(a) distributors in respect of the distribution of paperbacks or periodicals, or both, that are published, printed and distributed primarily in Canada; or

(b) persons whose principal business is the publication in Canada of books that are not paperbacks or periodicals.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to have the effect of controlling, influencing or otherwise affecting the content of any paperback or periodical. 1971, c. 82, s. 1 (2, 3).

2.—(1) There shall be a Registrar of Paperback and Periodical Distributors who shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) The Registrar may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act under the supervision of the Director. 1971, c. 82, s. 2.

3.—(1) No person shall carry on business as a distributor unless he is registered by the Registrar under this Act.

(2) Registration under this Act shall not be construed as approval of any matter in the conduct of the business of the registrant except those matters specifically provided for in this Act. 1971, c. 82, s. 3.

4.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), every person carrying on business as a distributor immediately before the 14th day of June, 1971 shall be deemed to be registered under this Act.

(2) Every registration made under subsection (1) expires on the 1st day of October, 1971 unless before that date an application for registration is made and the material required by the regulations is filed in the manner prescribed by the regulations, unless sooner revoked under section 5. 1971, c. 82, s. 4.

5.—(1) Subject to section 4, an applicant is entitled to registration by the Registrar except where,

(a) the applicant fails to comply with section 8 or 9, as the case may be; or

(b) the applicant fails to file the material required by the regulations.
(2) Subject to section 6, the Registrar may refuse to register an applicant where in the Registrar's opinion the applicant is disentitled to registration under subsection (1).

(3) Subject to section 6, the Registrar may revoke a registration where the registrant fails to comply with any provision of this Act or the regulations. 1971, c. 82, s. 5.

6.—(1) Where the Registrar proposes to refuse to grant or proposes to revoke a registration, he shall serve notice of his proposal, together with written reasons therefor, on the applicant or registrant.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) shall inform the applicant or registrant that he is entitled to a hearing by the Tribunal if he mails or delivers, within fifteen days after the notice under subsection (1) is served on him, notice in writing requiring a hearing to the Registrar and the Tribunal and he may so require such a hearing.

(3) Where an applicant or registrant does not require a hearing by the Tribunal in accordance with subsection (2), the Registrar may carry out the proposal stated in his notice under subsection (1).

(4) Where an applicant or registrant requires a hearing by the Tribunal in accordance with subsection (2), the Tribunal shall appoint a time for and hold the hearing and, on the application of the Registrar at the hearing, may by order direct the Registrar to carry out his proposal, or refrain from carrying out his proposal and to take such action as the Tribunal considers the Registrar ought to take in accordance with this Act and the regulations, and for such purposes the Tribunal may substitute its opinion for that of the Registrar.

(5) The Tribunal may attach such terms and conditions to its order or to the registration as it considers proper to give effect to the purposes of this Act.

(6) The Registrar, the applicant or registrant who has required the hearing and such other persons as the Tribunal may specify are parties to proceedings before the Tribunal under this section.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Registrar may cancel a registration upon the request in writing of the registrant in the prescribed form surrendering his registration. 1971, c. 82, s. 6 (1-7).

(8) Notwithstanding that a registrant appeals from an order of the Tribunal under section 11 of the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations Act, the order takes effect immediately, but the Tribunal may grant a stay until disposition of the appeal. 1971, c. 82, s. 6 (8); 1972, c. 1, s. 23 (5).

7.—(1) A registration authorizes the registrant to carry on business only in the area in Ontario determined by the Registrar and described in the certificate of registration issued by the Registrar and a registrant shall not carry on business outside the area so described.

(2) The Registrar may reduce the area applied for by the registrant where, in his opinion, not to do so would lessen or be likely to lessen competition unduly in respect of channels or methods of distribution, contrary to the public interest.

(3) Where the Registrar proposes to reduce the area applied for, subsections 6 (1), (2), (3) and (6) apply with necessary modifications, in the same manner as to a proposal to revoke a registration. 1971, c. 82, s. 7 (1-3).

(4) An appeal lies from a decision of the Registrar under this section to the Minister whose decision is final and section 11 of the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations Act does not apply. 1971, c. 82, s. 7 (4); 1972, c. 1, s. 23 (5).

(5) Where an applicant requires a hearing under subsection 6 (2), the Tribunal shall hold a hearing and report to the Minister its finding of fact and recommendations. 1971, c. 82, s. 7 (5).

(b) the total number of equity shares of the corporation beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by a non-resident or over which he exercises control or direction, together with other shareholders associated with him, if any, exceeds 10 per cent of the total number of issued and outstanding equity shares of the corporation; or

(c) the corporation is not incorporated by or under an Act of Ontario, Canada or any province of Canada. 1971, c. 82, s. 9 (1).

(2) In calculating the total number of equity shares of the corporation beneficially owned or controlled for the purposes of this section, the total number shall be calculated as the total of all the shares actually owned or controlled, but each share that carries the right to more than one vote shall be calculated as the number of shares equalling the total number of votes it carries. 1974, c. 27, s. 2.

(3) A corporation that was carrying on business as a distributor immediately before the 14th day of June, 1971 and that on that day was in contravention of subsection (1) may continue to carry on business, subject to section 4,

(a) in the case of a contravention of clause (1)(a) or (b), if no transfer of equity shares or beneficial interest therein including their control or direction is made to a non-resident or person associated with him excepting when the result would be in compliance with clauses (1)(a) and (b); or

(b) in the case of a contravention of clause (1)(c), until the 14th day of June, 1972, but a corporation incorporated on or after the 14th day of June, 1971 and before the 14th day of June, 1972 by or under an Act of Ontario, Canada or a province of Canada may, notwithstanding clauses (1) (a) and (b), be registered in the place of the first mentioned corporation if the equity shares of the new corporation or beneficial interest therein, including their control or direction, held by non-residents are held directly or indirectly in the same manner as the equity shares of the first mentioned corporation, but where the new corporation is in contravention of clause (1) (a) or (b), clause (a) of this subsection applies.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a shareholder shall be deemed to be associated with another shareholder if,

(a) one shareholder is a corporation of which the other shareholder is an officer or director;

(c) one shareholder is a company that is controlled, directly or indirectly, by the other shareholder;

(d) both shareholders are corporations and one shareholder is controlled, directly or indirectly, by the same individual or corporation that controls, directly or indirectly, the other shareholder;

(e) both shareholders are members of a voting trust where the trust relates to shares of a corporation; or

(f) both shareholders are associated within the meaning of clauses (a) to (e) with the same shareholder.

(5) For the purposes of this section, where an equity share of a corporation is held jointly and one or more of the joint holders thereof is a non-resident, the share shall be deemed to be held by a non-resident. 1971, c. 82, s. 9 (2-4).

10.—(1) The Registrar or any person designated by him in writing may at any reasonable time enter upon the business premises of the registrant to make an inspection to ensure that the provisions of this Act and the regulations are being complied with.

(2) Where the Registrar has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that any person is acting as a distributor while unregistered, the Registrar or any person designated by him in writing may at any reasonable time enter upon such person’s business premises to make an inspection for the purpose of determining whether or not the person is in contravention of section 3 or 9.

(3) Upon an inspection under this section, the person inspecting,

(a) is entitled to free access to all books of account, documents, bank accounts, vouchers, correspondence and records of the person being inspected that are relevant for the purposes of the inspection; and

(b) may, upon giving a receipt therefor, remove any material referred to in clause (a) that relates to the purpose of the inspection for the purpose of making a copy thereof, provided that such copying is carried out with reasonable dispatch and the material in question is promptly thereafter returned to the person being inspected, and no person shall obstruct the person inspecting or withhold or destroy, conceal or refuse to furnish any information or thing required by the person inspecting for the purposes of the inspection.

(4) Any copy made as provided in subsection (3) and purporting to be certified by an inspector is admissible in evidence in any action, proceeding or prosecution as prima facie proof of the original. 1971, c. 82, s. 10.

11.—(1) Where, upon a statement made under oath, the Director believes on reasonable and probable grounds that any person has contravened any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations, the Director may by order appoint one or more persons to make an investigation to ascertain whether such a contravention of the Act or regulation or the commission of such an offence or such conduct has occurred and the person appointed shall report the result of his investigation to the Director.

(2) For purposes relevant to the subject-matter of an investigation under this section, the person appointed to make the investigation may inquire into and examine the affairs of the person in respect of whom the investigation is being made and may,

and examine books of account, papers, documents and things relevant to the subject-matter of the investigation; and

(b) inquire into negotiations, transactions, loans, borrowings made by or on behalf of or in relation to such person and into property, assets or things owned, acquired or alienated in whole or in part by him or any person acting on his behalf that are relevant to the subject-matter of the investigation, and for the purposes of the inquiry, the person making the investigation has the powers of a commission under Part II of the Public Inquiries Act, which Part applies to such inquiry as if it were an inquiry under that Act.

(3) No person shall obstruct a person appointed to make an investigation under this section or withhold from him or conceal or destroy any books of account, papers, documents or things relevant to the subject-matter of the investigation.

(4) Where a justice of the peace is satisfied, upon an ex parte application by the person making an investigation under this section, that the investigation has been ordered and that such person has been appointed to make it and that there is reasonable ground for believing there are, in any building, dwelling, receptacle or place any books of account, papers, documents or things relating to the person whose affairs are being investigated and to the subject-matter of the investigation, the justice of the peace may, whether or not an inspection has been made or attempted under clause (2) (a), issue an order authorizing the person making the investigation, together with such police officer or officers as he calls upon to assist him, to enter and search, if necessary by force, such building, dwelling, receptacle or place for such books of account, papers, documents or things and to examine them, but every such entry and search shall be made between sunrise and sunset unless the justice of the peace, by the order, authorizes the person making the investigation to make the search at night.

(5) Any person making an investigation under this section may, upon giving a receipt therefor, remove any books of account, papers, documents or things examined under clause
(2) (a) or subsection (4) relating to the person whose affairs are being investigated and to the subject-matter of the investiga-
