(2) Any owner of lands in respect of which notice is given under subsection (1) who desires a hearing shall so notify the approving authority in writing,

(a) in the case of a registered owner, served personally or by registered mail within thirty days after he is served with the notice, or, where he is being served with the notice by publication, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice;

(b) in the case of an owner who is not a registered owner, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice.

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, in special circumstances where he considers it necessary or expedient in the public interest to do so, direct that an intended expropriation shall proceed without the inquiry procedure and thereupon subsections (1) and (2) of this section, section 7 and subsections 8 (1) and (2) do not apply thereto.

(4) Where an order is made under subsection (3), the expropriating authority shall forthwith serve a copy of the order on each registered owner affected by the intended expropriation. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 6 (1-4).

(2) The chief inquiry officer shall have general supervision and direction over inquiry officers and the assignment of their duties.

(3) Where a notification is made under subsection 6 (2), the approving authority shall refer the matter to the chief inquiry officer who shall forthwith assign an inquiry officer who shall fix a time and place for a hearing and who shall cause notice of the hearing to be served upon each party to the inquiry.

(4) At least five days before the date fixed for the hearing, the expropriating authority shall serve upon each party to the inquiry a notice indicating the grounds upon which it intends to rely at the hearing and shall make available for inspection by the parties any documents, including maps and plans, that the expropriating authority intends to use at the hearing.

(5) The hearing shall be by means of an inquiry conducted by the inquiry officer who shall inquire into whether the taking of the lands or any part of the lands of an owner or of more than one owner of the same lands is fair, sound and reasonably necessary in the achievement of the objectives of the expropriating authority.

(6) The inquiry officer shall report to the approving authority a summary of the evidence and arguments advanced by the parties, the inquiry officer's findings of fact, and his opinion on the merits of the application for approval with his reasons therefor.

(7) The inquiry officer may combine two or more related inquiries and conduct them in all respects and for all purposes as one inquiry.

(8) The expropriating authority, each owner who notifies the approving authority that he desires a hearing in respect of the lands intended to be expropriated and any owner added as a party by the inquiry officer are parties to the inquiry.

(9) The inquiry officer,

(a) may add any owner whose land would be affected by the expropriation of the lands concerned in the inquiry or any modification thereof as a party to the inquiry;

(b) shall give every party to the inquiry an opportunity to present evidence and argument and to examine and cross-examine witnesses, either personally or by his counsel or agent;

(c) is not bound by the technical or legal rules of evidence; and

(d) may inspect the lands concerned either alone or in the presence of the parties.

(10) The inquiry officer may recommend to the approving authority that a party to the inquiry be paid a fixed amount for his costs of the inquiry not to exceed $200 and the approving authority may in its discretion order the expropriating authority to pay such costs forthwith. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 7 (2-10).

8.—(1) The approving authority shall consider the report of the inquiry officer and shall approve or not approve the proposed expropriation or approve the proposed expropriation with such modifications as the approving authority considers proper, but an approval with modifications shall not affect the lands of a registered owner who is not or has not been made a party to the hearing.

(2) The approving authority shall give written reasons for its decision and shall cause its decision and the reasons therefor to be served upon all the parties within ninety days after the date upon which the report of the inquiry officer is received by the approving authority.

(3) The approving authority shall certify its approval in the prescribed form. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 8.

9.—(1) Where a proposed expropriation has been approved under this Act or under the Ontario Energy Board Act, the expropriating authority shall register, within three months after the granting of the approval, in the proper land registry office a plan of the land signed by the expropriating authority and by an Ontario land surveyor, and thereupon, but not otherwise, the land vests in the expropriating authority.

(2) Where the land is required for a limited time only or only a limited estate, right or interest therein is required, the plan registered under this section shall indicate by appropriate words thereon that the land is taken for such limited time only or that only such limited estate, right or interest therein is taken, and, by the registration in such case, the land for such limited time or such limited estate, right or interest therein vests in the expropriating authority.

(3) In the case of an omission, misstatement or erroneous description in a plan registered under this section, the expropriating authority may register in the proper land registry office a plan replacing or amending the original plan and signed by the expropriating authority and by an Ontario land surveyor, and a plan registered under this subsection shall be marked to show the nature of the replacement or amendment and is of the same force and effect as, and is in substitution for, the original plan to the extent that such plan is replaced or amended thereby.

(4) Where a plan purports to have been signed by an expropriating authority under this section, it shall be presumed to have been signed by the expropriating authority without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed it, unless otherwise directed by a court or the Board. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 9 (1-4).

(5) Where a limited estate, right or interest in land is being taken under the Power Corporation Act for an electrical transmission or distribution line carried on single poles, Ontario Hydro may, before registering a plan under subsection (1), register in the proper land registry office a preliminary plan, to be known as and marked "Preliminary Plan" and being a plan with or without local description, signed by the secretary of the Corporation and illustrating the location of the proposed line and indicating by appropriate words thereon the nature of the estate, right or interest being taken, and such preliminary plan when registered has the same force and effect as a plan registered under subsection (1), but a plan in accordance with subsection (1) shall be registered within two years after the registration of the preliminary plan in substitution for the preliminary plan. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 9 (5); 1973, c. 57, s. 19.

10.—(1) Where a plan has been registered under section 9 and no agreement as to compensation has been made with the owner, the expropriating authority may serve the owner, and shall serve the registered owner, within thirty days after the date of registration of the plan, with a notice of expropriation of his land, in the prescribed form, but failure to serve the notice does not invalidate the expropriation.

(2) Where a plan has been registered under section 9, the registered owner may elect, by notice in writing served upon the expropriating authority, within thirty days after the owner was served with the notice under subsection (1), to have the compensation to which he is entitled assessed,

(a) where there has been an inquiry, as of the date the notice of hearing before the inquiry officer was served;

(b) as of the date of the registration of the plan; or

(c) as of the date on which he was served with the notice of expropriation, and, where the election is not made within the prescribed time, the owner shall be deemed to have elected to have the compensation assessed as of the date of the registration of the plan.

(3) An expropriating authority may, after it has served notice of expropriation on the owner in possession of the lands expropriated, and with the consent of the said owner, enter on the expropriated lands for the purposes of viewing for appraisal, but, where the consent of the owner is not given, the expropriating authority may apply to the Board which may, by order, authorize the entry upon such terms and conditions as may be specified in the order. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 10.

11. Where land is expropriated or is injuriously affected by a statutory authority, the statutory authority may, before the compensation is agreed upon or determined, undertake to make alterations or additions or to construct additional work or to grant other lands, in which case, the compensation shall be determined having regard to such undertaking, and, if the undertaking has not already been carried out, the Board may declare that, in addition to the compensation determined, if any, the owner is entitled to have such alteration or addition made or such additional work constructed or such grant made to him. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 11.

13.—(1) Where land is expropriated, the expropriating authority shall pay the owner such compensation as is determined in accordance with this Act.

(2) Where the land of an owner is expropriated, the compensation payable to the owner shall be based upon,

(a) the market value of the land;

(b) the damages attributable to disturbance;

(c) damages for injurious affection; and

(d) any special difficulties in relocation,

but, where the market value is based upon a use of the land other than the existing use, no compensation shall be paid under clause (b) for damages attributable to disturbance that would have been incurred by the owner in using the land for such other use. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 13.

14.—(1) The market value of land expropriated is the amount that the land might be expected to realize if sold in the open market by a willing seller to a willing buyer.

(2) Where the land expropriated is devoted to a purpose of such a nature that there is no general demand or market for land for that purpose, and the owner intends in good faith to relocate in similar premises, the market value shall be deemed to be the reasonable cost of equivalent reinstatement.

(3) Where only part of the land of an owner is taken and such part is of a size, shape or nature for which there is no general demand or market, the market value and the injurious affection caused by the taking may be determined by determining the market value of the whole of the owner's land and deducting therefrom the market value of the owner's land after the taking. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 14 (1-3).

(4) In determining the market value of land, no account shall be taken of,

(a) the special use to which the expropriating authority will put the land;
Sec. 17 (2) (a) EXPROPRIATIONS Chap. 148 73

(b) any increase or decrease in the value of the land resulting from the development or the imminence of the development in respect of which the expropriation is made or from any expropriation or imminent prospect of expropriation; or

(c) any increase in the value of the land resulting from the land being put to a use that could be restrained by any court or is contrary to law or is detrimental to the health of the occupants of the land or to the public health. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 14 (4); 1972, c. 24, s. 1 (1).

(5) Where two or more expropriating authorities, including Her Majesty the Queen in right of Canada, participate in a development or a number of related developments, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may, by regulation, designate such development or developments as a co-operative development and subsection (4) shall apply to the determination of the market value of any land expropriated by any of the participating provincial expropriating authorities for any aspect or part of the co-operative development as if the entire co-operative development was a single development being carried out by that expropriating authority. 1972, c. 24, s. 1 (2), part.

15. Upon application therefor, the Board shall, by order, after fixing the market value of lands used for residential purposes of the owner under subsection 14 (1), award such additional amount of compensation as, in the opinion of the Board, is necessary to enable the owner to relocate his residence in accommodation that is at least equivalent to the accommodation expropriated. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 15.

16. Where there are more separate interests than one in land, other than the interest of a security holder or a vendor under an agreement for sale, the market value of each such separate interest shall be valued separately. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 16.

17.—(1) In this section, “bonus” means the amount by which the amount secured under a mortgage exceeds the amount actually advanced.

(2) Where land is subject to a security interest,

(a) the value of the interest of the security holder shall be determined in accordance with this section and section 20 and not otherwise; and
(b) the market value of the land shall be determined without regard to the interest of the security holder and the amount of such market value plus any damages for injurious affection shall stand in place of the land for the purposes of the security.

(3) Security holders shall be paid the amount of principal and interest outstanding against the security out of the market value of the land and any damages for injurious affection payable in respect of the land subject to the security, in accordance with their priorities, whether or not such principal and interest is due, and subject to subsections (4) and (5).

(4) Where the land is subject to a mortgage and the amount payable to the mortgagee under subsection (3) is insufficient to satisfy the mortgage in full,

(a) where the mortgage is a purchase-money mortgage, the mortgage shall be deemed to be fully paid, satisfied and discharged for all purposes; and

(b) where the mortgage is not a purchase-money mortgage and includes a bonus,

(i) the amount by which the amount payable to the mortgagee under subsection (3) is insufficient to pay the amount remaining unpaid under the mortgage, or

(ii) the amount of the bonus, whichever is the lesser, shall be deemed to be fully paid and satisfied for all purposes.

(5) No amount shall be paid in respect of a bonus until all security holders have been paid all amounts payable other than any bonus.

(6) Where land held as security is expropriated in part or is injuriously affected, a security holder is entitled to be paid to the extent possible in accordance with his priority, out of the market value portion of the compensation and any damages for injurious affection therefor, as the case may be, a sum that is in the same ratio to such portion of the compensation and damages as the balance outstanding on the security at the date of the expropriation or injurious affection is to the market value of the entire land, provided however that the sum so determined shall be reduced by the amount of any payments made to the security holder by the owner after the date of expropriation or injurious affection. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 17.

18.—(1) The expropriating authority shall pay to an owner other than a tenant, in respect of disturbance, such reasonable costs as are the natural and reasonable consequences of the expropriation, including,

(a) where the premises taken include the owner’s residence,

(i) an allowance to compensate for inconvenience and the cost of finding another residence of 5 per cent of the compensation payable in respect of the market value of that part of the land expropriated that is used by the owner for residential purposes, provided that such part was not being offered for sale on the date of the expropriation, and

(ii) an allowance for improvements the value of which is not reflected in the market value of the land;

(b) where the premises taken do not include the owner’s residence, the owner’s costs of finding premises to replace those expropriated, provided that the lands were not being offered for sale on the date of expropriation; and

(c) relocation costs, including,

(i) the moving costs, and

(ii) the legal and survey costs and other non-recoverable expenditures incurred in acquiring other premises.

(2) The expropriating authority shall pay to a tenant occupying expropriated land in respect of disturbance so much of the cost referred to in subsection (1) as is appropriate having regard to,

(a) the length of the term;

(b) the portion of the term remaining;

(c) any rights to renew the tenancy or the reasonable prospects of renewal;
(d) in the case of a business, the nature of the business; and

(e) the extent of the tenant’s investment in the land. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 18.

19.—(1) Where a business is located on the land expropriated, the expropriating authority shall pay compensation for business loss resulting from the relocation of the business made necessary by the expropriation and, unless the owner and the expropriating authority otherwise agree, the business losses shall not be determined until the business has moved and been in operation for six months or until a three-year period has elapsed, whichever occurs first.

(2) The Board may, in determining compensation on the application of the expropriating authority or an owner, include an amount not exceeding the value of the good will of a business where the land is valued on the basis of its existing use and, in the opinion of the Board, it is not feasible for the owner to relocate. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 19.

20. Where a statutory authority prepays a mortgage in whole or in part, the statutory authority,

(a) shall pay to the mortgagee a bonus in respect of the prepayment amounting to,

(i) three months interest on the amount of principal prepaid at the rate of 6 per cent a year or at such other rate as is prescribed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council by regulation, or

(ii) the value of any notice or bonus for prepayment provided for in the mortgage, whichever is the lesser;

(b) shall pay to the mortgagee where,

(i) the prevailing interest rate for an equivalent investment is lower than the rate under the mortgage, and

(ii) there is no provision in the mortgage permitting prepayment at the date of the expropriation, an amount to compensate for the difference in the interest rates for the period for which the amount of principal prepaid has been advanced, not to exceed five years; and

(c) shall pay to the mortgagor whose interest is expropriated an amount to compensate for any loss incurred by reason of a difference in the interest rates during the period for which the payment of principal provided for in the mortgage has been advanced, but such difference shall not be calculated on a new interest rate any greater than the prevailing interest rate for an equivalent mortgage. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 20.

21. A statutory authority shall compensate the owner of land for loss or damage caused by injurious affection. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 21.

22.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a claim for compensation for injurious affection shall be made by the person suffering the damage or loss in writing with particulars of the claim within one year after the damage was sustained or after it became known to him, and, if not so made, the right to compensation is forever barred.

(2) Where the person who is injuriously affected is a minor, a mental incompetent or a person incapable of managing his affairs, his claim for compensation shall be made within one year after he ceased to be under the disability or, in the case of his death while under the disability, within one year after his death, and, if not so made, the right to compensation is forever barred. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 22.

23. The value of any advantage to the land or remaining land of an owner derived from any work for which land was expropriated or by which land was injuriously affected shall be set off only against the amount of the damages for injurious affection to the owner’s land or remaining lands. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 23.

24. A statutory authority has the authority to make and perform an agreement with an owner in respect of any claim of the owner under this Act, including any costs of the owner and notwithstanding that this Act requires the claim to be determined by the Board. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 24.
25.—(1) Where no agreement as to compensation has been made with the owner, the expropriating authority shall, within three months after the registration of a plan under section 9 and before taking possession of the land,

(a) serve upon the registered owner,

(i) an offer of an amount in full compensation for his interest, and

(ii) where the registered owner is not a tenant, a statement of the total compensation being offered for all interests in the land, excepting compensation for business loss for which the determination is postponed under subsection 19 (1); and

(b) offer the registered owner immediate payment of 100 per cent of the amount of the market value of the owner's land as estimated by the expropriating authority, and the payment and receipt of that sum is without prejudice to the rights conferred by this Act in respect of the determination of compensation and is subject to adjustment in accordance with any compensation that may subsequently be determined in accordance with this Act or agreed upon.

(2) The expropriating authority shall base its offer of compensation made under subsection (1) upon a report appraising the market value of the lands being taken and damages for injurious affection, and shall serve a copy of the appraisal report upon the owner at the time the offer is made.

(3) The expropriating authority may, within the period mentioned in subsection (1) and before taking possession of the land, upon giving at least two days notice to the registered owner, apply to the judge for an order extending any time referred to in subsection (1), and the judge may in his order authorize the statutory authority to take possession of the land before the expiration of the extended time for serving the offer or statement under clause (1) (a) upon such conditions as may be specified in the order.

(4) If any registered owner is not served with the offer required to be served on him under subsection (1) within the time limited by subsection (1) or by an order of a judge under subsection (3) or by agreement, the failure does not invalidate the expropriation but interest upon the unpaid portion of any compensation payable to such registered owner shall be calculated from the date of registration of the plan. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 25.

26. Where the statutory authority and the owner have not agreed upon the compensation payable under this Act and, in the case of injurious affection, section 22 has been complied with, or, in the case of expropriation, section 25 has been complied with, or the time for complying therewith has expired,

(a) the statutory authority or the owner may serve notice of negotiation upon the other of them and upon the board of negotiation stating that it or he, as the case may be, requires the compensation to be negotiated under section 27; or

(b) where the statutory authority and the owner have agreed to dispense with negotiation proceedings, the statutory authority or the owner may serve notice of arbitration upon the other of them and upon the Board to have the compensation determined by arbitration. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 26.

27.—(1) The board of negotiation is continued and shall consist of two or more members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, one of whom may be designated as chairman.

(2) Any two of the members of the board of negotiation constitute a quorum and are sufficient to perform all the functions of the board on behalf of the board.

(3) The board of negotiation may sit at any place in Ontario.

(4) In any case in which a notice of negotiation is served, the board of negotiation shall, upon reasonable notice to the statutory authority and the owner, meet with them and, without prejudice to any subsequent proceedings, proceed in a summary and informal manner to negotiate a settlement of the compensation.

(5) Before or during the negotiation proceedings, the board of negotiation shall inspect the land that has been expropriated or injuriously affected.
(6) If the negotiation proceedings do not result in a settlement of the compensation, the statutory authority or the owner may serve notice of arbitration upon the other of them, and upon the Board, stating that it or he, as the case may be, requires the compensation to be determined by arbitration as though the negotiation proceedings had not taken place. R.S.O. 1970, c. 154, s. 27.

28.—(1) The Land Compensation Board is continued and shall be composed of a chairman and such number of vice-chairmen and other members as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers advisable, all of whom shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) The chairman and vice-chairmen shall be members of the bar of one of the provinces of Canada.

(3) The chairman or a vice-chairman and two other members of the Board constitute a quorum and are sufficient for the exercise of all the jurisdiction and powers of the Board, except that in matters respecting a claim for compensation not exceeding $1,000, one member of the Board constitutes a quorum and is sufficient for the exercise of all the jurisdiction of the Board.
