4. (1) This section applies to an individual who, during a taxation year, was a member of the Canadian Forces and who,

(a) on the first day of a taxation month in the taxation year, performed his normal duties as a member of the Canadian Forces, or would have performed his normal duties as a member of the Canadian Forces if he had not been on temporary duty or on temporary attachment, at a place located within Ontario or on board a sea-going ship, the home port of which is located within Ontario;

(b) was resident in Ontario on the last day of the taxation year and had income earned in the taxation year from sources other than employment as a member of the Canadian Forces during that taxation year; or

(c) not being a resident in Ontario on the last day of the taxation year, had income earned in the taxation year in Ontario from sources other than employment as a member of the Canadian Forces during that taxation year.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may by regulation provide for the determination of the amount of tax payable for a taxation year by an individual who was a member of the Canadian Forces during that taxation year to whom this section applies, based on rates applicable to other individuals under this Act, and may provide for the manner in which the tax so determined is to be paid.

(3) In this section,

(a) "income earned in the taxation year in Ontario from sources other than employment as a member of the Canadian Forces" has the same meaning as "income earned in the taxation year in Ontario" as defined in clause b of subsection 4 of section 3, except that, in applying that definition in the case of a member of the Canadian Forces, he shall be deemed to have had no income from employment as a member of the Canadian Forces in the taxation year and the amount of his income from sources other than his employment as a member of the Canadian Forces earned in that taxation year shall be computed with reference to the provisions of Part XXIII of the Federal Regulations;

(b) "taxation month" means a taxation month as defined for the purposes of Part XXIII of the Federal Regulations. 1961-62, c. 61, s. 4.

FARMERS, FISHERMEN

5.—(1) Where an individual whose chief source of income has been farming or fishing during a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "year of averaging") has filed an election in accordance with subsection 1 of section 42 of the Federal Act for the year of averaging, the tax payable under this Part for the year of averaging is an amount determined by the following rules:

(a) determine the amount (in this section referred to as the "average tax") for each year in the averaging period (which, in this section, has the meaning given to that expression under section 42 of the Federal Act) equal to the tax that would be payable under the Federal Act, within the meaning of section 3 of this Act, if the taxable income for the year were the average net income for the year within the meaning of paragraph c of subsection 1 of section 42 of the Federal Act;

(b) determine the amount (in this section referred to as the "provincial tax") for each year in the averaging period equal to the tax that would be payable under this Part for the year if the tax that would be payable under the Federal Act for the year, within the meaning of section 3 of this Act, were the average tax for the year;

(c) deduct from the aggregate of the provincial taxes as determined under paragraph b for the years in the averaging period the aggregate of the taxes payable under this Part for the preceding years (which, in this section, has the meaning given to that expression under section 42 of the Federal Act), and the remainder obtained under paragraph c is the tax payable under this Part for the year of averaging.

(2) Subsection 1 applies only in the case of an individual who,

(a) throughout the averaging period,
   (i) resided in Ontario, and
   (ii) did not carry on a business with a permanent establishment (which, in this subsection, has the meaning given to that expression under the regulations made pursuant to section 33 of the Federal Act) outside Ontario; or

(b) throughout the averaging period,
   (i) resided outside Ontario, and
   (ii) had no income other than his income from the carrying on of a business with a permanent establishment in Ontario and nowhere else.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, where the tax payable by an individual under this Part for the year of averaging would, but for subsection 2, be an amount determined under subsection 1, the tax that would have been payable by the individual under the Federal Act for the year of averaging, within the meaning of section 3 of this Act, had no election been made by him under section 42 of the Federal Act for that year, shall be deemed to be the tax payable under the Federal Act by the individual for the year of averaging.

(4) Where this section, except subsection 3, is applicable to the computation of a taxpayer's tax for a taxation year and the aggregate of the taxes payable under this Part for the preceding years exceeds the aggregate of the provincial taxes as determined under paragraph b of subsection 1 for the years in the averaging period, the excess shall be deemed to be an overpayment made when the notice of assessment for the year of averaging was mailed. 1964, c. 43, s. 1, part.

(5) The provisions of this Part relating to the assessment of tax, interest and penalties apply mutatis mutandis to an assessment whereby, for the purposes of this section, it is determined by the Provincial Minister that no tax is payable under this Part for the year of averaging or that an overpayment has been made as described in subsection 4. 1964, c. 43, s. 1, part; 1970, c. 7, s. 2.

(6) Where an election for a year of averaging filed under subsection 1 of section 42 of the Federal Act has been revoked by the taxpayer in accordance with subsection 4 of section 42 of the Federal Act, subsection 1 of this section is not applicable in determining the tax payable under this Part for the year of averaging. 1964, c. 43, s. 1, part.

EXEMPTIONS

6. No tax is payable under this Act by any person for a period when that person was exempt from tax by virtue of subsection 1 of section 62 of the Federal Act, and any definitions or descriptions in the Federal Act applying to any such person apply mutatis mutandis for the purposes of this Act unless otherwise provided. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 5.

(4) Where a partner or an individual who is a proprietor of a business died after the close of a fiscal period but before the end of the calendar year in which the fiscal period closed, a separate return for the period after the close of the fiscal period to the time of death may be filed and, if such a separate return is filed, the tax payable with respect to the period after the close of the fiscal period to the time of death shall be paid as if that tax were tax payable by another person. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 6 (3, 4).

(4) The Provincial Minister may at any time assess tax, interest or penalties under this Act or notify in writing any person by whom a return for a taxation year has been filed that no tax is payable for a taxation year, and may,

(a) at any time, if the taxpayer or person filing the return,

(5) Where a collection agreement is entered into, notwithstanding that more than four years have elapsed since the day referred to in subclause ii of clause a of subsection 4, the Minister shall reassess or make additional assessments, or assess tax, interest or penalties, as the circumstances require, where the tax payable under Part I of the Federal Act is reassessed. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 8 (5).

(6) Where a taxpayer has filed the return required by section 7 for a taxation year and, within one year from the day on or before which he was required by section 7 to file the return for that year, has filed an amended return for the year claiming a deduction from income under paragraph e of subsection 1 of section 27 of the Federal Act, in respect of a business loss sustained in the taxation year immediately following that year, the Provincial Minister shall reassess the taxpayer's tax for the year. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 8 (6); 1970, c. 7, s. 4 (4).

(7) The Provincial Minister is not bound by a return or information supplied by or on behalf of a taxpayer and, in making an assessment, may, notwithstanding a return or information so supplied or if no return has been filed, assess the tax payable under this Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 8 (7); 1970, c. 7, s. 4 (5).

(8) An assessment shall, subject to being varied or vacated on an objection or appeal under this Act and subject to a reassessment, be deemed to be valid and binding notwithstanding any error, defect or omission therein or in any proceeding under this Act relating thereto. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 8 (8).

(2) Where amounts have been deducted or withheld under this section from the remuneration received by an individual in a taxation year, if the total of such amounts is equal to or greater than three-quarters of the tax payable for the year, he shall, on or before the 30th day of April in the next year, pay to the Treasurer the remainder of his tax for the year as estimated under section 8.

(3) Where an amount has been deducted or withheld under subsection 1, it shall, for all the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been received at that time by the person to whom the remuneration, benefit, payment, fees, commissions or other amounts were paid. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 9.

11.—(1) Every individual whose chief source of income is farming or fishing shall pay to the Treasurer,

(a) on or before the 31st day of December in each taxation year, two-thirds of the tax as estimated by him at the rate for the year on his estimated tax payable under the Federal Act for the year or on his tax payable under the Federal Act for the immediately preceding year; and

(b) on or before the 30th day of April in the next year the remainder of the tax as estimated under section 8.

(2) Where a collection agreement is entered into, an individual to whom subsection 1 applies shall pay an amount under clause a thereof computed in respect of the same year as the amount is computed that he is liable to pay under paragraph a of section 48 of the Federal Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 10.

12.—(1) Every individual, other than one to whom subsection 2 of section 10 or section 11 applies, shall pay to the Treasurer,

(b) on or before the 30th day of April in the next year, the remainder of the tax as estimated under section 8.
(2) Where a collection agreement is entered into, an individual to whom subsection 1 applies shall pay an amount under clause a thereof computed in respect of the same year as the amount is computed that he is liable to pay under paragraph a of section 49 of the Federal Act.

(3) For the purposes of section 11 and this section, “tax payable under the Federal Act” for a taxation year has the meaning given that expression in clause a of subsection 4 of section 3, whether such taxation year is before or after the coming into force of this Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 11.

13. — (1) The taxpayer shall, within thirty days from the day of mailing of the notice of assessment, pay to the Treasurer any part of the assessed tax, interest and penalties then remaining unpaid, whether or not an objection to or appeal from the assessment is outstanding. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 12 (1).

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Provincial Minister, a taxpayer is attempting to avoid payment of taxes, the Provincial Minister may direct that all taxes, penalties and interest be paid forthwith upon assessment. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 12 (2); 1970, c. 7, s. 5.

14. Sections 52 and 53, subsection 2 of section 63, paragraph e of subsection 13 of section 63 and paragraph a of subsection 2 of section 64 of the Federal Act apply mutatis mutandis in respect of the payment of tax under this Act for a taxation year by a taxpayer subject to tax under this Act to whom such provisions apply in respect of tax payable under the Federal Act for the same taxation year. 1961-62, c. 61, s. 5.

INTEREST

15. — (1) Where the amount paid on account of tax payable by a taxpayer under this Act for a taxation year before the expiration of the time allowed for filing the return for that year is less than the amount of tax payable for the year under this Act, the person liable to pay the tax shall pay interest on the difference between those two amounts from the expiration of the time for filing the return to the day of payment at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

(2) In addition to the interest payable under subsection 1, where a taxpayer, being required by this Act to pay a part or instalment of tax, has failed to pay all or any part thereof as required, he shall, on payment of the amount he failed to pay, pay interest at 6 per cent per annum from the day on or before which he was required to make the payment to the day of payment or the beginning of the period in respect of which he becomes liable to pay interest thereon under subsection 1, whichever is earlier.
(3) For the purposes of subsection 2, where a taxpayer is required to pay a part or instalment of tax for a taxation year as estimated by him with reference to a preceding year or with reference to the taxation year, he shall be deemed to have been liable to pay a part or instalment computed by reference to his tax for,

(a) the preceding year; or

(b) the taxation year,

whichever is the lesser.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection 3, where a collection agreement is entered into, for the purposes of subsection 2 the taxpayer shall be deemed to have been liable to pay a part or instalment computed by reference to his tax for the same year as the year by reference to which the part or instalment that he is deemed by subsection 4 of section 54 of the Federal Act to be liable to pay was computed.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision in this section no interest is payable in respect of the amount by which the tax payable by a person is increased by a payment made by the Canadian Wheat Board on a participation certificate previously issued to him until thirty days after the payment is made. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 14 (1-5).

(6) Where the income of a taxpayer for a taxation year, or part thereof, is from sources in another country and the taxpayer by reason of monetary or exchange restrictions imposed by the law of that country is unable to transfer it to Canada, the Provincial Minister may, if he is satisfied that payment as required by this Act of the whole of the additional tax under this Act for the year reasonably attributable to income from sources in that country would impose extreme hardship on the taxpayer, postpone the time for payment of the whole or a part of that additional tax for a period to be determined by the Provincial Minister, but no such postponement may be granted if any of the income for the year from sources in that country has been,

(a) transferred to Canada;

(b) used by the taxpayer for any purpose whatsoever, other than payment of income tax to the government of that other country or income from sources therein; or

(c) disposed of by him, and no interest is payable under this section in respect of that additional tax, or part thereof, during the period of postponement. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 14 (6); 1970, c. 7, s. 6.

(7) Where a taxpayer is entitled to deduct under section 27 of the Federal Act in computing his taxable income for a taxation year an amount in respect of a loss sustained in the taxation year immediately following the taxation year (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as "the loss year"), for the purpose of computing interest under subsection 1 or 2 on tax or a part or instalment of tax for the taxation year for any portion of the period in respect of which the interest is payable on or before the last day of the loss year, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been if the taxpayer were not entitled to deduct any amount under section 27 of the Federal Act in respect of that loss. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 14 (7).

Penalties

16.—(1) Every person who has failed to make a return as and when required by subsection 1 of section 7 is liable to a penalty of,

\( a \) an amount equal to 5 per cent of the tax that was unpaid when the return was required to be filed, if the tax payable under this Act that was unpaid at that time was less than $2,000; and

\( b \) $100, if at the time the return was required to be filed tax payable under this Act equal to $2,000 or more was unpaid.

(2) Every person who has failed to file a return as required by subsection 3 of section 7 is liable to a penalty of $10 for each day of default but not more than $50 in all. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 15 (1, 2).

(3) Every person who has failed to complete the information on a prescribed form as required by or pursuant to section 7 is, unless the Provincial Minister has waived it, liable to a penalty,

\( a \) of 1 per cent of the tax payable under this Act but, whether he is taxable or not, not less than $25 or more than $100; or

\( b \) of such lesser amount as the Provincial Minister has fixed in respect of the specific failure. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 15 (3); 1970, c. 7, s. 7.

(4) Where a collection agreement is entered into, the Minister may refrain from levying or may reduce a penalty provided in this section, if the person who is liable to such penalty is required to pay a penalty under section 55 of the Federal Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 15 (4).

17. Every person who, knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence in the carrying out of any duty or obligation imposed by or under this Act, has made, or has participated in, assented to or acquiesced in the making of, a statement or omission in a return, certificate, statement or answer filed or made as required by or under this Act or a regulation, as a result of which the tax that would have been payable by him for a taxation year if the tax had been assessed on the basis of the information provided in the return, certificate, statement or answer is less than the tax payable by him for the year, is liable to a penalty of 25 per cent of the amount by which the tax that would so have been payable is less than the tax payable by him for the year. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 16.

REFUND OF OVERPAYMENT

18.—(1) If the return required to be filed by a taxpayer for a taxation year has been made within four years from the end of the year, the Provincial Minister,

(a) may, upon mailing the notice of assessment for the year, refund, without application therefor, any overpayment made on account of the tax; and

(b) shall make such a refund after mailing the notice of assessment if application therefor has been made in writing by the taxpayer within four years from the end of the year. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 17 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 8 (1).

(2) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under this section, the Provincial Minister may, where the taxpayer is liable or about to become liable to make another payment under this Act, apply the amount of the overpayment to that other liability and notify the taxpayer of that action. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 17 (2); 1970, c. 7, s. 8 (2).

(3) Where an amount in respect of an overpayment is refunded or applied under this section on other liability, interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum shall be paid or applied thereon for the period commencing with the latest of,

(a) the day when the overpayment arose;

(b) the day on or before which the return in respect of which the tax was paid was required to be filed; or

(c) the day when the return was actually filed, and ending with the day of refunding or application aforesaid, unless the amount of the interest so calculated is less than $1, in which event no interest shall be paid or applied under this subsection. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 17 (3).

(4) Where, by a decision of the Provincial Minister under section 19 or by a decision of the Supreme Court of Ontario or the Supreme Court of Canada, it is finally determined that the tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year under this Act is less than the amount assessed by the assessment under section 9 to which the objection was made or from which the appeal was taken and the decision makes it appear that there has been an overpayment for the taxation year, the interest payable under subsection 3 on that overpayment shall be computed at 6 per cent instead of 3 per cent. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 17 (4); 1970, c. 7, s. 8 (3).
(5) Where a collection agreement is entered into and, by virtue of a decision referred to in subsection 3a of section 57 of the Federal Act, that subsection applies to any overpayment made under that Act in respect of tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year, subsection 4 of this section applies to any overpayment made under this Act in respect of the same year that arose by virtue of the same decision.

(6) For the purpose of this section, "overpayment" means the aggregate of all amounts paid on account of tax minus all amounts payable under this Act or an amount so paid where no amount is so payable.

(7) Where a taxpayer is entitled to deduct under section 27 of the Federal Act in computing his taxable income for a taxation year an amount in respect of a loss sustained in the taxation year immediately following the taxation year (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as "the loss year"), and the amount of the tax payable for the taxation year is relevant in determining an overpayment for the purpose of computing interest under subsection 3 for any portion of a period ending on or before the last day of the loss year, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been if the taxpayer were not entitled to deduct any amount under section 27 of the Federal Act in respect of that loss. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 17 (5-7).

OBSJECTIONS TO ASSESSMENTS

19.—(1) A taxpayer who objects to an assessment under this Act may, within ninety days from the day of mailing of the notice of assessment, serve on the Provincial Minister a notice of objection in duplicate in prescribed form setting out the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 18 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 9 (1).

(2) A notice of objection under this section shall be served by being sent by registered mail addressed to the Provincial Minister. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 18 (2); 1970, c. 7, s. 9 (2).

(3) Upon receipt of the notice of objection, the Provincial Minister shall with all due despatch reconsider the assessment and vacate, confirm or vary the assessment or reassess and he shall thereafter notify the taxpayer of his action by registered mail. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 18 (3); 1970, c. 7, s. 9 (3).

(4) A reassessment made by the Provincial Minister pursuant to subsection 3 is not invalid by reason only of not having been made within four years from the day of mailing of a notice of an original assessment or of a notification described in subsection 9 of section 9. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 18 (4); 1970, c. 7, s. 9 (4).

(5) The Provincial Minister may accept a notice of objection under this section notwithstanding that it was not served in duplicate or in the manner required by subsection 2. 1970, c. 7, s. 9 (5).

DIVISION E — APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT OF ONTARIO

20.—(1) A taxpayer who has served a notice of objection to an assessment under subsection 1 of section 19 may appeal to the Supreme Court to have the assessment vacated or varied after either,

(a) the Provincial Minister has confirmed the assessment or reassessed; or

(b) 180 days have elapsed after service of the notice of objection and the Provincial Minister has not notified the taxpayer that he has vacated or confirmed the assessment or reassessed, but no appeal under this section may be instituted after the expiration of ninety days from the day notice has been mailed to the taxpayer in accordance with subsection 3 of section 19 that the Provincial Minister has confirmed the assessment or reassessed. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 19 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 10 (1).

(2) An appeal from an assessment under this Act may be taken in respect of any question relating to the determination of,

(c) the amount of tax payable for a taxation year based on the tax payable under the Federal Act for that year as defined in clause a of subsection 4 of section 3, but no appeal from an assessment lies in respect of the computation of the tax payable under the Federal Act as defined in clause a of subsection 4 of section 3. 1962-63, c. 61, s. 3.

(3) An appeal under this section shall be instituted by serving upon the Provincial Minister a notice of appeal in duplicate in the prescribed form and by filing a copy thereof with the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the local registrar of the court for the county or district in which the taxpayer appealing resides. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 19 (3); 1970, c. 7, s. 10 (2).

21.—(1) The Provincial Minister shall, within sixty days Reply from the day the notice of appeal is received or within such further expiration of that time allow, serve on the appellant and file in the court a reply to the notice of appeal admitting or denying the facts alleged and containing a statement of such further allegations of fact and of such statutory provisions and reasons as he intends to rely on. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 20 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 11.

(2) A judge of the court may, in his discretion, strike out a

(3) A judge of the court may, in his discretion,

(a) strike out any part of a reply for failure to comply with this section or permit the amendment of a reply; or court may, in his discretion, dispose of the appeal by dismissing it.

(5) Where a reply is not filed as required by this section or is struck out under this section and a new reply is not filed as ordered by a judge of the court within the time ordered, a judge of the court may dispose of the appeal ex parte or after a hearing on the basis that the allegations of fact contained in the notice of appeal are true. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 20 (2-5).

22.—(1) Upon the filing of the material referred to in sections
20 and 21, the matter shall be deemed to be an action in the court and, unless the court otherwise orders, ready for hearing.

(2) Any fact or statutory provision not set out in the notice of upon such terms as the court directs. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 21 (1, 2).

(3) The court may dispose of the appeal by,

25. An assessment shall not be vacated or varied on appeal by reason only of any irregularity, informality, omission or error on the part of any person in the observation of any directory provision of this Act or of the Federal Act where such provision in that Act applies in respect of any action under this Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 24.

27.—(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations,

(3) No regulation made under this Act or under the Federal Act where it is applicable mutatis mutandis has effect for the purposes of this Act until it has been published in The Ontario Gazette or the Canada Gazette, as the case may be, but, when so published, a regulation is, if it so provides, effective with reference to a period before it was published. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 26.

28. All taxes, interest, penalties, costs and other amounts payable under this Act are debts due to Her Majesty in right of Ontario and are recoverable as such in any court of competent jurisdiction or in any other manner provided by this Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 27.
29.—(1) An amount payable under this Act that has not been paid or such part of an amount payable under this Act as has not been paid may be certified by the Provincial Minister,

31.—(1) Where the Provincial Minister has knowledge or suspects that a person is or is about to become indebted or liable to make any payment to a person liable to make a payment under this Act, he may, by registered letter or by a letter served personally, require him to pay the moneys otherwise payable to that person in whole or in part to the Treasurer on account of the liability under this Act. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 29 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 16 (1).

(2) The receipt of the Treasurer for moneys paid as required under this section is a good and sufficient discharge of the original liability to the extent of the payment. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 29 (2).

(3) Where the Provincial Minister has, under this section, required an employer to pay to the Treasurer on account of an employee’s liability under this Act moneys otherwise payable by the employer to the employee as remuneration, the requirement is applicable to all future payments by the employer to the employee in respect of remuneration until the liability under this Act is satisfied and operates to require payments to the Treasurer out of each payment of remuneration of such amount as is stipulated by the Provincial Minister in the registered letter. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 29 (3); 1970, c. 7, s. 16 (2).

(4) Every person who has discharged any liability to a person liable to make a payment under this Act without complying with a requirement under this section is liable to pay to Her Majesty in right of Ontario an amount equal to the liability discharged or the amount which he was required under this section to pay to the Treasurer, whichever is the lesser.

(5) Where the person who is or is about to become indebted or liable carries on business under a name or style other than his own name, the registered or other letter under subsection 1 may be addressed to the name or style under which he carries on business and, in the case of personal service, shall be deemed to have been validly served if it has been left with an adult person employed at the place of business of the addressee.

(6) Where the persons who are or are about to become indebted or liable carry on business in partnership, the registered or other letter under subsection 1 may be addressed to the partnership name and, in the case of personal service, shall be deemed to have been validly served if it has been served on one of the partners or left with an adult person employed at the place of business of the partnership. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 29 (4-6).

32.—(1) Where a person has failed to make a payment as required by this Act, the Provincial Minister, on giving ten days notice by registered mail addressed to his last known place of residence, may, whether or not there is an objection to or appeal in respect of the assessment not disposed of, issue a certificate of the failure and direct that the goods and chattels of the person in default that are located in Ontario be seized. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 30 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 17.

(2) Property seized under this section shall be kept for ten days at the cost and charges of the owner and, if he does not pay the amount due together with the costs and charges within the ten days, the property seized shall be sold by public auction.

(3) Except in the case of perishable goods, notice of the sale setting forth the time and place thereof, together with a general description of the property to be sold shall, a reasonable time before the goods are sold, be published at least once in one or more newspapers of general local circulation.

(2) Where a person has failed to pay tax, interest or penalties demanded under this section as required, the Provincial Minister may direct that the goods and chattels of the taxpayer that are located in Ontario be seized and subsections 2 to 5 of section 32 are thereupon applicable mutatis mutandis. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 31 (2); 1970, c. 7, s. 18 (2).

34.—(1) No action lies against any person for withholding or deducting any sum of money in compliance or intended compliance with this Act.

(2) Every person whose employer is required to deduct or withhold any amount from his remuneration under section 10 shall, from time to time as prescribed, file a return with his employer in prescribed form.

(3) Every person failing to file a form as required by subsection 2 is liable to have the deduction or withholding from his salary or wages under section 10 made as though he were an unmarried person without dependants.

(4) Every person who deducts or withholds any amount under this Act shall be deemed to hold the amount so deducted or withheld in trust for Her Majesty in right of Ontario.

(5) All amounts deducted or withheld by a person under this Act shall be kept separate and apart from his own moneys and, where a collection agreement is entered into, such amounts shall be kept with amounts deducted or withheld by that person under the Federal Act.

(6) Any person who has failed to deduct or withhold any amount as required by this Act or a regulation is liable to pay to Her Majesty in right of Ontario,

(a) if the amount should have been deducted or withheld under section 10 from an amount that has been paid to a person resident in Ontario, 10 per cent of the amount that should have been deducted or withheld; and

(b) in any other case, the whole amount that should have been deducted or withheld, together with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum.

(7) Every person who has failed to remit or pay an amount deducted or withheld as required by this Act or a regulation is liable to a penalty of 10 per cent of that amount or $10, whichever is the greater, in addition to the amount itself, together with interest on the amount at the rate of 10 per cent per annum; but, where a collection agreement is entered into, the Minister may refrain from levying or reduce the penalty if the person who is liable therefor is liable to pay a penalty under subsection 9 of section 123 of the Federal Act by reason of a failure to pay an amount described in paragraph a of that subsection. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 32 (1-7).

(8) The Provincial Minister may assess any person for any amount that has been deducted or withheld by that person under this Act or a regulation that is payable by that person under this section and, upon his sending a notice of assessment to that person, Division D of Part II is applicable mutatis mutandis. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 32 (8); 1970, c. 7, s. 19.

(9) The provisions of this Act that require a person to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of taxes from amounts payable to a taxpayer are applicable to Her Majesty in right of Ontario.

(10) Where this Act requires an amount to be deducted or withheld, an agreement by the person on whom that obligation is imposed not to deduct or withhold is void.

(11) The receipt of the Treasurer for an amount withheld or deducted by any person as required by or under this Act is a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of any debtor to his creditor with respect thereto to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 32 (9-11).

(d) if, during the course of an audit or examination, it appears to him that there has been a contravention of this Act or a regulation, seize and take away any of the records, books, accounts, vouchers, letters, telegrams and other documents and retain them until they are produced in any court proceedings. 1961-62, c. 60, s. 34 (1); 1970, c. 7, s. 21 (1).

(a) shall be made out of any moneys that have been collected on account of tax under this Act for any taxation year; and

(b) shall be the amount calculated by the Minister to be the amount required to be paid under section 4, and the payment thereof discharges any obligations the Government of Canada may have with respect to the payment to Ontario of any amount deducted or withheld under section 10 to which subsection 5 applies. 1962-63, c. 61, s. 7 (4).
