Legislative Assembly Act

1. The Assembly shall be composed of as many members as is fixed from time to time by the Representation Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 1.

2.—(1) The Legislature shall not determine or be dissolved by the demise of the Crown, but shall continue, and may meet, convene and sit, proceed and act, in the same manner as if such demise had not happened.

(2) Nothing in this section alters or abridges the power of the Crown to prorogue or dissolve the Legislature. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 2.

3. Every Legislature shall continue for five years from the fifty-fifth day after the date of the writs for the election and no longer, subject to being sooner dissolved by the Lieutenant Governor. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 3.

4. There shall be a session of the Legislature once at least in every year, so that twelve months do not intervene between the last sitting of the Legislature in one session and its first sitting in the next. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 4.

5. It is not necessary for the Lieutenant Governor in proroguing the Legislature to name a day to which it is prorogued, nor to issue a formal proclamation for a meeting of the Legislature when it is not intended that the Legislature shall meet for despatch of business. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 5.

6.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the persons qualified to sit and vote as members of the Assembly are any male or female persons of the full age of eighteen years who are British subjects by birth or by naturalization under the laws of Canada from time to time in force, resident in Ontario and not disqualified by this or any other Act from election to the Assembly. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 6 (1); 1971, c. 98, s. 4.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a female person shall be deemed to be a British subject,
(a) if she was born a British subject and is unmarried, or is married to a British subject and has not become a subject of a foreign power; or

(b) if she has herself been personally naturalized as a British subject and has not since become a subject of a foreign power; or

(c) if she has become a British subject by marriage or by the naturalization as a British subject of her parent while she was a minor, and in either case has done nothing to forfeit or lose her status as a British subject, and has obtained a certificate under the signature of a judge of the Supreme Court or of a county or district court, and the seal of the court, certifying that she is of the full age of eighteen years, has resided in Canada a sufficient length of time and is possessed of all requirements necessary to entitle her, if unmarried, to become naturalized as a British subject, and that she has taken the oath of allegiance to Her Majesty. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 6 (2).

7.—(1) No person who on the day of nomination for election to the Assembly is a member of the Senate of Canada or of the House of Commons of Canada is eligible as a member of the Assembly or shall be returned as elected thereto, and if any such person receives a majority of votes at an election, the votes cast for him shall be thrown away and the returning officer shall return the person having the next greatest number of votes if he is otherwise eligible.

(2) If a member of the Assembly is elected and returned to the House of Commons of Canada or is appointed to the Senate of Canada, his seat in the Assembly is thereupon vacated and a writ shall issue forthwith for a new election to fill the vacancy. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 7.

8.—(1) Except as hereinafter specially provided, no person accepting or holding any office, commission or employment in the service of the Government of Canada, or of the Government of Ontario at the nomination of the Crown or at the nomination of any of the officers of the Government of Canada or of the Government of Ontario to which any salary, fee, wage, allowance, emolument or profit of any kind is attached is eligible as a member of the Assembly or shall sit or vote therein. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 8 (1).
(2) Nothing in this section renders ineligible as aforesaid or disqualifies from sitting and voting in the Assembly when not otherwise disqualified,

(a) a member of the Executive Council or a Parliamentary Assistant;

(b) an officer or other member of the regular force or reserve force of the Canadian Forces;

(c) a justice of the peace, coroner, notary public or public school supervisory officer;

12. No disqualification under section 8 or 10 on any ground arising before the election shall be held by any court to affect the seat of a member of the Assembly or to disentitle any person to sit or vote therein until the disqualification has been duly found and declared by an election court, but this is not to be construed as affecting the cases provided for by subsection 11 (2), nor as affecting the right of the Assembly to expel a member according to the practice of Parliament or otherwise. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 11.

13. If a person who is disqualified or ineligible or incapable of being elected a member of the Assembly is nevertheless elected and returned, his election and return is void. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 12.

14. Notwithstanding anything in any Act, where a member of the Assembly is appointed a member of the Executive Council or a Parliamentary Assistant, he shall not, by reason of the acceptance of such appointment, vacate his seat or be disqualified from sitting or voting in the Assembly. 15.—(1) If a member of the Assembly by accepting any office or becoming a party to a contract or agreement as in sections 8 and 10 mentioned is disqualified by law to continue to sit or vote in the Assembly, his seat shall be vacated, but he may be re-elected if he is not declared ineligible under this Act.

(2) Nevertheless, whenever a person holding any of the offices mentioned in section 2 of the Executive Council Act and being at the same time a member of the Assembly resigns his office and accepts any other of such offices, he does not thereby vacate his seat in the Assembly.

(3) Where a member of the Executive Council holding any one of the offices mentioned in section 2 of the Executive Council Act is appointed to hold another office in addition to or in connection with such first-mentioned office, he does not thereby vacate his seat, and any increase or change of emolument arising from the holding of such two offices does not cause a vacancy or render a re-election necessary. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 14.

16.—(1) Subject to section 12, a person ineligible as a member of or disqualified from sitting or voting in the Assembly who sits or votes therein while he is so ineligible or disqualified shall forfeit the sum of $2,000 for every day on which he so sits or votes, and such sum may be recovered from him by any person who sues for it in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) If an action is brought and judgment is recovered against the defendant, no other action shall be brought or proceeding taken against him for any act under this section committed before notice to him of the recovery of the judgment.

(3) The court wherein any other action is brought contrary to the intent and meaning of this Act, may upon the defendant's motion, stay the proceedings therein, if the first-mentioned action be prosecuted without fraud and with effect, but no action shall be deemed an action within this section unless so prosecuted. I,................................., member elect to the Legislative Assembly for the electoral district of............................................... hereby disclaim all my right or title to sit or vote or in any manner to act as such member.

(3) The Clerk of the Assembly shall, on receiving a disclainer, forthwith send a copy thereof,

(a) in the case of an election that has taken place in The Regional Municipality of York or The Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto, to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Toronto;

(b) in the case of an election that has taken place elsewhere, to the local registrar for the county or provisional judicial district in which the electoral district for which the member so disclaiming or any part thereof is situate, was elected. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 17 (1-3).

18. If a person returned as elected at a general election wishes to resign his seat before the first session of the Legislature thereafter, he may address and cause to be delivered to any two members elect of the Assembly a declaration that he resigns his seat, made in writing under his hand before two subscribing witnesses, and the two members upon receiving the declaration shall forthwith address their warrant under their hands and seals to the Chief Election Officer for the issue of a writ for the election of a member for the electoral district in the place of the member so resigning, and the writ shall issue accordingly. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 18.

19.—(1) A member may also resign his seat,

(a) by giving in his place in the Assembly notice of his intention to resign it, which notice shall be entered immediately by the Clerk of the Assembly upon the Journals of the Assembly; or

(b) by addressing and causing to be delivered to the Speaker a declaration that he resigns his seat, made in writing under his hand before two subscribing witnesses, which declaration may be so made and delivered either during a session of the Legislature or in the interval between two sessions.
(2) An entry of the declaration so delivered to the Speaker shall thereafter be made upon the Journals of the Assembly.

(3) Immediately after the notice of intention to resign has been entered upon the Journals, or after the receipt of the declaration, as the case may be, the Speaker shall address his warrant under his hand and seal to the Chief Election Officer for the issue of a writ for the election of a member in the place of the member so resigning, and in either case the writ shall issue accordingly. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 19.

20. If a member wishes to resign his seat in the interval between two sessions of the Legislature, and there is then no Speaker, or the Speaker is absent from Ontario, or if the member is himself the Speaker, he may address and cause to be delivered to two members the declaration before mentioned, and the two members upon receiving the declaration shall forthwith address their warrant under their hands and seals to the Chief Election Officer for the issue of a writ for the election of a member in the place of the member so resigning, and the writ shall issue accordingly. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 20.

21.—(1) A member or member elect tendering his resignation in any manner hereinbefore provided for shall be deemed to have vacated his seat and to have ceased to be a member of the Assembly in respect thereof.

(2) A member or member elect shall not tender his resignation while his election is controverted, nor until after the expiration of the time within which an election petition may be filed. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 21.

R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 22, revised.

Assembly at the earliest practicable time, and shall be forthwith entered upon the Journals. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 23.

25.—(1) If a vacancy occurs in the Assembly by the death of a member, or by his accepting an office, commission or employment, or by his becoming a party to a contract as mentioned in section 10, unless otherwise provided by this Act, the Speaker, on being informed of the vacancy by a member of the Assembly in his place, or by notice in writing under the hands and seals of two members, shall forthwith address his warrant to the Chief Election Officer for the issue of a writ for the election of a member to fill the vacancy, and the writ shall issue accordingly.

(2) If any such vacancy occurs, or at any time thereafter, before the warrant for the writ has issued, there is no Speaker, or the Speaker is absent from Ontario, or if the member whose seat is vacated is himself the Speaker, then two members may address their warrant under their hands and seals to the Chief Election Officer for the issue of a writ for the election of a member to fill the vacancy, and the writ shall issue accordingly. (2) The election to be held under the writ does not affect the right of any person entitled to contest the previous election, and the court shall determine whether the member who has died or whose seat has become vacant as aforesaid, or any other person, was duly returned or elected, which determination, if adverse to the return of such member and in favour of any other candidate, avoids the election held under this section, and the candidate declared duly elected at the previous election is entitled to take his seat as if no subsequent election had been held. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 27.

27.—(1) Where a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Assembly, a writ shall be issued within six months after receipt by the Chief Election Officer of the warrant for the issue of a writ for the election of a member to fill such vacancy. 1971, c. 101, s. 1, part; 1974, c. 72, s. 2.

35.—(1) The Assembly may at all times command and compel the attendance before the Assembly or a committee thereof of such persons, and the production of such papers and things, as the Assembly or committee considers necessary for any of its proceedings or deliberations.

(2) When the Assembly requires the attendance of a person before the Assembly or a committee thereof, the Speaker may issue his warrant directed to the person named in the order of the Assembly requiring his attendance before the Assembly or committee and the production of the papers and things as ordered. R.S.O. 1970, c. 240, s. 35.

36. No person is liable in damages or otherwise for any act done under the authority of the Assembly and within its legal power or under or by virtue of a warrant issued under such authority, and every such warrant may command the aid and assistance of all sheriffs, bailiffs, constables and others, and every refusal or failure to give such aid or assistance when required is a contravention of this Act.
