7. To purchase live stock.
8. For such purposes relating to the establishment, development and operation of the borrower's farm as the Corporation approves. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 11.

(2) Where the applicant for a loan under this Act applies in respect of a family farm or incorporated family farm, he shall submit with the application such particulars of the ownership and operation of the farm as the regulations prescribe. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 12(2).

13.—(1) Before making a loan under this Act, the Corporation shall obtain a report as to the value of the security offered by the applicant from a valuator appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) The land and buildings shall be valued on the basis of their value for agricultural purposes.

(3) Where the Corporation is of the opinion that the land and buildings upon which security is offered by the applicant for the loan do not constitute an economic farm unit, the Corporation shall refuse the loan.

(4) The buildings upon the land shall be insured to their full insurable value or for such lesser amount as is acceptable to the Corporation.
(5) Where the Corporation receives insurance moneys as mortgagee, it may apply such insurance moneys on the mortgage debt or for rebuilding, reinstating or repairing the premises or for such other purposes as the Corporation considers proper.

(6) Where the Corporation applies insurance moneys under subsection (4) for any purpose, the moneys paid by the Corporation shall not be deemed to be a subsequent advance under the mortgage. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 13.

14. Where the Corporation is satisfied that the conditions of this Act and the regulations have been complied with, the Corporation may make a loan to the borrower to the extent of 80 per cent of the value of the security as shown by the valuator’s report. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 14.

15.—(1) No loan shall exceed $40,000.

R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 15.

16. At the time of or subsequent to the making of a loan, the Corporation may accept as collateral security therefor a life insurance policy or an assignment thereof, a chattel mortgage, or any other security that the Corporation considers proper. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 16.

17.—(1) Except as hereinafter provided, a loan made under this Act is repayable in annual instalments of principal and interest sufficient to discharge the debt at the end of such period as is agreed upon, but no loan shall be made for more than thirty years.

(2) Instalments of principal and interest shall be equal and shall be payable annually not later than a date determined by the Corporation, but a payment of interest only on the moneys advanced may be required on a date before the first date on which principal and interest are payable.

(3) Payments on account of the loan, in addition to those provided for in the mortgage or agreement, may be made at any time.

(4) The Corporation may accept a release of the equity of redemption existing by virtue of a mortgage to it and may sell any property that it has thus acquired to any person at such price and upon such terms as it considers proper.

(5) The Corporation may grant such extension of time for the payment of principal and interest to any borrower and to any purchaser under an agreement for sale as the Corporation considers advisable and may, at any time at its discretion, consolidate the total indebtedness owing by any mortgagor or purchaser to the Corporation, inclusive of accrued interest and moneys paid for taxes, insurance, fees and disbursements to the date of consolidation, and alter the provisions of the mortgage and the agreement for sale so that the consolidated indebtedness with interest may be repayable in annual instalments for the balance of the term of the mortgage and agreement for sale or for such longer term as the Corporation considers proper.

(6) Where a loan has been made under this Act and the borrower applies for an increase in the loan upon the same security, the Corporation may, if it is satisfied that the conditions of this Act and the regulations have been complied with, make a new loan to the applicant to the extent of 80 per cent of the value of the security as shown by the valuator’s report. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 17.

18. Every mortgage made under this Act shall be made in accordance with the Short Forms of Mortgages Act, and may contain such further covenants, provisos and conditions as the Corporation considers proper, and the Corporation has and may exercise all the rights, powers and remedies with respect to any mortgage made under this Act as a mortgagee has under the laws of Ontario. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 18.

19. It shall be a term of a mortgage taken as security for a loan under this Act that, at the option of the Corporation, the mortgage shall immediately become due and payable where,

20. It shall be a term of a mortgage that the operation of the farm in respect of which a loan is made shall be in accordance with sound farming practices and carried out with accurate records kept of the farm operation and, at the request of the Corporation, that the junior farmer participates in a farm management program. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 20.

21. All notices, mortgages, discharges or other documents under this Act shall be prepared by the Corporation or by a person designated by the Corporation. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 21.

22. If at any time in the opinion of the board of directors of the Corporation any money advanced under this Act has not been or is not being applied for the purpose for which it was advanced, or is not being carefully and economically expended, or if the security depreciates in value, the Corporation may refuse to make any further advance and call in the whole amount then advanced and all interest thereon and declare the same to be immediately due and payable, whereupon the borrower shall at once repay the same with interest at the rate set forth in the mortgage, and in default of payment the Corporation has the like remedies for recovery of the same as if the time for repayment thereof had fully arrived. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 22.
23. The Corporation from time to time shall secure reports as to the condition of any securities taken by it for loans under this Act and as to the progress and prospects of the borrowers, and for this purpose any governmental agency may co-operate with the Corporation by rendering assistance of an educational or other nature that appears calculated to facilitate the success of the borrower. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 23.

24.—(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may authorize the Treasurer,

(a) to purchase any debentures, bills or notes of the Corporation; and

(b) to make advances to the Corporation in such amounts, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers expedient.

(2) The moneys required for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 24.

25. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations respecting,

(a) the management, control and administration of the affairs of the Corporation;

(b) the manner in which applications for loans are to be made and the form thereof;

(c) the fees and expenses payable by applicants and borrowers under this Act;

(d) the terms and conditions of loans;

(e) the information to be furnished to the Corporation in respect of the ownership and operation of any farm;

26. This Act shall be administered by the member of the Executive Council to whom it is assigned by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 26.

27. The cost of administration of this Act shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated therefor by the Legislature. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 27.

28.—(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, upon such terms as he considers proper, agree to guarantee and may guarantee payment of losses sustained by a chartered bank as a result of loans made to junior farmers for the establishment, development and operation of their farms, in an amount not to exceed 10 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of the bank loans, where,

(i) where the farm is owned by a junior farmer or his spouse, or both of them, or by a partnership, did not exceed the sum of $5,000, or

(ii) where the farm is a family farm or an incorporated family farm, did not exceed the sum of $10,000; and

(e) the bank loan was repayable in full by the terms thereof in not more than ten years and the rate of interest charged by the bank on the loan did not exceed the current rates of interest.

(2) The form and manner of the guarantee shall be such as the Lieutenant Governor in Council approves, and the guarantee shall be signed by the Treasurer or such other officer or officers as are designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and, upon being so signed, the Province of Ontario is liable for the payment of the loss thereon guaranteed according to the terms of the guarantee.

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make arrangements for supplying the money necessary to fulfil the requirements of any guarantee and to advance the amount necessary for that purpose out of the public funds of the Province of Ontario.

(4) A claim for loss by a bank in respect of the amount guaranteed shall be made to the Treasurer not sooner than ninety days nor later than one year after the entire amount of the loan becomes due and payable. R.S.O. 1970, c. 229, s. 28.
