(3) If the letters patent or supplementary letters patent so provide or if a by-law creating preference shares passed and confirmed before the 30th day of April, 1954, so provides, any preference shares of a class may be redeemed by the company at the request of a holder or of a number or proportion of such holders.
(4) Preference shares without par value do not have a preference in respect of the repayment of capital and are not subject to redemption or purchase for cancellation.

(5) Where preference shares with par value are to be redeemed, they shall be redeemed at the amount paid up thereon, but, if the letters patent or supplementary letters patent so provide or if a by-law creating preference shares passed and confirmed before the 30th day of April, 1954, so provides, a premium, unpaid dividends or other stated amount may be paid.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection 5, if the letters patent or supplementary letters patent so provide, the preference shares of a class may be redeemed out of money set aside in a fund for such purpose at a price as near as may be to the actual value thereof, and the method of determining such actual value shall be set out in the letters patent or supplementary letters patent. 1953, c. 19, s. 27 (1-6).

(7) Except as provided in subsections 8 and 9, where the preference shares of a class are made redeemable by the letters patent or supplementary letters patent and where at any time some but not all of such shares are to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed shall be selected by lot in such manner as the board of directors determines or as nearly as may be in proportion to the number of shares registered in the name of each shareholder.

(8) Where at least 95 per cent of the holders of the preference shares of a class holding at least 95 per cent of the issued shares of such class consent in writing and where, after twenty-one days notice has been given by sending the notice to each of the holders of shares of such class to his last address as shown on the books of the company, none of the holders of shares of such class dissents in writing to the company, the company may redeem all or any of such shares in such manner as the board of directors determines. 1954, c. 14, s. 6 (1), part.

(9) Where a holder of preference shares of a private company dies or leaves its employment, it may within one year of such event redeem all or any of the preference shares held by the deceased shareholder or former employee. 1954, c. 14, s. 6 (1), part; 1955, c. 9, s. 3.

(10) The letters patent or supplementary letters patent of a company may withhold any of the powers set out in subsection 7, 8 or 9. 1954, c. 14, s. 6 (2).
(11) Where the letters patent or supplementary letters patent provide that the preference shares may be purchased for cancellation by the company, the company may purchase some or all of such shares at the lowest price at which, in the opinion of the directors, such shares are obtainable, but not exceeding the amount paid up thereon; but, if the letters patent or supplementary letters patent so provide, a premium, unpaid dividends or other stated amount may be paid.

(12) Preference shares shall not be redeemed or purchased for cancellation by the company if the company is insolvent or if the redemption or purchase would render the company insolvent.

(13) Where preference shares are redeemed or purchased for cancellation by the company, they shall be thereby cancelled, and the authorized and the issued capital of the company shall be thereby decreased.

(14) Where preference shares are converted into the same or another number of shares of another class or classes, whether preference or common, the shares converted thereupon become the same in all respects as the shares of the class or classes respectively into which they are converted and the number of shares of each class affected by the conversion is changed accordingly.

(15) Where preference shares are converted into another class or other classes of shares, the issued capital of the company shall not be increased or decreased by the conversion.

1953, c. 19, s. 27 (9-13).

(16) Subsections 1, 4, 7, 8, 9 and 11 do not apply to shares authorized before the 30th day of April, 1954. 1954, c. 14, s. 6 (3).

28.—(1) The letters patent or supplementary letters patent of a company may authorize the issue from time to time in one or more series of the preference shares of a class and may authorize the directors to fix from time to time before such issue the designation, preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, limitations or prohibitions attaching to the shares of each series of such class.

(2) The shares of all series of the same class of preference shares shall carry the same voting rights or the same restrictions, conditions, limitations or prohibitions on the right to vote.
(3) Where any dividends or amounts payable on a repayment of capital are not paid in full, the shares of all series of the same class of preference shares shall participate rateably in respect of such dividends, including accumulations, if any, in accordance with the sums that would be payable on such shares if all such dividends were declared and paid in full, and on any repayment of capital in accordance with the sums that would be payable on such repayment of capital if all sums so payable were paid in full.

(4) No shares of any series of a class of preference shares shall be issued until supplementary letters patent have been issued setting forth the designation, preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, limitations or prohibitions attaching to the shares of such series except in the case of the first series if such designation, preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, limitations or prohibitions have been set forth in the letters patent or prior supplementary letters patent.

(5) The Lieutenant Governor may issue such supplementary letters patent on the application of the company authorized by a resolution of the directors fixing the designation, preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, limitations or prohibitions attaching to the shares of such series and the filing with the Provincial Secretary of evidence of the due compliance with the conditions, if any, contained in the letters patent or in any prior supplementary letters patent, precedent to the creation and issue of the shares of such series. 1953, c. 19, s. 28.

29.—(1) Subject to subsection 2 of section 27, every holder of a preference share or a common share is entitled to one vote for each preference share or each common share held by him at all meetings of the shareholders of the company, but this subsection does not apply to shares authorized before the 30th day of April, 1954.

(2) The letters patent or supplementary letters patent may provide for a greater number of votes for each share of a class or classes at all times or on the happening of a stated event. 1953, c. 19, s. 29.

30.—(1) Where the shares of a company are with par value, its issued capital shall be expressed in dollars, pounds, francs or other currency and is an amount equal to the total of the products of the number of issued shares of each class multiplied by the par value thereof.

(2) Where the shares of a company are without par value or where part of its shares are with par value and part are without par value, its issued capital shall be expressed in dollars, pounds, francs or other currency and is an amount equal to the total of the products of the number of issued shares of each class with par value multiplied by the par value thereof, together with the amount of the consideration for which the shares without par value from time to time outstanding were issued and together with such amounts as from time to time by by-law of the company may be transferred thereto.

(3) Nothing in subsection 2 affects the capital of a company in respect of shares without par value issued before the 30th day of April, 1954, if the letters patent or the supplementary letters patent of the company provide that the capital is to be at least equal to the sum of the aggregate par value of all issued shares having par value plus a sum in dollars, pounds, francs or other currency in respect of every issued share without par value plus such amounts as from time to time by by-law of the company may be transferred thereto.

(4) Where before the 30th day of April, 1954, a company has set aside part of the consideration received upon the allotment and issue of shares without par value as distributable surplus, the amount of such distributable surplus does not form part of its issued capital. 1953, c. 19, s. 30.

31.—(1) In the absence of a provision to the contrary in the letters patent, supplementary letters patent or by-laws of the company, shares may be allotted and issued at such times and in such manner and to such persons or class of persons as the directors determine.

(2) Shares with par value shall not be allotted and issued as fully paid except for a consideration payable in cash at least equal to the product of the number of shares allotted and issued multiplied by the par value thereof or for a consideration payable directly or indirectly in property or past services which the directors in good faith determine by express resolution to be in all circumstances of the transaction the fair equivalent of such cash consideration.

(3) Shares without par value may be allotted and issued for such consideration as is fixed by the directors acting in good faith and in the best interests of the company.

(4) Shares without par value shall not be allotted and issued as fully paid except for the consideration fixed by the directors as aforesaid payable in cash to the total amount of the consideration so fixed or for a consideration payable directly or indirectly in property or past services which the directors in
(5) Shares allotted and issued in accordance with this section shall be fully paid and non-assessable upon receipt by the company of the consideration for the allotment and issue thereof, and upon such receipt the holders of such shares are not liable to the company or to its creditors in respect thereof. 1953, c. 19, s. 31.

32.—(1) The directors may pass by-laws for the payment of commissions to persons in consideration of their subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for shares in the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional for such shares, but no such commission shall exceed 25 per cent of the amount of the subscription.

(2) No by-law passed under subsection 1 is effective until it is confirmed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of shareholders duly called for considering it.

(3) Except as provided in subsection 1, no company shall apply any of its shares or capital, either directly or indirectly, in payment of any commission, discount or allowance to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for shares of the company or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for such shares, whether the shares or capital is so applied by being added to the purchase money of any property acquired by the company or to the contract price of any work to be executed for the company, or is paid out of the nominal purchase money or contract price or otherwise. 1953, c. 19, s. 32.

33.—(1) A company may apply to the Lieutenant Governor for the issue of supplementary letters patent,

(a) extending, limiting or otherwise varying its objects;

(b) changing its name;

(c) increasing its authorized capital;

(d) decreasing,

(i) its authorized capital by cancelling issued or unissued shares with or without par value or by reducing the par value of issued or unissued shares, or
(ii) its issued capital, if it has shares without par value, and, where it has more capital than it requires, authorizing the repayment of capital to the shareholders to the extent that the issued capital is decreased in any way under this clause;

(e) redividing its authorized capital into shares of lesser or greater par value;

(f) consolidating or subdividing any of its shares without par value;

(g) changing any of its shares with par value into shares without par value;

(h) changing any of its shares without par value into shares with par value;

(i) reclassifying any shares with or without par value into shares of a different class;

(j) varying any provision in its letters patent or prior supplementary letters patent;

(k) providing for any other matter or thing in respect of which provision may be made in letters patent under this Act;

(l) converting it into a public company;

(m) making it subject to Part IV;

(n) making it not subject to Part IV;

(o) converting it into a private company;

(p) converting it into a corporation without share capital;

(q) converting it into a corporation, with or without share capital, subject to Part V;

(r) making it not subject to Part V.

(2) An application under clauses a to n of subsection 1 Authorization shall be authorized by a special resolution. 1953, c. 19, s. 33 (1, 2).
An application under clauses 0 to r of subsection 1 shall be authorized by a resolution of the board of directors and confirmed in writing,

(a) by 100 per cent of the shareholders; or

(b) by at least 95 per cent of the shareholders holding at least 95 per cent of the issued capital, but, in the case of confirmation under clause b, the application shall not be made until twenty-one days notice of the application has been given by sending the notice to each shareholder to his last address as shown on the books of the company and only if at the expiration of the twenty-one days none of the shareholders has dissented in writing to the company.

If the application is to delete or vary a preference, right, condition, restriction, limitation or prohibition attaching to a class of preference shares or to create preference shares ranking in priority to or on a parity with an existing class of preference shares, then, subject to subsection 5 and in addition to the authorization required by subsection 2, the application shall not be made until the application has been authorized in writing,

(a) by 100 per cent of the holders of the shares of such class or classes of shares; or

(b) by at least 95 per cent of the holders of the shares of such class or classes of shares holding at least 95 per cent of the issued shares of such class or classes, but, in the case of authorization under clause b, the application shall not be made until twenty-one days notice of the application has been given by sending the notice to each of the holders of shares of such class or classes to his last address as shown on the books of the company and only if at the expiration of twenty-one days none of the holders of such class or classes has dissented in writing to the company. 1955, c. 9, s. 4.

If the letters patent or supplementary letters patent so provide, the authorization required by subsection 4 may be given by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the holders of such class or classes of shares duly called for that purpose. 1954, c. 14, s. 7 (1), part.

Where letters patent or supplementary letters patent issued before the 30th day of April, 1954, provide for an authorization for an application for supplementary letters patent to delete or vary a preference, right, condition, restriction, limitation or prohibition attaching to preference shares or to create preference shares ranking in priority to or on a parity with an existing class of preference shares, such authorization is effective, and subsections 4 and 5 do not apply. 1953, c. 19, s. 33 (5); 1954, c. 14, s. 7 (2).

(7) An application under subsection 1 may be made only within six months after the resolution has been confirmed by the shareholders.

(8) Subsection 4 does not apply to an arrangement under section 95.

(9) This section does not apply to a company incorporated by special Act, except that a company incorporated by special excepted Act may apply under this section for the issue of supplementary letters patent changing its name. 1953, c. 19, s. 33 (6-8).

34. On an application for supplementary letters patent reducing authorized or issued capital, the company shall establish to the satisfaction of the Provincial Secretary that after the decrease the company will be solvent and, if required by the Provincial Secretary, shall establish to his satisfaction that there are no creditors who object to the application. 1953, c. 19, s. 34.

35. Where issued shares without par value are cancelled, the issued capital is thereby decreased by an amount equal to the total of the products of the average consideration for which the shares of each such class were issued multiplied by the number of shares cancelled of each such class, respectively. 1953, c. 19, s. 35.

36.—(1) On a decrease of the issued capital of a company by supplementary letters patent, each person who was a shareholder on the date of the supplementary letters patent is individually liable to the creditors of the company for the debts due on that date to an amount not exceeding the amount of the repayment to him or reduction of his liability, or both, as the case may be.

(2) A person is not liable under subsection 1,

(a) unless the company has been sued for the debt within six months after the date of the supplementary letters patent and execution has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; and

(b) unless he is sued for the debt within two years from the date of the supplementary letters patent.
(3) After execution has been so returned, the amount due on the execution, not exceeding the amount of the repayment to the person or the reduction of his liability, is the amount recoverable against such person.

(4) Where it is made to appear that there are numerous shareholders who may be liable under this section, the court may permit an action to be brought against one or more of them as representatives of the class and, if the plaintiff establishes his claim as creditor, may make an order of reference and add as parties in the Master's office all such shareholders as may be found, and the Master shall determine the amount that each should contribute towards the plaintiff's claim and may direct payment of the sums so determined.

(5) No person holding shares as executor, administrator, committee of a mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee, who is registered on the books of the company as a shareholder and therein described as representing in any such capacity a named estate, person or trust, is personally liable under this section, but the estate, person or trust is subject to all liabilities imposed by this section. 1953, c. 19, s. 36; 1954, c. 14, s. 8.

37.—(1) A person entitled to a fraction of a share is not entitled to be registered on the books of the company in respect thereof or to receive a share certificate therefor, but he is entitled to receive a bearer fractional certificate in respect of such fraction and, on presentation at the head office of the company, or at a place designated by the company, of bearer fractional certificates for fractions that together represent a whole share, a share certificate for a whole share shall be issued in exchange therefor and the person in whose name such certificate is issued shall be registered on the books of the company as the holder of such share.

(2) Such a bearer fractional certificate is transferable by delivery. 1953, c. 19, s. 37 (1, 2).

(3) For the purpose of consolidating fractions of shares into whole shares, a company may purchase fractions of shares and, if it does so, it shall sell forthwith the whole shares resulting from the consolidation. 1954, c. 14, s. 9.

38. The shares of a company shall be deemed to be personal estate. 1953, c. 19, s. 38.
39.—(1) The shares of a company are transferable on the books of the company subject to such conditions and restrictions as this Act, the special Act, the letters patent or supplementary letters patent prescribe.

(2) Subject to subsection 3, no by-law shall be passed that in any way restricts the right of a holder of fully-paid shares to transfer them, but by-laws may be passed regulating the method of their transfer.

(3) Except in the case of shares listed on a recognized stock exchange, where the letters patent, supplementary letters patent or by-laws so provide, the directors may refuse to permit the registration of a transfer of fully-paid shares registered in the name of a shareholder who is indebted to the company. 1953, c. 19, s. 39.

40. Every company shall cause to be kept a register of transfers in which all transfers of shares and the date and other particulars of each transfer shall be set out. 1953, c. 19, s. 40.

41. A company may appoint a transfer agent to keep the register of shareholders and the register of transfers and may also appoint one or more branch transfer agents to keep branch registers of shareholders and branch registers of transfers. 1953, c. 19, s. 41.

42.—(1) The register of shareholders and the register of transfers shall be kept at the head office of the company or at such other office or place in Ontario as is appointed by resolution of the directors, and the branch register or registers of shareholders and the branch register or registers of transfers may be kept at such office or offices of the company or other place or places, either in or outside Ontario, as are appointed by resolution of the directors.

(2) Registration of the transfer of a share of the company in the register of transfers or a branch register of transfers is a complete and valid registration for all purposes.

(3) In each branch register of transfers shall be recorded only the particulars of the transfers of shares registered in that branch register of transfers.

(4) Particulars of every transfer of shares registered in every branch register of transfers shall be recorded in the register of transfers.
(5) The directors of a company may by resolution close the register of transfers and the branch register or registers of transfers, if any, for a period of time not exceeding forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturdays and holidays, immediately preceding any meeting of the shareholders, and notice of every such closing shall be given in a newspaper published in the place where the register of transfers is kept and in a newspaper published in each place in which a branch register of transfers is kept. 1953, c. 19, s. 42.

43.—(1) Every shareholder is entitled to a share certificate in respect of the shares held by him, signed by the proper officers in accordance with the company’s by-laws in that regard, but the company is not bound to issue more than one share certificate in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons and delivery of a share certificate to one of several joint shareholders is sufficient delivery to all.

(2) A share certificate is prima facie evidence of the title of the shareholder to the shares represented thereby.

(3) A company may charge a fee of not more than 50 cents for every share certificate issued, except that, in the case of the allotment and issue of shares, no fee shall be charged. 1953, c. 19, s. 43.

44. Where a share certificate is defaced, destroyed or lost, a new certificate may be issued in its place on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding $1 and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity as the directors determine. 1953, c. 19, s. 44.

45.—(1) Every share certificate,

(a) shall bear upon its face the name of the company, the words “Incorporated in the Province of Ontario” or words of like effect and a statement of its authorized capital; and

(b) shall state the number and class of shares represented thereby and whether the shares are with par value or without par value and, if partly paid, the amount paid up thereon or that the shares are fully paid, as the case may be; and

(c) if it represents preference shares, shall state thereon in legible characters the preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, limitations or prohibitions attaching to the class of preference shares to which it belongs; and
(d) if it represents shares of a private company, shall bear upon its face the words "Private Company".

(2) Where some but not all of the preference shares of a class are converted, redeemed or purchased for cancellation, it is unnecessary for the company to change the statement of its authorized capital on its share certificates. 1953, c. 19, s. 45.

46. A share certificate shall be signed manually by at least one officer of the company or by or on behalf of a transfer agent or branch transfer agent of the company, and the company may by by-law provide that any additional signatures required on share certificates may be printed, engraved, lithographed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon, and in such event share certificates so signed are as valid as if they had been signed manually. 1953, c. 19, s. 46.

47.—(1) A company is not bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, in respect of any share.

(2) The receipt of the shareholder in whose name the share is registered on the books of the company is a valid and binding discharge to the company for any payment made in respect of such share whether notice of such trust has been given to the company or not.

(3) The company is not bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipt.

(4) The written authorization of an executor, administrator, committee of a mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee who is registered on the books of the company as holding shares in any such capacity is sufficient justification for the company to register a transfer of such shares, including a transfer into the name of such executor, administrator, committee of a mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee absolutely. 1953, c. 19, s. 47.

48.—(1) A public company, if so authorized by its letters patent or supplementary letters patent and subject to the provisions respecting share warrants therein contained, may, with respect to any fully-paid shares, issue under the seal of the company a share warrant stating that the bearer of it is entitled to the share or shares therein specified, and may provide, by coupons or otherwise, for the payment of future dividends on the share or shares specified in the share warrant.
(2) On the issue of a share warrant, the company shall remove from its books the name of the shareholder then entered thereon as holding such share or shares as if he had ceased to be a shareholder and shall enter in such books the following particulars:

1. The fact of the issue of the share warrant.

2. A statement of the shares specified in the share warrant.

3. The date of the issue of the share warrant.

(3) A share warrant entitles the bearer thereof to the shares therein specified and the shares may be transferred by delivery of the warrant.

(4) The bearer of a share warrant shall be deemed to be a shareholder of the company, except that he is not entitled to receive notice of meetings or a copy of any financial statement or auditor's report and is not qualified in respect of shares specified in the share warrant to be a director of the company.

(5) Upon presentation of a share warrant at a meeting of shareholders, its bearer is entitled to attend the meeting and vote the shares specified in it.

(6) For the purpose of subsection 5, the expression "share warrant" includes a certificate or other document satisfactory to the company to the effect that its bearer is the holder of a share warrant in respect of the shares specified in the certificate or other document.

(7) The bearer of a share warrant is, subject to the provisions respecting share warrants contained in the letters patent or supplementary letters patent, entitled, on surrendering it for cancellation, to have the shares specified in it registered in his name on the books of the company, and the company is responsible for any loss incurred by any person by reason of the company entering on its books the name of the bearer of a share warrant in respect of the shares specified in it without the warrant being surrendered and cancelled.

(8) Upon the surrender of a share warrant for cancellation, the date of the surrender shall be entered in the books of the company. 1953, c. 19, s. 48.
49.—(1) No transfer of shares, unless made by sale under an execution or under a decree, order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, is valid for any purpose whatsoever until registration thereof has been duly made in the register of transfers or in a branch register of transfers of the company, save only as exhibiting the rights of the parties thereto towards each other and, if absolute, of rendering any transferee jointly and severally liable with the transferor to the company and to its creditors.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection 1, where fully-paid shares are listed on a recognized stock exchange at the time of the delivery of a certificate for such shares with a duly executed instrument of transfer endorsed thereon or accompanying it, such delivery constitutes a valid transfer of the shares represented by such certificate, but, until registration of such transfer is duly made in the register of transfers or in a branch register of transfers of the company, the company may treat the person in whose name the shares represented by such certificate are registered on the books of the company as being solely entitled to receive notice of and vote at meetings of shareholders and receive any payments in respect of such shares whether by way of dividends or otherwise.

(3) A power of attorney contained in a duly executed instrument of transfer endorsed on or accompanying a share certificate delivered for value before the death of the transferor is not revoked by the death of the transferor but is valid and effectual subject to the conditions or restrictions, if any, contained therein. 1953, c. 19, s. 49, revised.

50.—(1) The directors may refuse to permit the registration of a transfer of shares on the books of the company for the purpose of notifying the person registered thereon as owner of such shares of the application for such registration, and in that event the company shall forthwith give notice to such person of such application.

(2) The owner may within seven days after the giving of such notice lodge a caveat against the registration of the transfer and thereupon the registration of the transfer shall not be made for a period of forty-eight hours.

(3) If within one week after the giving of such notice or the expiration of such period of forty-eight hours, whichever last expires, no order of a competent court enjoining the registration of the transfer has been served upon the company, the transfer may be registered.
(4) Where a transfer of shares is registered after the proceedings mentioned in this section, the company is not liable in respect of such shares to a person whose rights are purported to be transferred, but nothing in this subsection prejudices any claim the transferor may have against the transferee. 1953, c. 19, s. 50.

51. (1) No registration of a transfer of shares that are not fully paid shall be made without the consent of the directors and of the transferee and, subject to subsection 4, where such registration is made with the consent of the directors, the transferor is not liable to the company or to its creditors for the amount unpaid on such shares.

(2) Subject to subsection 3, where registration is made with the consent of the directors of a transfer of shares that are not fully paid to a person whom the directors have reason to believe is not of sufficient means to pay fully for such shares, the directors are jointly and severally liable to the company and to its creditors in the same manner and to the same extent as the transferor would have been liable if the registration had not been made.

(3) If a director, present when such consent to registration is given, forthwith, or, if a director then absent, within seven days after he becomes aware of such consent, delivers to an officer of the company his written protest against such consent and, within seven days after delivery of such protest, sends a copy of such protest by registered mail to the Provincial Secretary, such director thereby and not otherwise exonerates himself from liability under subsection 2.

(4) Where the transfer of a share upon which a call is unpaid is registered with the consent of the directors and of the transferee, the transferee is liable for the call to the same extent and with the same liability to forfeiture of the share, if the call remains unpaid, as if he had been the holder when the call was made, and the transferor also remains liable for the call until it is paid. 1953, c. 19, s. 51.

52. Where upon the death of a holder of any shares or securities of a company a transmission thereof takes place to or title to or control thereof vests or is claimed to vest in any person, herein called "the successor", then, subject to The Succession Duty Act, the company is justified in permitting or consenting to the registration thereof in the name of the successor on the company's books or in paying the principal amount thereof or any dividend or interest thereon to the successor,

(a) if the successor claims by virtue of a grant of probate or letters of administration or other instrument issued or purporting to be issued by a court or other judicial authority in any jurisdiction, upon production of the same or an authenticated copy thereof or extract therefrom or a certificate of such grant under the seal of such court or other authority without any proof of the authenticity of such seal or other proof whatever and deposit of a copy thereof; or

(b) if the successor claims by virtue of the laws of any jurisdiction in which any such transmission or vesting of title or control takes place without a grant of probate or letters of administration or other court or judicial action, upon production and deposit of proof thereof in accordance with the laws of such jurisdiction and reasonable evidence of such laws; or

(c) if the net value of the estate of the deceased holder is less than $1,500 or if the market value of the shares or securities is less than $300, upon proof thereof to the reasonable satisfaction of the company, together with, in any such event, production and deposit by the successor of a sworn statement showing the nature of the transmission or vesting of title or control, as the case may be.

1953, c. 19, s. 52; 1954, c. 14, s. 10.

53.—(1) The directors may by resolution call in and by notice thereof in writing demand from the shareholders the whole or any part of the amount unpaid on shares held by them at such times and places and in such payments or instalments as this Act, the special Act, the letters patent, the supplementary letters patent, the by-laws or the terms of allotment and issue of such shares require or allow.

(2) The demand shall state that, in the event of the call not being paid in accordance with the demand, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

(3) If a shareholder fails to pay a call due by him on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, he is liable to pay interest on the amount thereof at the rate of 5 per cent per annum from the day appointed for payment to the time of payment.
Forfeiture of shares

(4) In the event of the call not being paid in accordance with the demand, the directors may forfeit any shares on which the call is not paid.

Sale of forfeited shares

(5) Any forfeited shares become the property of the company upon the forfeiture, and, subject to its by-laws, may be sold.

Continuing liability

(6) Notwithstanding such forfeiture, the holder of such shares at the time of forfeiture continues liable to the company and to its creditors for the full amount unpaid on such shares at the time of forfeiture, less any sums that are subsequently received by the company in respect thereof.

Refund of excess on sale

(7) Where the company receives on the sale of forfeited shares an amount in excess of the amount then unpaid on such shares, the excess amount shall be paid to the person whose shares were forfeited.

Recovery of calls by suit

(8) The directors may, instead of forfeiting any shares, enforce payment of all calls and interest thereon by action in a court of competent jurisdiction. 1953, c. 19, s. 53.

Right to receive uncalled moneys

54. The directors may receive at any time from a shareholder all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon shares held by him. 1953, c. 19, s. 54.

Shareholder's liability limited

55.—(1) A shareholder shall not, as such, be held answerable or responsible for any act, default, obligation or liability of the company, or for any engagement, claim, payment, loss, injury, transaction, matter or thing relating to or connected with the company beyond the amount unpaid on his shares.

(2) A shareholder, until the whole amount has been paid up on his shares, is liable to the creditors of the company to an amount equal to that unpaid thereon, but he is not liable to an action therefor by a creditor until an execution at the suit of the creditor against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part.

Amount recoverable

(3) The amount due on such execution, not exceeding the amount unpaid on his shares, is the amount recoverable from such shareholder and, when so recovered, shall be considered as paid on his shares.

Set-off

(4) A shareholder may plead by way of defence, in whole or in part, to any such action by a creditor any set-off that he could set up against the company except a claim for unpaid dividends or a salary or allowance as a director or officer of the company. 1953, c. 19, s. 55.
56.—(1) No executor, administrator, committee of a trustee, mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee who is not personally liable registered on the books of the company as a shareholder and therein described as representing in any such capacity a named estate, person or trust is personally liable in respect of the shares that he so represents.

(2) The estate, person or trust so represented is liable as if the testator, intestate, mentally incompetent person, ward or cestui que trust were registered on the books of the company as the holder of the shares.

(3) If the testator, intestate, mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee so represented is not named on the books of the company, the executor, administrator, committee, ward or cestui que trust were registered on the books of the company as the holder of the shares.

1953, c. 56, s. 56.

57.—(1) The word “mortgagee”, as used in subsection 2, includes a trustee for holders of securities.

(2) No mortgagee of a share of a company and no person holding such a share as collateral security who is registered on the books of the company as the holder of such share and therein described as representing in either of such capacities a named mortgagor or person giving such collateral security is personally liable in respect of such share as if he held them in his own name as owner thereof. 1953, c. 19, s. 57.

58.—(1) The directors may pass by-laws,

(a) for borrowing money on the credit of the company;

(b) for issuing, selling or pledging securities of the company;

(c) for charging, mortgaging, hypothecating or pledging all or any of the real or personal property of the company, including book debts and unpaid calls, rights, powers, franchises and undertaking, to secure any securities or any money borrowed, or other debt, or any other obligation or liability of the company.

(2) No by-law passed under subsection 1 is effective until it has been confirmed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of shareholders duly called for considering it. 1953, c. 19, s. 58.
59. A condition contained in a security or in a deed for securing a security is not invalid by reason only that the security is thereby made irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency, however remote, or on the expiration of a period, however long. 1953, c. 19, s. 59.

60.—(1) A duplicate original, or a copy certified under the seal of the company, of any charge, mortgage or other instrument of hypothecation or pledge made by the company to secure its securities shall be filed forthwith in the office of the Provincial Secretary.

(2) Subsection 1 does not apply to a charge or mortgage filed with the Provincial Secretary under The Corporation Securities Registration Act or any other Act. 1953, c. 19, s. 60.

61.—(1) Subject to the special Act, letters patent or supplementary letters patent of the company, the directors may declare and the company may pay dividends on the issued shares of the company.

(2) A dividend may be paid in money or in specie or in kind not exceeding in value the amount of the dividend.

(3) The directors shall not declare and the company shall not pay any dividend or bonus when the company is insolvent, or any dividend or bonus the payment of which renders the company insolvent or that diminishes its capital, and, if any dividend or bonus is declared and paid contrary to this subsection, the directors are jointly and severally liable to the company for the amount of the dividend so declared and paid or such part thereof as renders the company insolvent or diminishes its capital.

(4) If a director, present when any such dividend or bonus is declared, forthwith, or, if a director then absent, within seven days after he becomes aware of such declaration, delivers to an officer of the company his written protest against such declaration and, within seven days after delivery of such protest sends a copy of such protest by registered mail to the Provincial Secretary, such director thereby and not otherwise exonerates himself from liability under subsection 3.

(5) Nothing in this section prevents a mining company or a company whose assets are of a wasting character, or a company incorporated for the object of acquiring and administering the assets or a substantial part of the assets of another corporation, either from such corporation or from the assign of such corporation, for the purpose of converting such assets into money and distributing the money among the shareholders of the company, from declaring and paying dividends out of funds derived from the operations of the company.

(6) The powers conferred by subsection 5 may be exercised notwithstanding that the value of the net assets of the company may be thereby reduced to less than the issued capital of the company if the payment of the dividends does not reduce the value of its remaining assets to an amount insufficient to meet all the liabilities of the company exclusive of its issued capital. 1953, c. 19, s. 61 (1-6).

(7) Subject to subsection 8, the powers conferred by subsection 5 may be exercised only under the authority of a by-law passed by the directors and confirmed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of the shareholders duly called for considering it.

(2) Upon the making of an order under subsection 1, the provisional liquidator or the liquidator shall administer the deposit for the benefit of the persons entitled to share in the proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of and the priorities set out in this Act.

may publish a notice fixing a termination date for the subsisting contracts of insurance of such insurer, and on and after that date coverage and protection under the Ontario contracts cease and the insurer is not liable under any such contract for a loss that occurs after that date.

(2) Where a provisional liquidator or a liquidator has been appointed in another province to wind up an insurer incorporated in that province, and if such provisional liquidator or liquidator fixed a termination date for the contracts of insurance of the insurer, on and after that date coverage and protection under the Ontario contracts cease and determine and the insurer is not liable under any such contract for a loss that occurs after that date.

234. The provisional liquidator or the liquidator shall cause the notice,

(a) to be published in The Ontario Gazette and in the official gazette of each other province in which the insurer is licensed and in such newspapers as the Supreme Court directs in order to give reasonable notice of the termination date so fixed; and

(b) to be mailed to each policyholder at his address as shown on the books and records of the company. 1953, c. 19, s. 233.

235.—(1) The liquidator shall pay or set aside from the assets of the insurer sums in his opinion sufficient to pay,

(a) the costs of the liquidation or winding up;

(b) all claims for losses covered by the insurer’s contracts of insurance that occurred before the termination date fixed under section 53 of The Insurance Act or section 233 of this Act and that have not been paid or provided for in the administration of the deposit and of which notice has been received by the insurer or the liquidator;

(3) The claims of the insured persons for refunds of unearned premiums shall be calculated,

(a) as at the termination date fixed under section 53 of The Insurance Act or section 233 of this Act; or

(b) as at the date the insured person cancelled the contract, whichever date is the earlier.

(4) The refund of all or a portion of the premium does not destroy or defeat any other remedy the insured person may have against the insurer in respect thereof or for any other cause.

(5) Nothing in this section prejudices or affects the priority of any mortgage, lien or charge upon the property of the insurer. 1953, c. 19, s. 234.

236. The fees, taxes and costs payable by the insurer to each province shall be paid out of the assets of the insurer remaining after the reinsurance of the subsisting contracts of insurance of the insurer or after the payment of the claims of policyholders for refund of unearned premiums, as the case may be, and the balance shall be distributed among the creditors of the insurer other than the insured persons, preferred creditors and the several provinces. 1953, c. 19, s. 235.

237.—(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, within seven days after the close of each period of three months and until the affairs of the insurer are wound up and the accounts are finally closed, the liquidator shall file with the court or other authority appointing him and also with the Superintendent detailed schedules, in such form as is required, showing,

(a) receipts and expenditures; and

(b) assets and liabilities.

(2) The liquidator, whenever he is required so to do by the authority appointing him or by the Minister, shall exhibit the office books and vouchers and furnish such other information respecting the affairs of the insurer as is required.

238.—(1) Where a fraternal society transacts endowment or expectancy insurance and has an endowment fund separate and distinct from its life insurance fund, the society may, by resolution duly passed at a general meeting, after at least one month's notice of such intended resolution, determine that the endowment or expectancy shall be discontinued, and that the endowment or expectancy fund shall be distributed pro rata among the members then in good standing who are contributing to such fund according to the total contribution of such member.

(2) After the resolution has been assented to by the Superintendent and filed with the Provincial Secretary, the executive officers may proceed to ascertain the persons intended to rank upon the fund and may distribute the fund among those so entitled, and such distribution discharges the society and all executive officers thereof from all further or other liability in respect of such fund and of the endowment or expectancy contracts undertaken by the society.

(3) If all the members interested in the endowment or expectancy fund are also interested as holders of life insurance contracts, the general meeting, instead of determining to distribute the endowment or expectancy fund, may determine to convert it into or merge it in a life insurance fund, and after the resolution has been assented to and filed as provided in subsection 2, the endowment or expectancy fund becomes a life insurance fund. 1953, c. 19, s. 237.

239. Notwithstanding anything in this Act or in The Extension of Insurance Act, where an insurer is being wound up voluntarily, the Superintendent may renew or extend the licence of the insurer for the purposes of its winding up. 1953, c. 19, s. 238.

240. The books, accounts and documents of an insurer and the entries in the books of its officers or liquidators are prima facie evidence of the matters to which they relate as between an alleged debtor or contributory and the insurer. 1953, c. 19, s. 239.

PART VII

WINDING UP

241. In this Part, “contributory” means a person who is liable to contribute to the property of a corporation in the event of the corporation being wound up under this Part. 1953, c. 19, s. 240.

242. This Part applies,

(a) to every corporation incorporated by or under a general or special Act of the Parliament of the late Province of Upper Canada;

(b) to every corporation incorporated by or under a general or special Act of the Parliament of the late Province of Canada that has its head office and carries on business in Ontario and that was incorporated with objects to which the authority of the Legislature extends;

(c) to every corporation incorporated by or under a general or special Act of this Legislature;

(d) to every insurer within the meaning of Part VI that is incorporated under or subject to this Act except where inconsistent with Part VI;

but this Part does not apply to a corporation incorporated for the construction and working of a railway, incline railway or street railway, or to a corporation within the meaning of The Loan and Trust Corporations Act except as provided by that Act. 1953, c. 19, s. 241.
243.—(1) Where the shareholders or members of a corporation by a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting called for that purpose pass a resolution requiring the corporation to be wound up, the corporation may be wound up voluntarily.

(2) At such meeting the shareholders or members shall appoint one or more persons, who may be directors, officers or employees of the corporation, as liquidator of the estate and effects of the corporation for the purpose of winding up its affairs and distributing its property, and may at that or any subsequent general meeting fix his remuneration and the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up. 1953, c. 19, s. 242.

244.—(1) Notice of a resolution requiring the voluntary winding up of a corporation shall be filed with the Provincial Secretary and be published in The Ontario Gazette by the corporation within fourteen days after the resolution has been passed. 1953, c. 19, s. 243 (1); 1955, c. 9, s. 12.

(2) A corporation that fails to comply with subsection 1 is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $200 and every director or officer who authorizes, permits or acquiesces in such failure is guilty of an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a like fine. 1953, c. 19, s. 243 (2).

245. A corporation being wound up voluntarily may, in general meeting, by resolution, delegate to any committee of its shareholders or members, contributories or creditors, hereinafter referred to as inspectors, the power of appointing the liquidator and filling any vacancy in the office of liquidator, or may by a like resolution enter into any arrangement with its creditors with respect to the powers to be exercised by the liquidator and the manner in which they are to be exercised. 1953, c. 19, s. 244.

246. If in a voluntary winding up a vacancy occurs in the office of liquidator by death, resignation or otherwise, the shareholders or members in general meeting may, subject to any arrangement the corporation may have entered into with its creditors upon the appointment of inspectors, fill such vacancy, and a general meeting for that purpose may be convened by the continuing liquidator, if any, or by any contributory, and shall be deemed to have been duly held if called in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation, or, in default thereof, in the manner prescribed by this Act for calling general meetings of the shareholders or members of the corporation. 1953, c. 19, s. 245.
247. The shareholders or members of the corporation may by a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting called for that purpose remove a liquidator appointed under section 243 or 245, and in such case shall appoint another liquidator in his stead. 1953, c. 19, s. 246.

248. A voluntary winding up commences at the time of the passing of the resolution requiring the winding up. 1953, c. 19, s. 247.

249. Where a corporation is being wound up voluntarily, it shall, from the date of the commencement of its winding up, cease to carry on its undertaking, except in so far as may be required for the beneficial winding up thereof, and all transfers of shares, except transfers made to or with the sanction of the liquidator, or alterations in the status of the shareholders or members of the corporation, taking place after the commencement of its winding up, are void, but its corporate existence and all its corporate powers, notwithstanding that it is otherwise provided by its instrument of incorporation or by-laws, continue until its affairs are wound up. 1953, c. 19, s. 248.

250. After the commencement of a voluntary winding up, no action or other proceeding shall be commenced against the corporation; and

(a) no action or other proceeding shall be commenced against the corporation; and

(b) no attachment, sequestration, distress or execution shall be put in force against the estate or effects of the corporation, except by leave of the court and subject to such terms as the court imposes. 1953, c. 19, s. 249.

251.—(1) Upon a voluntary winding up, the liquidator shall settle the list of contributories, and any list so settled is prima facie evidence of the liability of the persons named therein to be contributories. 1953, c. 19, s. 250 (a).

(2) Upon a voluntary winding up, the liquidator may, before he has ascertained the sufficiency of the property of the corporation, call on all or any of the contributories for the time being settled on the list of contributories to the extent of their liability to pay any sum that he deems necessary to satisfy the liabilities of the corporation and the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, and the liquidator may, in making a call, take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories upon whom the call is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective portions of the call. 1953, c. 19, s. 250 (b).

252.—(1) The liquidator may, during the continuance of the voluntary winding up, call general meetings of the shareholders or members of the corporation for the purpose obtaining its sanction by resolution, or for any other purpose he thinks fit.

(2) In the event of a voluntary winding up continuing for more than one year, the liquidator shall call a general meeting of the shareholders or members of the corporation at the end of the first year and of each succeeding year from the commencement of the winding up, and shall lay before the meeting an account showing his acts and dealings and the manner in which the winding up has been conducted during the preceding year. 1953, c. 19, s. 251.

253. The liquidator, with the sanction of a resolution of the shareholders or members of the corporation passed in general meeting or of the inspectors, may make such compromise or other arrangement as the liquidator deems expedient with any creditor or person claiming to be a creditor or having or alleging that he has a claim, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, against the corporation or whereby the corporation may be rendered liable. 1953, c. 19, s. 252.

254. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, compromise all calls and liabilities to call, debts and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, whether present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the corporation and any contributory, alleged contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the corporation and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the property of the corporation, or the winding up of the corporation, upon the receipt of such sums payable at such times and generally upon such terms as are agreed upon, and the liquidator may take any security for the discharge of such calls, debts or liabilities and give a complete discharge in respect thereof. 1953, c. 19, s. 253.

255.—(1) Where a corporation is proposed to be or is in the course of being wound up voluntarily and the whole or a portion of its business or property is proposed to be transferred or sold to another corporation, the liquidator of the first-mentioned corporation, with the sanction of a resolution of the shareholders or members passed in general meeting of the corporation by which he was appointed conferring either a general authority on the liquidator or an authority in respect of any particular arrangement, may receive, in compensation or in part compensation for such transfer or sale, cash or shares or other like interest in the purchasing corporation for the purpose of distribution among the shareholders or members of the corporation that is being wound up in the manner set forth in the arrangement, or may, in lieu of receiving cash or shares or other like interest, or in addition thereto, participate in the profits of or receive any other benefit from the purchasing corporation.

(2) A sale made or arrangement entered into by the liquidator under this section is binding on the shareholders or members of the corporation that is being wound up voluntarily if,

(a) in the case of a company, the shareholders or classes of shareholders, as the case may be, at a general meeting duly called for the purpose, by votes representing at least three-fourths of the shares or of each class of shares represented at the meeting; or

(b) in the case of a corporation without share capital, the members or classes of members, as the case may be, at a general meeting duly called for the purpose, by votes representing at least three-fourths of the members or of each class of members represented at the meeting, approve the sale or arrangement and if the sale or arrangement is approved by an order made by the court on the application of the corporation.

(3) No resolution shall be deemed invalid for the purposes of this section because it was passed before or concurrently with a resolution for winding up the corporation or for appointing the liquidator. 1953, c. 19, s. 254.

256. A corporation may be wound up by order of the court,

(a) where the shareholders or members by a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting called for that purpose pass a resolution authorizing an application to be made to the court to wind up the corporation;

(b) where proceedings have been begun to wind up voluntarily and it appears to the court that it is in the interest of contributories and creditors that the proceedings should be continued under the supervision of the court;

(c) where it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the corporation, though it may be solvent, cannot by reason of its liabilities continue its business and that it is advisable to wind it up; or

(d) where in the opinion of the court it is just and equitable for some reason, other than the bankruptcy or insolvency of the corporation, that it should be wound up. 1953, c. 19, s. 255.

257.—(1) The winding-up order may be made upon the application of the corporation or of a shareholder or of a member or, where the corporation is being wound up voluntarily, of the liquidator or of a contributory or of a creditor having a claim of $200 or more.

(2) Except where the application is made by the corporation, four days notice of the application shall be given to the corporation before the making of the application. 1953, c. 19, s. 256.

258. The court may make the order applied for, may dismiss the application with or without costs, may adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally or may make any interim or other order as is deemed just, and upon the making of the order may, according to its practice and procedure, refer the proceedings for the winding up and may also delegate any powers of the court conferred by this Act to any officer of the court. 1953, c. 19, s. 257.

259.—(1) The court in making the winding-up order may appoint one or more persons as liquidator of the estate and effects of the corporation for the purpose of winding up its affairs and distributing its property.

(2) The court may at any time fix the remuneration of the liquidator.

(3) If a liquidator appointed by the court dies or resigns or the office becomes vacant for any reason, the court may by order fill the vacancy.

(4) The court may by order remove for cause a liquidator appointed by it, and in such case shall appoint another liquidator in his stead. 1953, c. 19, s. 258.
260. The costs, charges and expenses of a winding up by the order of the court shall be taxed by a taxing officer of the Supreme Court at Toronto. 1953, c. 19, s. 259.

261. Where a winding-up order is made by the court without prior voluntary winding-up proceedings, the winding up shall be deemed to commence at the time of service of notice of the application, and, where the application is made by the corporation, at the time the application is made. 1953, c. 19, s. 260.

262. Where a winding-up order has been made by the court, proceedings for the winding up of the corporation shall be taken in the same manner and with the like consequences as provided for a voluntary winding up, except that the list of contributories shall be settled by the court unless it has been settled by the liquidator prior to the winding-up order, in which case the list is subject to review by the court, and except that all proceedings in the winding up are subject to the order and direction of the court. 1953, c. 19, s. 261.

263.—(1) Where a winding-up order has been made by the court, the court may direct meetings of the shareholders or members of the corporation to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the court deems fit for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and may appoint a person to act as chairman of any such meeting and to report the result of it to the court.

(2) Where a winding-up order has been made by the court, the court may require any contributory for the time being settled on the list of contributories, or any trustee, receiver, banker or agent or officer of the corporation to pay, deliver, convey, surrender or transfer forthwith, or within such time as the court directs, to the liquidator any sum or balance, books, papers, estate or effects that are in his hands and to which the corporation is prima facie entitled.

(3) Where a winding-up order has been made by the court, the court may make an order for the inspection of the books and papers of the corporation by its creditors and contributories, and any books and papers in the possession of the corporation may be inspected in conformity with such order. 1953, c. 19, s. 262.
264. After the commencement of a winding up by order of the court,

(a) no action or other proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the corporation; and

(b) no attachment, sequestration, distress or execution shall be put in force against the estate or effects of the corporation, except by leave of the court and subject to such terms as the court imposes. 1953, c. 19, s. 263.

265. Sections 266 to 278 and 281 apply to corporations being wound up voluntarily or by order of the court. 1953, c. 19, s. 264.

266.—(1) If from any cause there is no liquidator, the court may by order on the application of a shareholder or member of the corporation appoint one or more persons as liquidator.

(2) Where there is no liquidator, the estate and effects of the corporation shall be under the control of the court until the appointment of a liquidator. 1953, c. 19, s. 265.

266.—(1) Upon a winding up,

(a) the liquidator shall apply the property of the corporation in satisfaction of all its liabilities pari passu and, subject thereto, shall distribute the property rateably among the shareholders or members according to their rights and interests in the corporation;

(b) in distributing the property of the corporation, the wages of all clerks, labourers, servants, apprentices and other wage earners in the employment of the corporation due at the date of the commencement of the winding up or within one month before, not exceeding three months wages and for vacation pay accrued for not more than twelve months under The Hours of Work and Vacations with Pay Act and the regulations thereunder or under a collective agreement made by the corporation, shall be paid in priority to the claims of the ordinary creditors, and such persons are entitled to rank as ordinary creditors for the residue of their claims;

(c) all the powers of the directors cease upon the appointment of a liquidator, except in so far as the liquidator may sanction the continuance of such powers.
Sec. 269 (2) CORPORATIONS Chap. 71 815

(2) Section 52 of The Trustee Act applies mutatis mutandis to liquidators. 1953, c. 19, s. 266.

268. The costs, charges and expenses of a winding up, including the remuneration of the liquidator, are payable out of the property of the corporation in priority to all other claims. 1953, c. 19, s. 267.

(3) Such deposit shall not be made in the name of the liquidator individually, but a separate deposit account shall be kept of the money belonging to the corporation in his name as liquidator of the corporation and in the name of the inspectors, if any, and such money shall be withdrawn only on the joint cheque of the liquidator and one of the inspectors, if any.

Liquidators to produce bank pass-book

(4) At every meeting of the shareholders or members of the corporation the liquidator shall produce a pass-book or statement of account showing the amount of the deposits, the dates at which they were made, the amounts withdrawn and the dates of withdrawal, and mention of such production shall be made in the minutes of the meeting, and the absence of such mention is admissible in evidence as "prima facie" proof that the pass-book or statement of account was not produced at the meeting.
(5) The liquidator shall also produce the pass-book or statement of account whenever so ordered by the court upon the application of the inspectors, if any, or of a shareholder or member of the corporation. 1953, c. 19, s. 271.

273. For the purpose of proving claims, sections 25, 26 and 27 of The Assignments and Preferences Act apply mutatis mutandis, except that, where the word "judge" is used therein, the word "court" as used in this Act shall be substituted. 1953, c. 19, s. 272.

274. Upon the application of the liquidator or of the inspectors, if any, or of any creditors, the court, after hearing such parties as it directs to be notified or after such steps as it prescribes have been taken, may by order give its direction in any matter arising in the winding up. 1953, c. 19, s. 273.

275.—(1) The court may at any time after the commencement of the winding up summon to appear before the court or liquidator any director or officer of the corporation or any other person known or suspected to have in his possession any of the estate or effects of the corporation, or alleged to be indebted to it, or any person whom the court deems capable of giving information concerning its trade, dealings, estate or effects.

276.—(1) If a shareholder or member of the corporation desires to cause any proceeding to be taken that, in his opinion, would be for the benefit of the corporation, and the liquidator, under the authority of the shareholders or members, or of the inspectors, if any, refuses or neglects to take such proceeding after being required so to do, the shareholder or member may obtain an order of the court authorizing him to take such proceeding in the name of the liquidator or corporation, but at his own expense and risk, upon such terms and conditions as to indemnity to the liquidator or corporation as the court prescribes.

(2) Thereupon any benefit derived from such proceeding belongs exclusively to the shareholder or member instituting the proceeding for his benefit and that of any other shareholder or member who has joined him in causing the institution of the proceeding.

(3) If before such order is granted the liquidator signifies to the court his readiness to institute such proceeding for the benefit of the corporation, an order shall be made prescribing the time within which he is to do so, and in that case the advantage derived from the proceeding, if instituted within such time, belongs to the corporation. 1953, c. 19, s. 275.

277. The rights conferred by this Act are in addition to any other right of instituting proceedings against any contributory, or against any debtor of the corporation, for the recovery of any call or other sum due from such contributory or debtor or his estate. 1953, c. 19, s. 276.

278. 279.—(1) Where the affairs of the corporation have been fully wound up voluntarily, the liquidator shall make up an account showing the manner in which the winding up has been conducted, and the property of the corporation disposed of, and thereupon shall call a general meeting of the shareholders or members of the corporation for the purpose of having the account laid before them and hearing any explanation that may be given by the liquidator, and the meeting shall be called in the manner provided by the by-laws for calling general meetings.

(5) The person on whose application the order was made shall within ten days after it was made file with the Provincial Secretary a copy of it certified under the seal of the court.

(2) A delivery or conveyance under subsection 1 shall be deemed to be a rateable distribution among the shareholders or members for the purposes of clause a of subsection 1 of section 267.

Provision for discharge of liquidator and distribution by the court

283.—(1) Where a corporation is being wound up under an order of the court and the realization and distribution of its property has proceeded so far that in the opinion of the court it is expedient that the liquidator should be discharged and that the property of the corporation remaining in his hands can be better realized and distributed by the court, the court may make an order discharging the liquidator and for payment, delivery and transfer into court, or to such officer or person as the court directs, of such property, and it shall be realized and distributed by or under the direction of the court among the persons entitled thereto in the same way as nearly as may be as if the distribution were being made by the liquidator.

(2) In such case, the court may make an order directing how the books, accounts and documents of the corporation and of the liquidator are to be disposed of, and may order that they be deposited in court or otherwise dealt with as it thinks fit. 1953, c. 19, s. 282.

(2) A shareholder or member who has become aware that the corporation is so exercising its corporate powers may serve a protest in writing on the corporation and may by registered letter notify the Provincial Secretary of such protest having been served and of the facts upon which it is based, and such shareholder or member may thereby and not otherwise, from the date of his protest and notification, exonerate himself from liability.

325.—(1) If a corporation heretofore or hereafter incorporated by letters patent did not go or does not go into actual \textit{bona fide} operation within two years after incorporation or for any two consecutive years did not or does not use its corporate powers, the Lieutenant Governor, after having given the corporation such notice as he deems proper, may by order declare such powers forfeited, except so far as is necessary for the winding up of the corporation.

(2) No such forfeiture affects prejudicially the rights of creditors as they exist at the date of the forfeiture.

(3) Where the powers of a corporation have been forfeited under subsection 1 or a predecessor of subsection 1, the Lieutenant Governor on the application of the corporation may by order, on such terms and conditions as he sees fit to impose, revive the corporate powers. 1953, c. 19, s. 324.

(a) cancel the letters patent of the corporation and declare it to be dissolved on such date as the order fixes; or

(2) Where there are numerous shareholders or members, such court may permit an action to be brought against one or more shareholders or members as representatives of the class and, if the plaintiff establishes his claim as creditor, may make an order of reference and add as parties in the Master's office all such shareholders or members as are found and the Master shall determine the amount that each should contribute towards the plaintiff's claim and may direct payment of the sums so determined. 1953, c. 19, s. 328.
