(6) Where a new election is ordered, the court may make such order as it considers just, against any person who is found guilty of an offence or a corrupt practice under this Act, for the compensation of candidates at the void election, not exceeding $10,000 per candidate.

(7) The Registrar of the Supreme Court shall forward the judgment and the reasons for judgment to the Assembly through the Clerk of the Assembly. 1971, c. 100, s. 9, part.

157.—(1) If the court determines that a member was not duly returned, notwithstanding that an appeal from the decision is pending, he is not entitled to sit or vote in the Assembly until the appeal is disposed of and the judgment of the court is received by the Assembly, but where the court determines that some other person was elected or is entitled to the seat, such person is, notwithstanding that an appeal is pending, entitled to take his seat in the Assembly and to sit and vote until the appeal is disposed of and the judgment of the court is received by the Assembly.

(2) In the cases to which subsection (1) applies, where an appeal is entered, the Registrar shall forthwith notify the Clerk of the Assembly that an appeal is pending from the decision of the court. 1971, c. 100, s. 9, part.

159.—(1) An appeal lies from the judgment of the Supreme Court to the Court of Appeal.

(2) The Registrar shall set the appeal down for hearing at the next sittings, and the party appealing shall, within ten days, give to the parties affected by the appeal, or the solicitors by whom such parties were represented before the trial judge, and to the Chief Election Officer, notice in writing that the case has been so set down, and the appeal shall be heard by the Court of Appeal as speedily as practicable.

(3) The Court of Appeal may give any judgment that ought to have been pronounced or may grant a new trial for the purposes of taking evidence or additional evidence and may remit the case to the trial judge or to another judge and, subject to any directions of the Court of Appeal, the case shall thereafter be proceeded with as if there had been no appeal.

(4) An appeal lies from the decision of the trial judge to whom the case was remitted by the Court of Appeal in accordance with the provisions of this section. 1971, c. 100, s. 9, part.

160. The Lieutenant Governor in Council, upon the recommendation of the Assembly, may issue a commission to inquire into whether corrupt practices extensively prevailed at the election and the Commissioner has the powers of a commission under Part II of the Public Inquiries Act, which Part applies to the inquiry as if it were an inquiry under that Act. 1971, c. 100, s. 9, part; 1971, c. 49, s. 18.
