c 219 Interpretation Act

Ontario
CHAPTER 219
Interpretation Act

1.—(1) The provisions of this Act apply to every Act of the Legislature contained in these Revised Statutes or hereafter passed, except in so far as any such provision,

(a) is inconsistent with the intent or object of the Act;
or

(b) would give to a word, expression or provision of the Act an interpretation inconsistent with the context; or

(c) is in the Act declared not applicable thereto.

(2) Sections 2, 4, 9, 27 and 30 apply to the regulations made under the authority of an Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 1.

2. Where an Act contains an interpretation provision, it shall be read and construed as subject to the exceptions contained in subsection 1 (1). R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 2.

3. The provisions of this Act apply to the construction of it and to the words and expressions used in it. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 3.

RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

4. The law shall be considered as always speaking and, where a matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, it is to be applied to the circumstances as they arise, so that effect may be given to each Act and every part of it according to its true intent and meaning. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 4.

5. Where an Act is not to come into operation immediately on the passing thereof and confines power to make an appointment, to make, grant or issue an order, warrant, scheme, letters patent, rules, regulations or by-laws, to give notices, to prescribe forms, or to do any thing for the purposes of the Act, that power may be exercised at any time after the passing of the Act, but an instrument made under the power, unless the contrary is necessary for bringing the Act into operation, does not come into operation until the Act comes into operation. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 5.
6. Where an Act confers power to make, grant or issue an order, warrant, scheme, letters patent, rule, regulation or by-law, expressions used therein, unless the contrary intention appears, have the same meaning as in the Act conferring the power. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 6.

7.—(1) Every Act shall be judicially noticed by judges, justices of the peace and others without being specially pleaded.

(2) Every proclamation shall be judicially noticed by judges, justices of the peace and others without being specially pleaded. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 7.

8. The preamble of an Act shall be deemed a part thereof and is intended to assist in explaining the purport and object of the Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 8.

9. The marginal notes and headings in the body of an Act and references to former enactments form no part of the Act but shall be deemed to be inserted for convenience of reference only. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 9.

10. Every Act shall be deemed to be remedial, whether its immediate purport is to direct the doing of any thing that the Legislature deems to be for the public good or to prevent or punish the doing of any thing that it deems to be contrary to the public good, and shall accordingly receive such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as will best ensure the attainment of the object of the Act according to its true intent, meaning and spirit. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 10.

11. No Act affects the rights of Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, unless it is expressly stated therein that Her Majesty is bound thereby. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 11.

12. No Act of the nature of a private Act affects the rights of any person, or body corporate, politic or collegiate, such only excepted as are therein mentioned or referred to. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 12.

REPEAL, AMENDMENT AND CONSOLIDATION

13. Every Act shall be construed as reserving to the Legislature the power of repealing or amending it, and of revoking, restricting, or modifying any power, privilege or advantage thereby vested in or granted to any person or party, whenever the repeal, amendment, revocation, restriction or modification is considered by the Legislature to be required for the public good. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 13.
14.—(1) Where an Act is repealed or where a regulation is revoked, the repeal or revocation does not, except as in this Act otherwise provided,

(a) revive any Act, regulation or thing not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal or revocation takes effect;

(b) affect the previous operation of any Act, regulation or thing so repealed or revoked;

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, accruing or incurred under the Act, regulation or thing so repealed or revoked;

(d) affect any offence committed against any Act, regulation or thing so repealed or revoked, or any penalty or forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect thereof;

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the Act, regulation or thing had not been so repealed or revoked.

(2) If other provisions are substituted for those so repealed or revoked,

(a) all officers and persons acting under the Act, regulation or thing so repealed or revoked, shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions so substituted until others are appointed in their stead;

(b) all proceedings taken under the Act, regulation or thing so repealed or revoked, shall be taken up and continued under and in conformity with the provisions so substituted, so far as consistently may be;

(c) in the recovery or enforcement of penalties and forfeitures incurred, and in the enforcement of rights existing or accruing under the Act, regulation or thing so repealed or revoked, or in any other proceeding in relation to matters that have happened before the repeal or revocation, the procedure established by the substituted provisions shall be followed so far as it can be adopted; and
(d) if any penalty, forfeiture or punishment is reduced or mitigated by any of the provisions of the Act, regulation or thing whereby such other provisions are substituted, the penalty, forfeiture or punishment, if imposed or adjudged after such repeal or revocation, shall be reduced or mitigated accordingly. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 14.

15. Where an Act is repealed and other provisions are substituted by way of re-enactment, amendment, revision or consolidation,

(a) all regulations, orders, rules and by-laws made under the repealed Act continue good and valid in so far as they are not inconsistent with the substituted Act until they are annulled and others made in their stead; and

(b) a reference in an unrepealed Act, or in a rule, order or regulation made thereunder to such repealed Act, shall, as regards any subsequent transaction, matter or thing be held and construed to be a reference to the provisions of the substituted Act relating to the same subject-matter and, if there is no provision in the substituted Act relating to the same subject-matter, the repealed Act stands good and shall be read and construed as unrepealed in so far, and in so far only, as is necessary to support, maintain or give effect to such unrepealed Act, or such rule, order or regulation made thereunder. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 15.

16. The repeal of an Act shall be deemed not to be or to involve a declaration that the Act was or was considered by the Legislature to have been previously in force. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 16.

17. The repeal or amendment of an Act shall be deemed not to be or to involve any declaration as to the previous state of the law. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 17.

18. The amendment of an Act shall be deemed not to be or to involve a declaration that the law under the Act was or was considered by the Legislature to have been different from the law as it has become under the Act as so amended. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 18.

19. The Legislature shall not, by re-enacting, revising, consolidating or amending an Act, be deemed to have adopted the construction that has by judicial decision or otherwise been placed upon the language used in the Act or upon similar language. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 19.
20. Where the Lieutenant Governor is authorized to do any act by proclamation, the proclamation is to be understood to be a proclamation issued under an order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, but it is not necessary for the proclamation to mention that it is issued under such an order. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 20.

CROWN APPOINTMENTS

21. Authority to the Lieutenant Governor to make an appointment to an office, by commission or otherwise, shall be deemed authority to appoint during pleasure. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 21.

REGULATIONS

22. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations for the due enforcement and carrying into effect of any Act of the Legislature and, where there is no provision in the Act, may prescribe forms and may fix fees to be charged by all officers and persons by whom anything is required to be done. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 22.

IMPRISONMENT

23. If in an Act a person is directed to be imprisoned or committed to prison, the imprisonment or committal shall, if no other place is mentioned or provided by law, be in or to the correctional institution of the locality in which the order for the imprisonment is made or, if there be no correctional institution there, then in or to the correctional institution that is nearest to such locality. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 23.

24. Where power to impose imprisonment is conferred by an Act, it shall be deemed to authorize the imposing of imprisonment with hard labour. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 24.

OFFENCE UNDER MORE THAN ONE PROVISION

25. Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under two or more Acts, the offender, unless the contrary intention appears, is liable to be prosecuted and punished under either or any of those Acts, but is not liable to be punished twice for the same act or omission. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 25.

CORPORATIONS

26. In every Act, unless the contrary intention appears, words making any association or number of persons a corporation or body politic and corporate,
(a) vest in the corporation power to sue and be sued, to contract and be contracted with by its corporate name, to have a common seal, to alter or change the seal at its pleasure, to have perpetual succession, to acquire and hold personal property or movables for the purpose for which the corporation is constituted, and to alienate the same at pleasure;

(b) vest in a majority of the members of the corporation the power to bind the others by their acts; and

(c) exempt individual members of the corporation from personal liability for its debts, obligations or acts if they do not contravene the provisions of the Act incorporating them. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 26.

IMPLIED PROVISIONS

27. In every Act, unless the contrary intention appears,

(a) where anything is directed to be done by or before a provincial judge or a justice of the peace or other public functionary or officer, it shall be done by or before one whose jurisdiction or powers extend to the place where it is to be done;

(b) where power is given to a person, officer or functionary to do or to enforce the doing of an act or thing, all such powers shall be understood to be also given as are necessary to enable the person, officer or functionary to do or enforce the doing of the act or thing;

(c) where an act or thing is required to be done by more than two persons, a majority of them may do it;

(d) where a form is prescribed, deviations therefrom not affecting the substance or calculated to mislead do not vitiate it;

(e) where a power is conferred or a duty is imposed on the holder of an office as such, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires;

(f) where a power is conferred or a duty is imposed on the holder of an office as such, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by the holder of the office for the time being;
(g) where power is conferred to make by-laws, regulations, rules or orders, it includes power to alter or revoke the same from time to time and make others;

(h) where the time limited by an Act for a proceeding or for the doing of any thing under its provisions expires or falls upon a holiday, the time so limited extends to and the thing may be done on the day next following that is not a holiday;

(i) where the time limited for a proceeding or for the doing of any thing in an office of the Supreme Court, or a county or district court office, or a surrogate court office, or a small claims court office, or a land registry office, or a sheriff's office expires or falls upon a day that is prescribed as a holiday for such office, the time so limited extends to and the thing may be done on the day next following that is not a holiday;

(j) words importing the singular number or the masculine gender only include more persons, parties or things of the same kind than one, and females as well as males and the converse;

(k) a word interpreted in the singular number has a corresponding meaning when used in the plural;

(l) words authorizing the appointment of a public officer or functionary, or a deputy, include the power of removing him, reappointing him, or appointing another in his stead or to act in his stead, from time to time in the discretion of the authority in whom the power of appointment is vested;

(m) words directing or empowering a public officer or functionary to do an act or thing, or otherwise applying to him by his name of office, include his successors in office and his lawful deputy;

(n) where reference is made by number to two or more sections, subsections, paragraphs, clauses or other provisions in an Act, the number first mentioned and the number last mentioned shall both be deemed to be included in the reference;

(o) words authorizing the appointment of a public officer or functionary or the appointment of a person to administer an Act include the power of appointing a deputy to perform and have all the powers and authority of such public officer or functionary or person to be exercised in such manner and upon such occasions as are specified in the instrument appointing him or such limited powers and authority as the instrument prescribes. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 27.

PROCEDURE

28. Where an appeal to the Court of Appeal is permitted by an Act, the appeal shall be made in the time and manner prescribed by the rules of court. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 28.

29. Unless otherwise provided, where an application to a court or a judge is permitted by an Act, the application may be made by originating notice in the manner prescribed by the rules of court. R.S.O. 1970, c. 225, s. 29.
