(d) "Minister" means the Minister of Transportation and Communications;

(e) "resident Canadian" has the same meaning as in the Business Corporations Act;

(f) "Treasurer of Ontario" means the Treasurer of Ontario and Minister of Economics. 1973, c. 66, s. 1.

2. Except as herein otherwise provided, the Business Corporations Act applies to the Corporation. 1973, c. 66, s. 2.

PART II
THE ONTARIO TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

INCORPORATION

3.—(1) The corporation with share capital known as The Corporation is continued.

(2) There shall be a Board of Directors of the Corporation consisting of nine members and the first directors of the Corporation shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to hold office until their successors are elected by the shareholders of the Corporation.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the Legislative Assembly Act, a member of the Assembly who is appointed or elected as a member of the Board is not thereby rendered ineligible as a member of the Assembly or disqualified from sitting or voting in the Assembly. 1973, c. 66, s. 3.

OBJECTS OF THE CORPORATION

4. The objects of the Corporation are,

(a) to acquire, develop, adapt, use and license patents, inventions, designs and systems for all or any part of transit systems related to public transportation and rights and interests therein or thereto;

(b) to encourage and assist in the creation, development and diversification of Canadian businesses, resources, properties and research facilities related to public transportation;

(c) to undertake the design, development, construction, testing, operation, manufacture and sale of all or any part of transit systems related to public transportation;

(d) to test or operate and to provide services and facilities for all or any part of transit systems related to public transportation and in connection therewith to build, establish, maintain and operate, in Ontario or elsewhere, alone or in conjunction with others, either on its own behalf or as agent for others, all services and facilities expedient or useful for such purposes, using and adapting any improvement or invention for any means of public transportation;

(e) to manufacture vehicles and control, propulsion and guideway systems and their appurtenances and other instruments and plant used in connection with transit systems related to public transportation as the Corporation may consider advisable and to acquire, purchase, sell, license or lease the same and rights relating thereto, and to build, establish, construct, acquire, lease, maintain, operate, sell or let all or any part of transit systems related to public transportation in Ontario or elsewhere; and

(f) to carry on any other trade or business that, in the opinion of the Board, can be carried on advantageously by the Corporation in connection with or as ancillary to the carrying out of the objects of the Corporation set out in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e). 1973, c. 66, s. 4.

CAPITALIZATION

5.—(1) The authorized capital of the Corporation is authorized divided into,

capital

(a) 20,000,000 common shares without par value, to be issued for such consideration as the Board may from time to time determine; and

(b) 50,000 special shares with a par value of one hundred dollars each, which may be issued in one or more series and, subject to the provisions of subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) and to the filing of the statement and the issuance of the certificate in respect thereof referred to in subsection 29 (2) of the Business Corporations Act, the Board may fix from time to time before the issuance of a series the number of shares that is to comprise each series and the designations, preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, limitations or prohibitions attaching to each series of special shares.

(2) The holders of the special shares shall not be entitled to vote at any meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation other than the meetings referred to in subsection (5) but shall be entitled to notice of meetings of shareholders called for the purpose of authorizing the dissolution of the Corporation or the sale of its undertaking or a substantial part thereof and at all meetings of shareholders the holders of common shares shall be entitled to one vote for each common share held by them.

(3) The special shares of each series shall rank on a parity with the special shares of every other series with respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation whether voluntary or involuntary.

(4) If the special shares of any series are made redeemable or purchasable for cancellation by the Corporation, the price at which such shares may be redeemed or purchased for cancellation shall not exceed the amount paid-up on such shares together with a premium of not more than 20 per cent of that amount and any dividends accrued and unpaid on such shares.

(5) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (4), the Board, by a special resolution, may delete or vary any preference, right, condition, restriction, limitation or prohibition attaching to a series of the special shares but the resolution is not effective until,

(a) it has been confirmed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the holders of such series of shares duly called for that purpose and at the meeting the holders of shares of such series shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each share held of such series; and

(b) a certificate of amendment has been issued pursuant to section 182 of the Business Corporations Act. 1973, c. 66, s. 5.
