(a) the amount, if any, by which any non-business-income tax paid by him for the year to the government of such other country exceeds the amount claimed under the Federal Act as a deduction for that taxation year by virtue of subsection 126 (1) of that Act; or

(b) that proportion of the tax otherwise payable under this Act for that taxation year that,

(i) the aggregate of the taxpayer’s income from sources in that country,

(A) for that year, if section 114 of the Federal Act is not applicable, or

(B) if section 114 of the Federal Act is applicable, for the period or periods in the year referred to in paragraph (a) thereof,

(C) no businesses were carried on by him in that country, and

(D) no amount was deducted under subsection 91 (5) of the Federal Act in computing his income for the year, is of,

(ii) the taxpayer’s income earned in Ontario,

Definitions

(9) For the purposes of subsection (8),

(a) the non-business-income tax paid by an individual to the government of a country other than Canada in respect of his income for a year is the non-business-income tax paid by him to the government of that country in respect of that year as computed under paragraph 126 (7) (c) of the Federal Act for the purposes of that Act; and

(b) the expressions “tax payable by him under this Act” and “tax otherwise payable under this Act” refer to the tax, other than any tax payable pursuant to subsection (3), calculated under this Act without the deduction authorized by subsection 7 (2) or (6). 1972, c. 146, s. 1 (2); 1975, c. 16, s. 1; 1978, c. 76, s. 2 (2).

(10) Where an amount is to be refunded to a trust in respect of a taxation year pursuant to section 132 of the Federal Act, the Minister shall, subject to subsection (11), at such time and in such manner as is provided for in section 132 of the Federal Act, refund to the trust an amount (in this section referred to as its “capital gains refund” for the year) equal to that proportion of the amount of the refund for the year calculated under subsection 132 (1) of the Federal Act that,

(a) the percentage obtained by multiplying the percentage referred to in subsection (5) for the year times the percentage referred to in paragraph 122 (3) (a) of the Federal Act for the year,

(b) the percentage referred to in subparagraph 132 (4) (b) (i) of the Federal Act for the year.
(11) For the purpose of computing the capital gains refund under subsection (10) for a trust in respect of a taxation year, where the trust had income earned in the taxation year outside Ontario, the refund shall be that proportion of the capital gains refund for the year otherwise determined under subsection (10) that the trust's income earned in the taxation year in Ontario is of its income for the year.

(12) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under subsection (10), the Minister may, where the trust is liable or about to become liable to make any payment under this Act, apply to that other liability the amount that would otherwise be refunded, and he shall notify the trust of that action. 1973, c. 21, s. 1.

DIVISION C—Special Cases

FARMERS, FISHERMEN

4:—(1) Where an individual whose chief source of income has been farming or fishing during a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "year of averaging") has filed an election in accordance with subsection 119 (1) of the Federal Act for the year of averaging, the tax payable under this Part for the year of averaging is an amount determined by the following rules:

(a) determine the amount (in this section referred to as the "average tax") for each year in the averaging period (which, in this section, has the meaning given to that expression under section 119 of the Federal Act) equal to the tax that would be payable under the Federal Act, within the meaning of section 3 of this Act, if the taxable income for the year were the average net income for the year within the meaning of paragraph 119 (1) (c) of the Federal Act;

(b) determine the amount (in this section referred to as the "provincial tax") for each year in the averaging period equal to the tax that would be payable under this Part for the year if the tax that would be payable under the Federal Act for the year, within the meaning of section 3 of this Act, were the average tax for the year;

(c) deduct from the aggregate of the provincial taxes as determined under clause (b) for the years in the averaging period the aggregate of the taxes payable under this Part for the preceding years (which, in this section, has the meaning given to that expression under section 119 of the Federal Act), and the remainder obtained under clause (c) is the tax payable under this Part for the year of averaging. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 5 (1); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 5 (1-3).

(2) Subsection (1) applies only in the case of an individual whose chief source of income throughout the averaging period was from farming or fishing. 1977, c. 6, s. 2,

(3) For the purposes of this Act, where the tax payable by an individual under this Part for the year of averaging would, but for subsection (2), be an amount determined under subsection (1), the tax that would have been payable by the individual under the Federal Act for the year of averaging, within the meaning of section 3 of this Act, had no election been made by him under section 119 of the Federal Act for that year, shall be deemed to be the tax payable under the Federal Act by the individual for the year of averaging. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 5 (3); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 5 (5).

(4) Where this section, except subsection (3), is applicable to the computation of a taxpayer's tax for a taxation year and the aggregate of the taxes payable under this Part for the preceding years exceeds the aggregate of the provincial taxes as determined under clause (1) (b) for the years in the averaging period, the excess shall be deemed to be an overpayment made when the notice of assessment for the year of averaging was mailed.

(5) The provisions of this Part relating to the assessment of tax, interest and penalties apply with necessary modifications to an assessment whereby, for the purposes of this section, it is determined by the Provincial Minister that no tax is payable under this Part for the year of averaging or that an overpayment has been made as described in subsection (4). R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 5 (4, 5).

(6) Where an election for a year of averaging filed under subsection 119 (1) of the Federal Act has been revoked by the taxpayer in accordance with subsection 119 (5) of the Federal Act, subsection (1) of this section is not applicable in determining the tax payable under this Part for the year of averaging. 1972, c. 100, s. 3.
5. No tax is payable under this Act by any person for a period when that person was exempt from tax by virtue of subsection 149 (1) of the Federal Act, and any definitions or descriptions in the Federal Act applying to any such person apply with necessary modifications for the purposes of this Act unless otherwise provided. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 6; 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 6.

and the part of the amount not so applied shall be paid to the individual. 1973, c. 21, s. 2 (4); 1973, c. 153, s. 2 (3).

(8) Where a principal taxpayer has occupied more than one principal residence in the taxation year, he shall, in calculating his occupancy cost, take into account only that portion of his total occupancy cost in the taxation year for each principal residence that is in the same ratio to his total occupancy cost in the taxation year for that principal residence as the number of days in the taxation year that the principal taxpayer occupied that principal residence is to the number of days for which such occupancy cost was paid for that principal residence, but no principal taxpayer shall claim occupancy cost for more than one principal residence during the same period of time. 1972, c. 146, s. 2, part.
(9) Where two or more principal taxpayers together occupy and inhabit the same principal residence in the taxation year, the occupancy cost thereof shall be allocated to each such principal taxpayer according to his beneficial ownership in the principal residence or according to the portion of the rent for the principal residence that was paid in respect of the occupation thereof by each such principal taxpayer in the taxation year, as the case may be. 1980, c. 25, s. 2 (7).

(10) Where a principal taxpayer or his spouse, instead of paying full rent for the occupation of their principal residence that is not owned by them or either of them, furnishes work or services to the owner or lessee of the principal taxpayer's principal residence, the value of the benefit that the principal taxpayer or his spouse receives from paying less than full rent may, for the purposes of determining the principal taxpayer's occupancy cost, be included by the principal taxpayer as part of the rent that he or his spouse has paid with respect to their principal residence, but the amount of such benefit may be so included only to the extent that the benefit is included as part of the income of the principal taxpayer or his spouse for that taxation year computed for the purpose of determining the tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act by either of them.

(11) Notwithstanding clause (1) (f), if an individual occupies and inhabits with his spouse a principal residence on the last day of the taxation year, and,

(a) if that individual and his spouse have the same amount of taxable income in the taxation year or have no taxable income in the taxation year, they may agree between them which of them shall claim the deduction permitted under subsection (2), and the individual thus agreed upon shall be deemed to be the principal taxpayer; and

(b) if the individual and his spouse married in that taxation year, the spouse having the lower taxable income and not otherwise disqualified as a principal taxpayer under clause (1) (f) shall be deemed to be a principal taxpayer in respect of occupancy cost for a principal residence inhabited by that spouse in the taxation year and prior to the marriage, provided that such occupancy cost is not included in the occupancy cost of the other spouse. 1980, c. 25, s. 2 (8).

(12) For the purposes of this section,

(a) where an individual or someone on his behalf is entitled to file returns under the Federal Act in respect of the individual’s income for more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year, the deduction to which the individual may be entitled under subsections (2) and (6) may be claimed only with respect to that taxation year that ends on or next before the last day of the calendar year;

(b) no deduction under subsections (2) and (6) may be claimed in a return,

(i) filed pursuant to an election made under the provisions of subsection 70 (2), subsection 104 (23), or subsection 150 (4) of the Federal Act, or

(ii) filed on behalf of an individual by a trustee in bankruptcy pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 128 (2) (e) or (h) of the Federal Act;

and

(c) notwithstanding clause (a), where an individual is entitled to file returns under the Federal Act in respect of more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year, the individual, with respect to the taxation year ending on or next before the last day of the calendar year may,

(i) in computing the amount of the tax credit described in clause (2) (a), determine his occupacy cost to be the amount that would be his occupancy cost for the whole of that calendar year excluding any portion of that occupancy cost so determined that has been taken into account by the spouse of that individual in computing the amount of the tax credit described in clause (2) (a) for that calendar year, and

(ii) compute the deduction to which he is entitled under subsection (6) as though the expression
"the calendar year" were substituted for "the taxation year" where it first appears in that subsection. 1976, c. 12, s. 3.

Limitation on unclaimed deductions

(13) Where it is established to the Minister's satisfaction that, in respect of a particular taxation year, an individual was entitled to a deduction under subsection (2) exceeding the amount of the deduction allowed to him under subsection (2) for that taxation year, the amount of such excess (hereinafter called the "additional deduction") may be deducted from the individual's tax otherwise payable under this Act that is payable at the time of or next after the establishing of the amount of the additional deduction, and if the amount of the additional deduction, together with the amount of any deduction under subsection (2) to which the individual is then entitled, exceeds the tax otherwise payable under this Act by the individual at the time of or next after the establishing of the amount of the additional deduction, the amount of such excess shall be paid to the individual by the Treasurer in accordance with subsection (7), provided that no claim to establish a deduction or an additional deduction under this section may be made after four years from the end of the particular taxation year with respect to which a deduction under subsection (2) could first have been made. 1974, c. 91, s. 2 (3); 1978, c. 11, s. 2 (2).

Division D—Returns, Assessments, Payment and Appeals

Returns

8.—(1) A return for each taxation year for which a tax is payable under this Act shall, without notice or demand therefor, be filed with the Provincial Minister in prescribed form and containing prescribed information,

(a) in the case of a person who has died without making the return, by his legal representatives, within six months from the day of death;

(b) in the case of an estate or trust, within ninety days from the end of the year;

(c) in the case of any other person, on or before the 30th day of April in the next year, by that person or, if he is unable for any reason to file the return, by his guardian, curator, tutor, committee or other legal representative; or

(d) in a case where no person described by clause (a) or (c) has filed the return, by such person as is required by notice in writing from the Provincial Minister to file the return, within such reasonable time as the notice specifies.

(2) Whether or not he is liable to pay tax under this Act for a taxation year and whether or not a return has been filed under subsection (1) or (3), every person shall, on demand by registered letter from the Provincial Minister, file, within such reasonable time as is stipulated in the registered letter, with the Provincial Minister in prescribed form and containing prescribed information a return for the taxation year designated in the letter.

(3) Every trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, liquidator, curator, receiver, trustee or committee and every agent or other person administering, managing, winding up, controlling or otherwise dealing with the property, business, estate or income of a person who has not filed a return for a taxation year as required by this section shall file a return in prescribed form for that year in respect of that person. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 7 (1-3).

(4) Where a partner or an individual who is a proprietor of a business died after the close of a fiscal period but before the end of the calendar year in which the fiscal period closed, a separate return of the taxpayer’s income as a member of the partnership or as a proprietor of the business, after the close of the fiscal period to the time of death may be filed and, if such a separate return is filed, the tax under this Part shall be paid on the taxpayer’s income as such member or proprietor after the close of the fiscal period to the time of death as if that income were the income of another person. 1971 (2nd. Sess.), c. 1, s. 8.

ESTIMATE OF TAX

9. Every person required by section 8 to file a return shall in the return estimate the amount of tax payable. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 8.

ASSESSMENT

10.—(1) The Provincial Minister shall, with all due despatch, examine each return required to be filed under this Act and assess the tax for the taxation year and the interest and penalties, if any, payable.

(2) After examination of a return, the Provincial Minister shall send a notice of assessment to the person by whom the return was filed.

(3) Liability for tax under this Act is not affected by an incorrect or incomplete assessment or by the fact that no assessment has been made. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 9 (1-3).

(4) The Provincial Minister may at any time assess tax, interest or penalties under this Act or notify in writing any person by whom a return for a taxation year has been filed that no tax is payable for a taxation year and may,

(a) at any time, if the taxpayer or person filing the return,

(i) has made any misrepresentation that is attributable to neglect, carelessness or wilful default or has committed any fraud in filing the return or in supplying any information under this Act, or

(ii) has filed with the Treasurer a waiver in prescribed form within four years from the day of mailing of a notice of an original assessment or of a notification that no tax is payable for a taxation year; and

(b) within four years from the day referred to in sub-clause (a) (ii) in any other case, reassess or make additional assessments or assess tax, interest or penalties as the circumstances require. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 9 (1).

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), there shall not be included in computing the income of a taxpayer, for the purposes of any reassessment, additional assessment or assessment of tax, interest or penalties that is made after the expiration of four years from the day referred to in subclause (4) (a) (ii), any amount that was not included in computing his income for the purposes of an assessment of tax made before the expiration of four years from that day, and,

(a) in respect of which the taxpayer establishes that the failure so to include it did not result from any misrepresentation that is attributable to neglect, carelessness or wilful default or from any fraud in filing a return of his income or in supplying any information under this Act; or

(b) that the taxpayer establishes cannot reasonably be regarded as relating to a matter specified in a waiver filed by the taxpayer with the Provincial Minister, in the form and within the time referred to in subsection (4), with respect to a taxation year to which the reassessment, additional assessment or assessment of tax, interest or penalties, as the case may be, relates. 1972, c. 100, s. 5.

(6) Where a collection agreement is entered into, notwithstanding that more than four years have elapsed since the day referred to in subclause (4) (a) (ii), the Minister shall reassess or make additional assessments, or assess tax, interest or penalties, as the circumstances require, where the tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act is reassessed. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 9 (5).
(7) Where a taxpayer has filed the return required by section 8 for a taxation year and, within one year from the day on or before which he was required by section 8 to file the return for that year, has filed an amended return for the year claiming a deduction from income under section 111 of the Federal Act in respect of non-capital losses, net capital losses or restricted farm losses sustained in the taxation year immediately following that year, the Provincial Minister shall reassess the taxpayer's tax for the year. 1971 (2nd. Sess.), c. 1, s. 9 (2).

(8) The Provincial Minister is not bound by a return or information supplied by or on behalf of a taxpayer and, in making an assessment, may, notwithstanding a return or information so supplied or if no return has been filed, assess the tax payable under this Act.

(9) An assessment shall, subject to being varied or vacated on an objection or appeal under this Act and subject to a reassessment, be deemed to be valid and binding notwithstanding any error, defect or omission therein or in any proceeding under this Act relating thereto. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 9 (7-8).

(m) a payment out of or under a registered retirement income fund, at any time in a taxation year shall deduct or withhold therefrom such amount as is prescribed and shall, at such time as is prescribed, remit that amount to the Treasurer on account of the payee's tax for the year under this Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 10 (1); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 10; 1977, c. 6, s. 4; 1978, c. 76, s. 3.

(2) Where amounts have been deducted or withheld under this section from the remuneration received by an individual in a taxation year, if the total of such amounts is equal to or greater than three-quarters of the tax payable for the year, he shall, on or before the 30th day of April in the next year, pay to the Treasurer the remainder of his tax for the year as estimated under section 9.

(3) Where an amount has been deducted or withheld under subsection (1), it shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been received at that time by the person to whom the remuneration, benefit, payment, fees, commissions or other amounts were paid. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 10 (2-3).

12.—(1) Every individual whose chief source of income is farming or fishing shall pay to the Treasurer,

(a) on or before the 31st day of December in each taxation year, two-thirds of,

(i) the amount estimated by him under section 9 to be his tax payable under this Act for the year, or

(2) Where a collection agreement is entered into, an individual to whom subsection (1) applies shall pay an amount under clause (a) thereof computed in respect of the same year as the amount is computed that he is liable to pay under paragraph 155 (a) of the Federal Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 11 (2); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 11.

All others

13.—(1) Every individual, other than one to whom subsection 11 (2) or section 12 applies, shall pay to the Treasurer,

(a) on or before the 31st day of March, the 30th day of June, the 30th day of September and the 31st day of December, respectively, in each taxation year, an amount equal to one-quarter of,

(i) the amount estimated by him under section 9 to be his tax payable under this Act for the year, or

(ii) his tax payable under this Act for the immediately preceding year; and

(b) on or before the 30th day of April in the next year, the remainder of the tax as estimated under section 9.
R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 12 (1); 1975, c. 16, s. 5 (1).

(2) Where a collection agreement is entered into, an individual to whom subsection (1) applies shall pay an amount under clause (a) thereof computed in respect of the same year as the amount is computed that he is liable to pay under paragraph 156 (a) of the Federal Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 12 (2); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 12.

(3) For the purposes of section 12 and this section, “tax payable under the Federal Act” for a taxation year has the meaning given that expression in clause 3 (6) (a), whether such taxation year is before or after the coming into force of this Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 12 (3).

(4) Where no federal instalments are required pursuant to section 156.1 of the Federal Act, the requirements for payment by instalments under sections 12 and 13 of this Act are not applicable, and the individual shall on or before the 30th day of April next following the taxation year pay to the Treasurer his estimated tax payable for that taxation year. 1975, c. 16, s. 5 (2).

14.—(1) The taxpayer shall, within thirty days from the day of mailing of the notice of assessment, pay to the Treasurer any part of the assessed tax, interest and penalties then remaining unpaid, whether or not an objection to or appeal from the assessment is outstanding.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Provincial Minister, a taxpayer is attempting to avoid payment of taxes, the Provincial Minister may direct that all taxes, penalties and interest be paid forthwith upon assessment. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 13.

15. Sections 159 and 160, subsection 104 (2), paragraph 104 (23) (e) and subsection 70 (2) of the Federal Act apply with necessary modifications in respect of the payment of tax under this Act for a taxation year by a taxpayer subject to tax under this Act to whom such provisions apply in respect of tax payable under the Federal Act for the same taxation year. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 13.

INTEREST

16.—(1) Where the amount paid on account of tax payable by a taxpayer under this Act for a taxation year before the expiration of the time allowed for filing the return for that year is less than the amount of tax payable for the year under this Act, the person liable to pay the tax shall pay interest at the rate per annum prescribed for the purposes of subsection 161 (1) of the Federal Act on the difference between those two amounts from the expiration of the time for filing the return to the day of payment.

(2) In addition to the interest payable under subsection (1) where a taxpayer, being required by this Act to pay part or instalment of tax, has failed to pay all or any part thereof as required, he shall, on payment of the amount he failed to pay, pay interest at the rate per annum prescribed for the purposes of subsection 161 (1) of the Federal Act from the day on or before which he was required to make the payment to the day of payment or the beginning of the period in respect of which he is liable to pay interest thereon under subsection (1), whichever is earlier. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 14 (1).
(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a taxpayer is required to pay a part or instalment of tax for a taxation year as estimated by him with reference to a preceding year or with reference to the taxation year, he shall be deemed to have been liable to pay a part or instalment computed by reference to his tax for,

(a) the preceding year; or

(b) the taxation year, whichever is the lesser. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 15 (3).

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), where a collection agreement is entered into, for the purposes of subsection (2) the taxpayer shall be deemed to have been liable to pay a part or instalment computed by reference to his tax for the same year as the year by reference to which the part or instalment that he is deemed by subsection 161 (4) of the Federal Act to be liable to pay was computed. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 15 (4); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 14 (2).

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision in this section no interest is payable in respect of the amount by which the tax payable by a person is increased by a payment made by the Canadian Wheat Board on a participation certificate previously issued to him until thirty days after the payment is made.

(6) Where the income of a taxpayer for a taxation year, or part thereof, is from sources in another country and the taxpayer by reason of monetary or exchange restrictions imposed by the law of that country is unable to transfer it to Canada, the Provincial Minister may, if he is satisfied that payment as required by this Act of the whole of the additional tax under this Act for the year reasonably attributable to income from sources in that country would impose extreme hardship on the taxpayer, postpone the time for payment of the whole or a part of that additional tax for a period to be determined by the Provincial Minister, but no such postponement may be granted if any of the income for the year from sources in that country has been,

(a) transferred to Canada;

(b) used by the taxpayer for any purpose whatsoever, other than payment of income tax to the government of that other country on income from sources therein; or
and no interest is payable under this section in respect of that additional tax, or part thereof, during the period of postponement. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 15 (5, 6).

(7) Where a taxpayer is entitled to deduct under section 111 of the Federal Act in computing his taxable income for a taxation year an amount in respect of a loss sustained in the taxation year immediately following the taxation year (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as “the loss year”), for the purpose of computing interest under subsection (1) or (2) on tax or a part or instalment of tax for the taxation year for any portion of the period in respect of which the interest is payable on or before the last day of the loss year, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been if the taxpayer were not entitled to deduct any amount under section 111 of the Federal Act in respect of that loss. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 15 (7); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 14 (3).

PENALTIES

17.—(1) Every person who has failed to make a return as and when required by subsection 8 (1) is liable to a penalty of,

(a) an amount equal to 5 per cent of the tax that was unpaid when the return was required to be filed, if the tax payable under this Act that was unpaid at that time was less $2,000; and

(b) $100, if at the time the return was required to be filed tax payable under this Act equal to $2,000 or more was unpaid.

(2) Every person who has failed to file a return as required by subsection 8 (3) is liable to a penalty of $10 for each day of default but not more than $50 in all.

(3) Every person who has failed to complete the information on a prescribed form as required by or pursuant to section 8 is, unless the Provincial Minister has waived it, liable to a penalty,

(a) of 1 per cent of the tax payable under this Act but, whether he is taxable or not, not less than $25 or more than $100; or
(b) of such lesser amount as the Provincial Minister has fixed in respect of the specific failure. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 16 (1-3).

(4) Where a collection agreement is entered into, the Minister may refrain from levying or may reduce a penalty provided in this section, if the person who is liable to such penalty is required to pay a penalty under section 162 of the Federal Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 16 (4); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 15.

18.—(1) Every person who, knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence in the carrying out of any duty or obligation imposed by or under this Act, has made or has participated in, assented to or acquiesced in the making of, an incorrect statement or omission (in this section referred to as a "false statement") in a return, certificate, statement or answer (in this section referred to as a "return") filed or made in respect of a taxation year as required by or under this Act or a regulation, is liable to a penalty of 25 per cent of the amount, if any, by which,

(a) the tax for the year that would be payable by him under this Act if his taxable income for the year were computed by adding to the taxable income reported by him in his return for the year that portion of his understatement of income for the year that is reasonably attributable to the false statement, exceeds,

(b) the tax for the year that would have been payable by him under this Act had his tax payable for the year been assessed on the basis of the information provided in his return for the year.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the taxable income reported by a person in his return for a taxation year shall be deemed not to be less than nil and the "understatement of income for a year" of a person has the meaning assigned to that expression in subsection 163 (2.1) of the Federal Act. 1978, c. 11, s. 3.

(3) Every person who wilfully attempts to evade payment of the tax payable by him by wilfully failing to file a return of income as and when required by subsection 8 (1) is liable to a penalty of 50 per cent of the amount of tax sought to be evaded.

(4) Where in any appeal under this Act a penalty assessed by the Provincial Minister under this section is in issue, the onus of establishing the facts justifying the assessment of the penalty rests upon the Provincial Minister. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 16.

REFUND OF OVERPAYMENT

19.—(1) If the return required to be filed by a taxpayer for a taxation year has been made within four years from the end of the year, the Provincial Minister,

(a) may, upon mailing the notice of assessment for the year, refund, without application therefor, any overpayment made on account of the tax; and

(b) shall make such a refund after mailing the notice of assessment if application therefor has been made in writing by the taxpayer within four years from the end of the year.

(2) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under this section, the Provincial Minister may, where the taxpayer is liable or about to become liable to make another payment under this Act, apply the amount of the overpayment to that other liability and notify the taxpayer of that action. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 18 (1, 2).

(3) Where an amount in respect of an overpayment is refunded or applied under this section on other liability, interest at the rate per annum prescribed for the purposes of subsection 164 (3) of the Federal Act shall be paid or applied thereon for the period commencing with the latest of,

(a) the day when the overpayment arose;

(b) the day on or before which the return in respect of which the tax was paid was required to be filed; or

(c) the day when the return was actually filed, and ending with the day of refunding or application aforesaid, unless the amount of the interest so calculated is less than $1, in which event no interest shall be paid or applied under this subsection. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 18 (3); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 17 (1).

(4) Where, by a decision of the Provincial Minister under section 20 or by a decision of the Supreme Court of Ontario or the Supreme Court of Canada, it is finally determined that the tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year under this Act is less than the amount assessed by the assessment under section 10 to which the objection was made or from which the appeal was taken and the decision makes it appear that there has been an overpayment for the taxation year, the interest payable under subsection (3) on that overpayment shall be computed at the rate per annum prescribed for the purposes of subsection 161 (1) of the Federal Act instead of that prescribed for the purposes of subsection 164 (3) of the Federal Act. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 17 (2).

(5) Where a collection agreement is entered into and, by virtue of a decision referred to in subsection 164 (4) of the Federal Act, that subsection applies to any overpayment made under that Act in respect of tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year, subsection (4) of this section applies to any overpayment made under this Act in respect of the same year that arose by virtue of the same decision. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 18 (5); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 17 (3).

(6) For the purpose of this section, “overpayment” means the aggregate of all amounts paid on account of tax minus all amounts payable under this Act or an amount so paid where no amount is so payable. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 18 (6).

(7) Where a taxpayer is entitled to deduct under section 111 of the Federal Act in computing his taxable income for a taxation year an amount in respect of a loss sustained in the taxation year immediately following the taxation year (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as “the loss year”), and the amount of the tax payable for the taxation year is relevant in determining an overpayment for the purpose of computing interest under subsection (3) for any portion of a period ending on or before the last day of the loss year, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been if the taxpayer were not entitled to deduct any amount under section 111 of the Federal Act in respect of that loss. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 18 (7); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 17 (4).

(8) Where in the course of administering the estate of a deceased taxpayer, the taxpayer’s legal representative has, within the twelve month period immediately following the death of the taxpayer, disposed of certain property of the estate described in paragraph 164 (6) (a) or (b) of the Federal Act, subsection 164 (6) of the Federal Act is applicable with necessary modifications. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 17 (5).

OBJECTIONS TO ASSESSMENTS

20.—(1) A taxpayer who objects to an assessment under this Act may, within ninety days from the day of mailing of the notice of assessment, serve on the Provincial Minister a notice of objection in duplicate in prescribed form setting out the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts.

(2) A notice of objection under this section shall be served by being sent by registered mail addressed to the Provincial Minister. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 19 (1, 2).

(3) Upon receipt of a notice of objection, the Provincial Minister shall,

(a) where the taxpayer indicates in the notice of objection that he wishes to appeal immediately to the court and that he waives reconsideration of the assessment and the Provincial Minister consents, file a copy of the notice of objection with the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the local registrar of the court for the county or district in which the taxpayer resides; or

(b) with all due despatch, reconsider the assessment and vacate, confirm or vary the assessment or reassess, and he shall thereupon notify the taxpayer of his action by registered mail.

(4) Where the Provincial Minister files a copy of a notice of objection pursuant to clause (3)(a), the Provincial Minister shall be deemed, for the purpose of this section, to have confirmed the assessment to which the notice relates and the taxpayer who served the notice shall be deemed to have thereupon instituted an appeal in accordance with this section. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 18 (1).

(2) Except to the extent that they are inconsistent with any regulations made under subsection (1) or are expressed by any regulation made under subsection (1) to be inapplicable, the Federal Regulations made under section 221 of the Federal Act apply with necessary modifications for the purposes of this Act with respect to all matters enumerated in that section. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 27 (2); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 20.

Publication of Regulations

(3) No regulation made under this Act or under the Federal Act where it is applicable with necessary modifications has effect for the purposes of this Act until it has been published in The Ontario Gazette or the Canada Gazette, as the case may be, but, when so published, a regulation is, if it so provides, effective with reference to a period before it was published. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 27 (3).

ENFORCEMENT

30. All taxes, interest, penalties, costs and other amounts payable under this Act are debts due to Her Majesty in right of Ontario and are recoverable as such in any court of competent jurisdiction or in any other manner provided by this Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 28.

(b) otherwise, upon the expiration of thirty days after the default.

(2) On production to the Supreme Court, a certificate made under this section shall be registered in the court and, when registered, has the same force and effect and all proceedings may be taken thereon as if the certificate were a judgment obtained in the court for a debt of the amount specified in the certificate plus interest to the day of payment as provided for in this Act.

(3) All reasonable costs and charges attendant upon the registration of the certificate are recoverable in like manner as if they had been certified and the certificate had been registered under this section. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 29.

32. The Provincial Minister may issue a warrant, directed to the sheriff of any county or district in which any property of the taxpayer is located or situate, for the amount of the tax, interest and penalty or any of them owing by the taxpayer, together with interest thereon from the date of the issue of the warrant and the costs, expenses and bonding of the sheriff, and such warrant has the same force and effect as a writ of execution issued out of the Supreme Court. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 30.

33.—(1) Where the provincial Minister has knowledge or suspects that a person is or is about to become indebted or liable to make any payment to a person liable to make a payment under this Act, he may, by registered letter or by a letter served personally, require him to pay the moneys otherwise payable to that person in whole or in part to the Treasurer on account of the liability under this Act.

(2) The receipt of the Treasurer for moneys paid as required under this section is a good and sufficient discharge of the original liability to the extent of the payment.

(3) Where the Provincial Minister has, under this section, required an employer to pay to the Treasurer on account of an employee's liability under this Act moneys otherwise payable by the employer to the employee as remuneration, the requirement is applicable to all future payments by the employer to the employee in respect of remuneration until the liability under this Act is satisfied and operates to require payments to the Treasurer out of each payment of remuneration of such amount as is stipulated by the Provincial Minister in the registered letter.

(4) Every person who has discharged any liability to a person liable to make a payment under this Act without complying with a requirement under this section is liable to pay to Her Majesty in right of Ontario an amount equal to the liability discharged or the amount which he was required under this section to pay to the Treasurer, whichever is the lesser.

(5) Where the person who is or is about to become indebted or liable carries on business under a name or style other than his own name, the registered or other letter under subsection (1) may be addressed to the name or style under which he carries on business and, in the case of personal service, shall be deemed to have been validly served if it has been left with an adult person employed at the place of business of the addressee.

(6) Where the persons who are or are about to become indebted or liable carry on business in partnership, the registered or other letter under subsection (1) may be addressed to the partnership name and, in the case of personal service, shall be deemed to have been validly served if it has been served on one of the partners or left with an adult person employed at the place of business of the partnership. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 31.

34.—(1) Where a person has failed to make a payment as required by this Act, the Provincial Minister, on giving ten days notice by registered mail addressed to his last known place of residence, may, whether or not there is an objection to or appeal in respect of the assessment not disposed of, issue a certificate of the failure and direct that the goods and chattels of the person in default that are located in Ontario be seized.

(2) Property seized under this section shall be kept for ten days at the cost and charges of the owner and, if he does not pay the amount due together with the costs and charges within the ten days, the property seized shall be sold by public auction.

(3) Except in the case of perishable goods, notice of the sale setting forth the time and place thereof, together with a general description of the property to be sold shall, a reasonable time before the goods are sold, be published at least once in one or more newspapers of general local circulation.

(4) Any surplus resulting from the sale after deduction of the amount owing and all costs and charges shall be paid or returned to the owner of the property seized.

(5) Such goods and chattels of any person in default as would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued out of the Supreme Court are exempt from seizure under this section. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 32.

35.—(1) Where the Provincial Minister suspects that a taxpayer is about to leave Ontario or Canada, he may before the day otherwise fixed for payment, by notice served personally or by registered letter addressed to the taxpayer, demand payment of all taxes, interest and penalties for which the taxpayer is liable or would be liable if the time for payment had arrived and the same shall be paid forthwith notwithstanding any other provision of this Act.

(2) Where a person has failed to pay tax, interest or penalties demanded under this section as required, the Provincial Minister may direct that the goods and chattels of the taxpayer that are located in Ontario be seized and subsections 34 (2) to (5) are thereupon applicable with necessary modifications. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 33.

36.—(1) No action lies against any person for with- holding or deducting any sum of money in compliance or intended compliance with this Act.

(2) Every person whose employer is required to deduct or withhold any amount from his remuneration under section 11 shall, from time to time as prescribed, file a return with his employer in prescribed form.
(3) Every person failing to file a form as required by subsection (2) is liable to have the deduction or withholding from his salary or wages under section 11 made as though he were an unmarried person without dependants.

(4) Every person who deducts or withholds any amount under this Act shall be deemed to hold the amount so deducted or withheld in trust for Her Majesty in right of Ontario.

(5) All amounts deducted or withheld by a person under this Act shall be kept separate and apart from his own moneys and, where a collection agreement is entered into, such amounts shall be kept with amounts deducted or withheld by that person under the Federal Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 34 (1-5).

(6) Any person who has failed to deduct or withhold any amount as required by this Act or a regulation is liable to pay to Her Majesty in right of Ontario,

(a) if the amount should have been deducted or withheld under section 11 from an amount that has been paid to a person resident in Ontario, 10 per cent of the amount that should have been deducted or withheld; and

(b) in any other case, the whole amount that should have been deducted or withheld, together with interest thereon at the rate per annum prescribed for the purposes of subsection 227 (8) of the Federal Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 34 (6); 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 21 (1).

(7) Every person who has failed to remit or pay an amount deducted or withheld as required by this Act or a regulation is liable to a penalty of 10 per cent of that amount or $10, whichever is the greater, in addition to the amount itself, together with interest on the amount at the rate per annum prescribed for purposes of subsection 227 (8) of the Federal Act, but, where a collection agreement is entered into, the Minister may refrain from levying or reduce the penalty if the person who is liable therefor is liable to pay a penalty under subsection 227 (9) of the Federal Act by reason of the failure to pay an amount described in paragraph (a) of that subsection. 1971 (2nd Sess.), c. 1, s. 21 (2).

(8) The Provincial Minister may assess any person for any amount that has been deducted or withheld by that person under this Act or a regulation or that is payable by that person under this section and, upon his sending a notice of assessment to that person, Divisions I and J of Part I of the Federal Act are applicable with necessary modifications. 1972, c. 100, s. 6.

(9) The provisions of this Act that require a person to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of taxes from amounts payable to a taxpayer are applicable to Her Majesty in right of Ontario.

(10) Where this Act requires an amount to be deducted or withheld, an agreement by the person on whom that obligation is imposed not to deduct or withhold is void.

(11) The receipt of the Treasurer for an amount withheld or deducted by any person as required by or under this Act is a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of any debtor to his creditor with respect thereto to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt. R.S.O. 1970, c. 217, s. 34 (9-11).
