the municipality, the Ontario Municipal Board or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, as the case may be, the clerk of the municipality shall give a certificate in the form prescribed by regulation to the applicant stating that the approval has been given and the certificate is conclusive evidence that the approval was given and that the provisions of this Act leading to the approval have been complied with, and after the certificate has been given no action may be maintained to question the validity of the approval, but where a condition has been imposed, the certificate shall not be given until the council is satisfied that the condition has been fulfilled.

(17) Upon the petition of any party to the hearing filed with the Clerk of the Executive Council within fifteen days after the date of any decision of the Board, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may,

(a) confirm, vary or rescind the whole or any part of such decision;

(b) substitute for the decision of the Board such decision as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers appropriate; or

(c) require the Board to hold a new public hearing of the whole or any part of the application to the Board upon which such decision of the Board was made, and the decision of the Board after the public hearing ordered under clause (c) is not subject to petition under this section.

(18) Any party who has filed a petition under subsection (17) may at any time withdraw the petition by filing a notice of withdrawal with the Clerk of the Executive Council.

(19) No certificate of approval shall be issued until the time for all appeals has passed or until all such appeals have been disposed of, whichever is later.

8. The council of a municipality may by by-law establish fees for the processing of an application made under this Act, which fees shall not exceed the anticipated cost to the municipality of processing the application and of having its chief building official make an inspection of the rental residential property.

(2) If a draft approval or a commitment for an exemption from an approval has been granted under section 50 of the Condominium Act or the Ontario Municipal Board has issued a decision approving an application for conversion prior to the coming into force of this Act, the approval of the council of a municipality under subsection 4 (1) is not required.

Every person who contravenes section 4 or 5 or subsection 6 (1) and every director or officer of a corporation who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the contravention of section 4 or 5 or subsection 6 (1) by the corporation is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or to both.
