(a) the tenant has left the rental unit and informed the landlord that he does not intend to return; or
(b) the tenant does not ordinarily live in the rental unit, has not expressed an intention to resume living in the rental unit, and the rent he has paid, including any rent deposit if it was applied, is no longer sufficient to meet the tenant's obligation to pay rent.

2.—(1) This Act applies to rental units in residential complexes and to tenancy agreements, despite any other Act and despite any agreement or waiver to the contrary.

(2) Where a provision of this Act conflicts with a provision of any other Act, other than The Condominium Act, 1978, 1978, c. 84 the provision of this Act applies.

PART I

TENANCY AGREEMENTS

5.—(1) A tenancy agreement may be made orally or in writing or may be implied.

(2) An oral or implied tenancy agreement for a term or period greater than one year shall be deemed to be a tenancy agreement for one year only.

(3) A written tenancy agreement shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto and shall be signed by the parties or their agents.

(4) A tenancy agreement shall be deemed to be in writing where it has been signed by one party or his agent, given to the other party or his agent, and thereafter the tenant is permitted by the landlord to take occupancy of the rental unit.

(5) Every tenancy agreement not in the form set out in the Schedule shall be deemed to include the provisions of the form set out in the Schedule and any provision of the tenancy agreement that is inconsistent with the provisions of the form set out in the Schedule or this Act is void.

(6) The Short Forms of Leases Act does not apply to tenancy agreements made under this Act.

(7) The term or period of a tenancy shall be measured from the date the tenant is entitled to occupy the rental unit under the tenancy agreement.

(8) All tenancy agreements are capable of taking effect at law or in equity from the date fixed for the commencement of the term or period regardless of whether the tenant has occupied the rental unit.

(9) Where, on the application of a tenant, the Commission determines that the tenant was not permitted to occupy the rental unit in accordance with the tenancy agreement, the Commission may make an order requiring the landlord to compensate the tenant for loss suffered as a result of not being permitted to occupy the unit, but nothing in this subsection prevents the tenant from applying to a county or district court or to the Supreme Court for specific performance of the tenancy agreement.

6.—(1) In addition to the benefits and obligations contained in the form of tenancy agreement set out in the Schedule, a landlord and tenant may provide in a written tenancy agreement for other benefits and obligations which do not conflict with this Act, but where an obligation concerns the tenant’s use, occupancy or maintenance of the rental unit or residential complex or use of services and facilities provided by the landlord, the obligation cannot be enforced unless it is reasonable in all the circumstances.

(2) A landlord shall not establish or modify, nor can he enforce, rules concerning the tenant’s use, occupancy or maintenance of the rental unit or residential complex or use of services and facilities provided by the landlord unless they are in writing, made known to the tenant and reasonable in all the circumstances.

(3) Unless shown to be otherwise, for the purposes of this section, a rule or obligation is reasonable where it is,

(a) intended to,

(i) promote fair distribution of services and facilities to the occupants of the residential complex,
(ii) promote the safety or welfare of persons working or residing in the residential complex, or

(iii) protect the landlord’s property from abuse;

(b) reasonably related to the purpose for which it is intended;

(c) applicable to all tenants in a fair manner; and

(d) sufficiently clear in its prohibition, direction or limitation of the tenant’s conduct to inform him of what he must do or must not do in order to comply with it.

(4) A landlord or a tenant may apply to the Commission to determine whether a rule or obligation is reasonable in all the circumstances.

(5) Where the Commission determines that the tenant has breached the obligation imposed by subsection 1 of section 40 (compliance with additional obligations), no order shall be made under clause a or b of subsection 4 of section 40 unless the Commission is of the opinion that the breach has resulted in damage beyond ordinary wear and tear to the rental unit or residential complex or unreasonable interference with,

(a) the safety; or

(b) the enjoyment for all usual purposes by the landlord or any tenant or members of their households, of the residential complex or any rental unit.

7.—(1) A tenancy agreement shall not contain any provision to the effect that a breach of the tenant’s obligations under the tenancy agreement or this Act results in the whole or any part of the remaining rent becoming due and payable, or results in a specific sum becoming due and payable, and any provision of this kind is void.

(2) Where, on the application of a tenant, the Commission determines that any moneys that the tenant has paid to the landlord have been paid under a provision in the tenancy agreement that is void under subsection 1, the Commission shall make an order requiring the landlord to repay to the tenant the moneys so paid.
8.—(1) Where a prospective tenant, at the request of a landlord, signs a document, the tenant is entitled to retain a copy of the document that he has signed.

(2) Where a tenancy agreement is in writing, the landlord shall ensure that a copy of the agreement, signed by the landlord and the tenant, is given to the tenant within twenty-one days after it has been signed by the tenant and given to the landlord.

(3) Where the copy of the tenancy agreement is not given to the tenant in accordance with subsection 2 then, until the copy is given to the tenant,

(a) the landlord’s right to enforce the tenant’s obligation to pay rent is postponed; and

(b) any obligations of the tenant in addition to those contained in the form of tenancy agreement set out in the Schedule do not apply.

9.—(1) A landlord shall not require or receive a security deposit from a tenant other than,

(a) in the case of a weekly tenancy, the rent for a period not exceeding one week; or

(b) in the case of a tenancy other than a weekly tenancy, the rent for a period not exceeding one month, which shall be applied only in payment of the rent for the period immediately preceding the termination of the tenancy.

(2) Subject to subsection 3, a rent deposit may be required only at the commencement of the tenancy.

(3) Where there has been a lawful rent increase, a landlord may require the tenant to pay, as an addition to the rent deposit, the amount necessary to increase the deposit to a sum not exceeding the new rent for the period to which the deposit is applicable.

(4) A landlord shall pay annually to the tenant interest on the rent deposit at the rate of 9 per cent per year.

(5) Where, on the application of a landlord or a tenant, the Commission determines that any sum of money is payable under this section or that a sum of money has been paid in excess of that permitted, the Commission may make an order requiring the payment of money in accordance with its determination.

10.—(1) A landlord shall not require or receive from a prospective tenant any payment, except rent, in respect of the granting of a tenancy, but nothing in this section prevents a landlord from charging a tenant or prospective tenant for improvements to the rental unit requested by the tenant or prospective tenant where the improvements would not ordinarily be the responsibility of the landlord and any charge for the requested improvements shall be deemed not to be a rent increase under this Act.

(2) Where, on the application of a tenant or prospective tenant, the Commission determines that the tenant or prospective tenant has made any payment prohibited by subsection 1, the Commission may make an order requiring the landlord to return the payment to the tenant or prospective tenant.

11.—(1) A landlord or a tenancy agreement shall not require the delivery of any post-dated cheque or other negotiable instrument to be used for payment of rent.

(2) A landlord shall not require or accept the payment of rent by means of a credit card.

12. Express permission to breach, or the failure to enforce, an obligation under a tenancy agreement or this Act does not prevent the enforcement of the obligation where another breach occurs.

13. To the extent that they are consistent with this Act, sections 38 and 39 of The Commercial Tenancies Act (which concern the effects of a tenant's bankruptcy) apply to rental units and tenancy agreements under this Act.

PART II

CHANGE OF LANDLORD OR TENANT

GENERAL

14. Where there has been a change of landlord, all benefits and obligations arising under this Act, and any additional benefits and obligations arising under a written tenancy agreement, bind the new landlord.

15. Where there has been an assignment of a tenancy agreement by a tenant, all benefits and obligations arising under this Act, and any additional benefits and obligations arising under a written tenancy agreement, bind the new tenant.

ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLetting

16.—(1) A tenant may, subject to subsection 2, transfer his right to occupy the rental unit to another person, but the transfer may only be one of the following types:

1. Where the tenant does not intend to return to the rental unit, he may give up all his interest in the rental unit to the other person, in which case the transfer shall be called an assignment.

2. Where the tenant intends to return to the rental unit, he may give the right to occupy the rental unit to the other person for a term ending on a specified date before the end of the tenant's term or period and provide that the tenant will resume occupancy on that date, in which case the transfer shall be called a subletting.

(2) An assignment or subletting is not valid unless,

(a) the landlord has given his written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; or

(b) the Commission has made an order permitting the assignment or subletting to be made without the landlord's written consent.

(3) A landlord shall not make any charge for giving the consent referred to in clause a of subsection 2 except a sum to compensate the landlord for his reasonable expenses arising from the assignment or subletting, not exceeding $50.

(4) Consent to assign or consent to sublet shall be in the prescribed form and shall be signed by the landlord or his agent.

(5) An assignment shall be in the prescribed form and shall be signed by the tenant and the new tenant or their agents and, where there is a written tenancy agreement, a copy shall be attached.

(6) A subletting agreement shall be in the prescribed form and shall be signed by the tenant and the sub-tenant or their agents and, where there is a written tenancy agreement, a copy shall be attached.

(7) An assignment or subletting takes effect on the date the new tenant or sub-tenant is entitled to occupancy.

(8) Subsection 1 does not apply to a tenant of subsidized public housing.

(9) Where, on the application of a landlord or a tenant, the Commission determines any question arising under this section, the Commission may make an order,

(a) where the landlord has unreasonably withheld his consent, permitting the assignment or subletting to be made without the landlord's written consent; or

(b) directing the payment of any moneys that are payable by one to the other.

17.—(1) Where, on the application of a landlord brought within sixty days of his learning of a transfer of occupancy, the Commission determines that there has been a transfer of occupancy that does not comply with, or is not permitted by, section 16, the Commission may make an order evicting the occupant on the earliest reasonable date.

(2) Where the landlord has not applied under subsection 1, the transfer of occupancy shall be deemed to have been a valid assignment from the time the new tenant first occupied the rental unit.

(3) Where a transfer of occupancy has been deemed to be an assignment, the new tenant shall be entitled to demand a copy of the written tenancy agreement, if any, that is applicable to the rental unit.

(4) Where a copy of the applicable written tenancy agreement is not given to the new tenant within twenty-one days of the new tenant's demand for it, then, until the copy is given to the new tenant or until the landlord has offered to enter into a new tenancy agreement with him,

(a) the landlord's right to enforce the new tenant's obligation to pay rent is postponed; and

(b) any obligations of the new tenant in addition to those contained in the form of tenancy agreement set out in the Schedule do not apply.
18. Where there has been an assignment under this Act, the new tenant is liable to the landlord for any breach of the tenant’s obligations under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach relates to the period after the assignment, whether or not the breach began before the assignment;

(b) the former tenant is liable to the landlord for any breach of the tenant’s obligations under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach relates to the period before the assignment;

(c) the new tenant is entitled to enforce against the landlord any obligation of the landlord under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach of obligation relates to the period after the assignment, whether or not the breach began before the assignment;

(d) the former tenant is entitled to enforce against the landlord any obligation of the landlord under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach of obligation relates to the period before the assignment; and

(e) where the former tenant has started a proceeding under this Act before the assignment, and the benefits or obligations of the new tenant may be affected, the new tenant is entitled to join in or continue the proceeding.

19. Where there has been a subletting under section 16, the tenant remains entitled to the benefits, and is liable to the landlord for the breaches of the tenant’s obligations, under the tenancy agreement or this Act during the term of the subletting;

(b) the sub-tenant is entitled to the benefits, and is liable to the tenant for the breaches of the sub-tenant’s obligations, under the subletting agreement or this Act during the term of the subletting.

20.—(1) A sub-tenant has no right to occupy the rental unit after the end of the term of the subletting.

(2) Where, on the application of a tenant or a landlord, the Commission determines that a sub-tenant has continued to occupy the rental unit after the end of the term of the sub-tenant, the sub-tenant must vacate.
subletting, the Commission may make an order evicting the sub-tenant on the earliest reasonable date.

(3) Where a tenant or a landlord has not applied under subsection 2 within sixty days after the end of the term of the subletting and the sub-tenant has continued to occupy the rental unit, a valid assignment to the sub-tenant shall be deemed to have taken place on the date the sub-tenant first occupied the unit under the subletting agreement.

CHANGE OF LANDLORD

21.—(1) No sale, mortgage or other dealing with the landlord’s interest in the residential complex depends for its validity on the acceptance of the transaction by the tenants of the residential complex.

(2) A tenant may continue, without prejudice, to pay rent to his landlord until he has received written notice that another person has acquired the landlord’s right to possession of the residential complex and is attempting to enforce any of the rights of the landlord under the tenancy agreement or this Act, including the right to collect rent.

(3) Where a tenant is uncertain about who is entitled to be paid the rent, he may request the Commission to enquire into the matter and where the Commission is unable to ascertain the person entitled to the rent, the Commission may direct the tenant to pay his rent to the Commission until the person entitled to the rent is determined, at which time the rent shall be paid to that person.

22. Where there has been a change of landlord,

(a) the new landlord is liable to a tenant for any breach of the landlord’s obligations under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach relates to the period after the change of landlord, whether or not the breach began before the change of landlord;

(b) the former landlord is liable to a tenant for any breach of the landlord’s obligations under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach relates to the period before the change of landlord;

(c) the new landlord is entitled to enforce against a tenant any obligation of the tenant under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach of obligation relates to the period after the change of landlord, whether or not the breach began before the change of landlord;

(d) the former landlord is entitled to enforce against a tenant any obligation of the tenant under the tenancy agreement or this Act, where the breach of obligation relates to the period before the change of landlord; and

(e) where the former landlord has started a proceeding under this Act before the change of landlord, and the benefits or obligations of the new landlord may be affected, the new landlord is entitled to join in or continue the proceeding.

PART III

BENEFITS AND OBLIGATIONS

SECURITY OF TENURE

23.—(1) A tenancy may not be terminated except in accordance with this Act.

(2) A landlord shall not regain possession of a rental unit unless,

(a) a writ of possession has authorized the regaining of possession; or

(b) the tenant has vacated or abandoned the rental unit.

24.—(1) Where a tenancy agreement specifies a date for the tenancy agreement to end, the landlord and tenant shall be deemed to have renewed the tenancy agreement on that date as a monthly tenancy with the same benefits and obligations as existed under the former tenancy agreement, subject to a rent increase that complies with section 60 (notice of rent increase).

(2) Subsection 1 applies where,

(a) the landlord and tenant have not entered into a new tenancy agreement; and

(b) the tenancy has not been terminated in accordance with this Act.
25.—(1) A landlord or tenant shall not change the locks on any entrance to the rental unit without the agreement of the other party made at the time of the change.

(2) A landlord or tenant shall not change the locks on any entrance to the residential complex so as to unreasonably interfere with the other's access to the complex.

(3) Where, on the application of a landlord or a tenant, the Commission determines that an obligation imposed by this section has been breached, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the person who breached the obligation to give access to the residential complex or rental unit;

(b) requiring the person who breached the obligation to not breach the obligation again;

(c) requiring the person who breached the obligation to compensate the party affected for loss suffered as a result of the breach.

26.—(1) A landlord shall not enter a rental unit unless he is given the right to do so by this section.

(2) A landlord has the right to enter a rental unit, and the tenant shall permit the landlord to enter,

(a) to perform the landlord's obligations under the tenancy agreement and this Act;

(b) to inspect the rental unit where the tenant has requested his consent to an assignment or subletting;

(c) to show the rental unit to prospective tenants after the tenant has given notice to terminate the tenancy, the landlord and tenant have agreed to terminate or the Commission has made an order terminating the tenancy;

(d) to inspect the rental unit and to permit a mortgagee or prospective mortgagee or an insurer or prospective insurer to inspect the unit where a mortgage or insurance coverage is being arranged or is required to be renewed on the residential complex;
(e) to inspect the rental unit on the day the tenant is required to vacate the unit to determine if the tenant has fulfilled his obligations under the tenancy agreement and this Act.

(3) A landlord who intends to exercise the right to enter given by subsection 2 shall first give written notice to the tenant at least forty-eight hours before the first time of entry under the notice, specifying the purpose of the entry and the days and the hours during which the landlord intends to enter the rental unit, and those hours must be between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

(4) Unless the tenant objects to the days and hours set out in the landlord’s notice and specifies alternative days and hours that are reasonable in the circumstances, the landlord may enter in accordance with the notice given under subsection 3.

(5) A landlord has the right to enter the rental unit without giving the notice required by subsection 3 where,

(a) an emergency exists, in which case the tenant shall permit the landlord to enter;

(b) the tenant consents at the time of entry; or

(c) the landlord has good reason to believe that the tenant has vacated or abandoned the rental unit.

(6) A landlord has the right to enter a rental unit, and the tenant shall permit the landlord to enter, to show the rental unit to prospective purchasers of the residential complex,

(a) at times agreed to between the landlord and the tenant; or

(b) where there is no agreement, on the days and at the hours specified by the Commission on the application of either the landlord or the tenant.

(7) Where, on the application of a landlord or a tenant, the Commission determines that an obligation imposed by this section has been breached, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the person who breached the obligation to not breach the obligation again;
(b) requiring the person who breached the obligation to compensate the affected party for loss suffered as a result of the breach.

27.-(1) Where a landlord or a tenant becomes liable to pay compensation as a result of a breach of the tenancy agreement or this Act, the person entitled to claim the compensation has a duty to take reasonable steps to minimize his losses.

(2) Where a tenant abandons a rental unit, the landlord shall endeavour, in minimizing his losses as required by subsection 1, to re-rent the rental unit as soon as is practicable and at a reasonable rent.

LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS

28.-(1) A landlord is responsible for providing and maintaining,

(a) the rental unit;

(b) the residential complex; and

(c) all services and facilities promised by the landlord whether or not included in a written tenancy agreement, in a good state of repair and fit for habitation during the tenancy and for complying with health, safety and maintenance and occupancy standards required by law.

(2) Any substantial reduction in the provision of services and facilities shall be deemed to be a breach of subsection 1.

(3) Subsection 1 applies regardless of whether any state of non-repair existed to the knowledge of the tenant before the tenancy agreement was entered into.

(4) Where, on the application of a tenant, the Commission determines that the landlord has breached the obligation imposed by this section, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the landlord to comply with his obligation;

(b) requiring the landlord to not breach his obligation again;

(c) authorizing any repair or other action by the tenant that has been taken or is to be taken to remedy the effects of the landlord's breach and requiring the landlord to pay any reasonable expenses associated with the repair or action;

(d) requiring the landlord to compensate the tenant for loss that has been or will be suffered as a result of the breach, including any loss that was suffered as a result of an unreasonable delay by the landlord in remediying the effects of the breach;

(e) terminating the tenancy on a date specified by the Commission where the breach of obligation is so substantial that the continuation of the tenancy would be unfair to the tenant.

(5) A tenant shall give prompt notice to the landlord of any substantial breach of the obligation imposed by subsection 1 that comes to the tenant's attention.

(6) Where the landlord does not remedy the breach within ten days, the tenant may pay to the Commission by cash, certified cheque or money order all or part of the rent lawfully required on the subsequent dates specified by the tenancy agreement and the payment of rent to the Commission shall be accompanied by an application to the Commission under this section.

(7) Where the Commission is of the opinion that the tenant had no reasonable grounds to believe that there was a substantial breach of the obligation imposed by subsection 1, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the tenant to compensate the landlord for any additional reasonable expenses incurred by the landlord in collecting rent from the Commission;

(b) where the tenant persistently diverts rent without reasonable grounds, terminating the tenancy and evicting the tenant on a date specified by the Commission.

(8) Where, based on the obligation imposed by subsection 1, a person claims compensation for personal injury, no compensation shall be awarded unless it is shown that the landlord wilfully or negligently breached the obligation.

29.—(1) A landlord shall not, until the date the tenant vacates or abandons the rental unit, withhold or cause to be withheld the reasonable supply of any vital service, such as heat or fuel or electricity, gas, hot and cold water or other public utility, that it is his obligation to supply under the tenancy agreement, or deliberately interfere with the supply of a vital service whether or not it is his obligation to supply that service during the tenant's occupancy of the rental unit.

(2) Where, on the application of a tenant, the Commission determines that the landlord has breached the obligation imposed by subsection 1, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the landlord to comply with his obligation;
(b) requiring the landlord to not breach his obligation again;
(c) requiring the landlord to compensate the tenant for loss suffered as a result of the breach;
(d) directing the tenant to pay to the Commission all or part of his rent that would otherwise be payable to the landlord;
(e) terminating the tenancy on a date specified by the Commission, where the breach of obligation is so substantial that the continuation of the tenancy would be unfair to the tenant.

(3) Where a corporation, including a municipal corporation, or a public utility commission, that supplies any public utility within the meaning of The Public Utilities Act has reason to believe that a building or mobile home park it supplies is a residential complex, the corporation or commission shall not stop the supply from entering the residential complex or any rental unit therein because of a failure to pay the rate or charge due to the corporation or commission unless the corporation or commission, not less than seven days before the day on which the supply is to be stopped, gives notice in writing to the Commission of its intention to do so.

(4) Where the Commission receives a notice under subsection 3, or where the Commission is otherwise notified that the supply of a public utility to a residential complex or any rental unit therein has been or is likely to be stopped, and if the Commission after enquiry into the circumstances is of the opinion that the landlord of the residential complex has breached or is likely to breach his obligation to furnish the supply of the public utility to the residential complex, the Commission, after first affording the landlord an opportunity to be heard, may make an order directing any or all of the tenants in the residential complex to pay to the Commission all or part of the rent that would otherwise be payable to the landlord.
30.—(1) A landlord shall not unreasonably interfere with,

(a) the safety; or

(b) the enjoyment for all usual purposes by a tenant or members of his household, of the rental unit or residential complex.

(2) Where, on the application of a tenant, the Commission determines that the landlord has breached the obligation imposed by this section, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the landlord to comply with his obligation;

(b) requiring the landlord to not breach his obligation again;

(c) requiring the landlord to compensate the tenant for loss suffered as a result of the breach;

(d) terminating the tenancy on a date specified by the Commission where the breach of obligation is so substantial that the continuation of the tenancy would be unfair to the tenant.

(a) giving the landlord not less than ten days notice of termination specifying an earlier date of termination of the tenancy; and

(b) paying to the landlord on the date the tenant gives notice of termination under clause a the proportionate amount of rent due up to the date the earlier termination is specified to be effective, and in determining the proportionate amount of rent due, the tenant is entitled to take into account the amount of any rent deposit he has paid.

(6) Where, on the application of a former tenant, the Commission determines that the landlord has deprived the tenant of the benefit of subsection 5, the Commission may make an order requiring the landlord to compensate the tenant for the loss of the benefit.

53.—(1) In addition to liability to a prosecution under section 123 for knowingly furnishing false information to the Commission, where, on the application of a former tenant, the Commission determines that the tenant vacated the rental unit as a result of an application to terminate under section 51 or 52 and that the landlord or, in the case of an application under clause b of subsection 1 of section 51, the purchaser, did not in good faith require the rental unit for the purpose specified in the application to terminate, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the landlord or the purchaser to pay the tenant’s reasonable moving expenses to his new accommodation;

(b) requiring the landlord or the purchaser to compensate the tenant for any additional reasonable expenses incurred by the tenant, including, for a period of up to twelve months, any increased rent that the tenant was obliged to pay as a result of the improper termination.

(b) a purchaser, in the case of an application to terminate under clause b of subsection 1 of section 51, did not in good faith require the rental unit for the purpose specified in the application to terminate unless the rental unit is occupied in accordance with the purpose specified in the application within ninety days of the date specified for termination in the application.

54. Where, on the application of a landlord, the Commission determines that,

(a) a tenant of subsidized public housing is not in need of the particular subsidized public housing he occupies; and

(b) the tenant is in need of subsidized public housing of some kind,

the Commission may make an order terminating the tenancy and evicting the tenant on a date specified by the Commission, but the Commission may refuse to make the order unless the tenant is permitted to occupy another rental unit that is subsidized public housing.

56. Where, on the application of a federal, provincial or municipal authority, the Commission determines that a rental unit must be vacated in order to comply with an order by a federal, provincial or municipal authority, the Commission may make an order terminating the tenancy and evicting the tenant on a date which is reasonable in all the circumstances.

57.-(1) Where a tenancy agreement has become impossible to perform because the rental unit or residential complex has been made uninhabitable by fire, flood or other occurrence, or where the tenancy agreement has been otherwise frustrated, the tenancy shall be deemed to have been terminated on the date performance became impossible or the tenancy agreement was otherwise frustrated.

(2) The Frustrated Contracts Act applies to a tenancy that has been terminated under subsection 1.

58.-(1) Where a tenant abandons or surrenders a rental unit, the tenancy agreement is terminated on the date the rental unit was abandoned or surrendered, but in the case of abandonment the tenant remains liable, subject to section 27 (landlord’s duty to minimize losses), to compensate the landlord for loss of future rent that would have been payable under the tenancy agreement.

PART V

(2) An increase in rent by the landlord where the landlord has not given the notice required by subsection 1 is void.

(3) Subsections 1 and 2 do not apply to a rent increase for a rental unit where the rent increase is intended to take effect when a new tenant first occupies the rental unit under a new tenancy agreement.

(4) Where a tenancy agreement for a rental unit that is not subject to rent review under Part XI provides that the tenant shall pay all, part of, or any increase in,

(a) the taxes attributable to the rental unit; or

(b) the utility charges or heating charges attributable to the rental unit, and the taxes, utility charges or heating charges are increased, the notice required by subsection 1 need not be given and the increase shall be deemed not an increase under this Act.

(5) Unless a tenancy agreement specifically provides otherwise, a promise by a tenant to pay taxes shall be deemed not to include an obligation to pay taxes assessed for local improvements.

61.—(1) Where a tenant who has been given a notice of an intended rent increase under section 60 fails to give the landlord proper notice of termination, he shall be deemed to have accepted,

(a) where the amount of the rent increase is not subject to rent review under Part XI,

(i) the amount of the rent increase specified in the notice of the landlord, or

(ii) such other rent increase as may be agreed upon in writing between the landlord and the tenant; or
(b) where the amount of the rent increase is subject to rent review under Part XI, the amount of rent increase that does not exceed the amount allowed under that Part.

(2) The deemed acceptance by a tenant of an increase in rent in the case mentioned in clause (b) of subsection 1 does not constitute a waiver of the tenant’s right to take whatever proceedings are available to him under this Act for the review of rent increases.

PART VI

TENANT’S PERSONAL PROPERTY

62.—(1) A tenant may, during the time he occupies the rental unit, remove any property belonging to him which is attached to the rental unit, provided that he repairs, or compensates the landlord for, any damage done to the rental unit that results from the installation or removal of the property.

(b) is worthless,

the landlord may dispose of the item.
(3) Where a landlord removes personal property other than property described in subsection 2, he shall, at the earliest reasonable opportunity, give the Commission an inventory in the prescribed form of the property and, where the address of the tenant is known to the landlord, he shall give the tenant a copy of the inventory.

(4) Where, after receiving the inventory, the Commission determines that an item of personal property in the inventory could not be sold for an amount greater than the reasonable cost of removing, storing and selling it, the Commission may permit the landlord to sell or dispose of the item in the manner and subject to the terms and conditions set by the Commission.

(5) Property that has not been disposed of or sold under subsection 2 or 4 shall, subject to the direction of the Commission, be stored in a safe place and manner for a period of not less than sixty days.

(6) Where the tenant or owner of an item of personal property stored by the landlord pays the landlord the cost of removing and storing the item, the landlord shall give the item to the tenant or owner and notify the Commission.

(7) Where no person has taken possession of an item of personal property stored under subsection 5 during the sixty days referred to in that subsection, the Commission may permit the landlord to sell or dispose of the item in the manner and subject to the terms and conditions set by the Commission.

(a) retain that part of the proceeds of the sale necessary to reimburse him for the reasonable costs of removing, storing and selling the property; and

(b) retain that part of the proceeds of the sale necessary to satisfy any order for compensation made in his favour by the Commission or a court, where the order was made regarding the tenancy agreement or this Act,

(10) Where the Commission does not receive a claim in respect of the balance within the one-year period referred to in subsection 8, the amount not claimed shall be forfeited to the Crown.

(11) A purchaser in good faith of an item of personal property of the tenant sold in accordance with subsection 4 or 7 shall be deemed to have acquired good title to the property, free and clear of any other interest.

(12) Where a landlord substantially complies with this section, he is not liable to the tenant or any other person for loss suffered by the tenant or other person as a result of the storage, sale or other disposition by the landlord of the abandoned personal property.

(13) Where, on the application of a person claiming to be the owner of an item of personal property, the Commission determines that the landlord has wrongfully sold, disposed of or otherwise dealt with the item of personal property, the Commission may make an order,

(a) requiring the landlord to compensate the owner for the wrongful sale, disposition or dealing; or

(b) requiring the landlord to give the property to the owner.

RENT REVIEW

124. The rent charged for a rental unit shall not be increased more often than once in any twelve-month period.

125. Unless otherwise authorized under this Act, no landlord shall increase the rent charged for a rental unit by more than 6 per cent of the last rent that was charged for an equivalent rental period.

126.—(1) Where a landlord desires to increase the rent charged for a rental unit by more than the percentage referred to in section 125, he may apply to the Commission for an order permitting him to do so, whether or not the rental unit is the subject of a tenancy agreement at the time of application.
(2) When the landlord applies to the Commission for an order under subsection 1, he shall, as part of the same application, apply for a determination of the rents that may be charged for all of the rental units in the residential complex in which the units are situate when such units are rented or re-rented during the twelve-month period following the effective date of the first rent increase applied for, whether or not those units are the subject of tenancy agreements at the time of application.

(3) An application under this section shall state the reasons for the intended increases and shall be made not less than sixty days before the effective date of the first intended rent increase that exceeds the percentage referred to in section 125.

(4) Where an application is made under this section, the landlord shall, not later than fourteen days before the date of the hearing of the application, file with the Commission all the material on which he intends to rely in support of his application, but the Commission may direct the landlord to file additional material and the hearing shall not commence or proceed until the other parties have had an opportunity to examine the additional material.

127.—(1) A tenant who desires to dispute any intended rent increase for his rental unit may apply to the Commission for an order requiring the landlord to reduce the amount of the rent increase.

(2) Subsection 1 does not apply to a rent increase that results in a rent not exceeding the maximum approved by the Commission for the applicable rental unit.

(3) An application under this section shall be made not less than sixty days before the effective date of the intended rent increase.

128. Where a rental unit that has not been rented during the previous twelve-month period then becomes rented, the rent then charged shall form the basis for determining whether subsequent rent increases exceed the percentage referred to in section 125, provided that the rent charged is comparable to the average rent charged for similar rental units in the residential complex.

129.—(1) No tenant is liable to pay any rent increase in excess of that permitted to be charged under this Part.

(2) Where, on the application of a tenant, the Commission determines that the tenant has paid an amount of rent that is in excess of that permitted by this Part or by The Residential Premises Rent Review Act, 1975 (2nd Session), the Commission shall order that the landlord pay the excess to the tenant and shall declare the rent that may lawfully be charged.

130. Where under section 126 a landlord applies to the Commission for a determination of the rents that may be charged for all rental units in a residential complex, the Commission is empowered to hear the application and to determine the rent that may be charged for each rental unit despite the fact the landlord may not have, in respect of any rental unit, given notice under section 60 (notice of rent increase), but nothing in this section relieves the landlord from compliance with section 60.

131.—(1) Where an application is made by a landlord under section 126, the Commission shall determine the total rent increase for the residential complex that is justified by,

(a) the findings of the Commission concerning operating costs, financing costs and capital expenditures that the landlord has experienced or will experience in respect of the residential complex;

(b) the findings of the Commission concerning a financial loss that the landlord has experienced or will experience in respect of the residential complex;

(c) the findings of the Commission concerning an improvement or deterioration in the standard of maintenance and repair of the residential complex or any rental unit located therein;

(d) the findings of the Commission concerning matters prescribed by the regulations.

(2) In reaching its findings concerning financing costs under clause (a) of subsection 1, the Commission shall consider increases in financing costs resulting from the landlord's purchase of the residential complex only to the extent necessary to prevent a financial loss by the landlord.

(3) When the total rent increase for the residential complex has been determined under subsection 1, if the resulting gross revenue does not exceed the costs found under clause (a) of subsection 1 by at least 2 per cent, the Commission may, where it considers it necessary to relieve the landlord from hardship, allow the landlord the additional revenue required to raise the gross revenue to not more than 2 per cent above the costs found.
(4) In apportioning the total rent increase determined under subsections 1 and 3 amongst the rental units in the residential complex, the Commission may take into account the following matters:

1. The rent schedule proposed by the landlord in his application.

2. Variations, and the reasons therefor, in the rents being charged by the landlord for similar rental units within the residential complex.

3. Rents and variations in the rents being charged by other landlords for similar rental units situate in similar residential complexes within the same geographical vicinity.

(5) Where the Commission has determined and apportioned the total rent increase under this section,

(a) the Commission shall make an order setting the maximum rent that may be charged for each rental unit that is under review and the date the rents may take effect; and

(b) the Commission may order the landlord or tenant to pay to the other any sum of money that is owed to the other by reason of the decision of the Commission in setting the maximum rent for a rental unit.

132.—(1) Where an application is made by a tenant where a tenant section, in determining a rent increase for the rental unit, the Commission shall, except where there has been an application under section 126 (whole building rent review), consider only the following matters:

1. Variations, and the reasons therefor, in the rents being charged by the landlord for similar rental units within the residential complex.

2. Rents being charged by other landlords for similar rental units situate in similar residential complexes within the same geographical vicinity.

3. An improvement or deterioration shown to have occurred in the standard of maintenance and repair that affects the rental unit.

(2) Where the Commission has made a determination on the application,
(a) the Commission shall make an order setting the maximum rent that may be charged for the rental unit under review; and

(b) the Commission may order the landlord or tenant to pay to the other any sum of money that is owed to the other by reason of the decision of the Commission setting the maximum rent for the rental unit.

133. Where a notice of an intended rent increase has been given under section 60, a rent increase up to the lesser of,

(a) the intended rent increase specified in the notice; and

(b) the limit imposed by section 125, may be charged and collected by the landlord until such time as the Commission's order setting the maximum rent that may be charged for the rental unit takes effect.

Exemptions

134.—(1) The following rental units are exempt from this Part:

(a) a rental unit situate in a residential complex owned, operated or administered by or on behalf of the Government of Canada or Ontario or a municipality, including a regional, district or metropolitan municipality, or any agency thereof;

(b) a rental unit situate in a non-profit housing project, rents for which are subject to the approval of the Government of Canada or Ontario or a municipality, including a regional, district or metropolitan municipality, or any agency thereof, or situate in a non-profit co-operative housing project as defined in the National Housing Act (Canada);

(c) a rental unit situate in a building, no part of which was occupied as a rental unit before the 1st day of January, 1976;

(d) a rental unit that is a mobile home or mobile home site that was not occupied as a rental unit before the 1st day of January, 1976;

(e) a rental unit the monthly rental for which is $750 or more, if the Lieutenant Governor in Council has,
by regulation made after the 31st day of December, 1979, exempted such premises from the provisions of this Part;

(f) a rental unit not otherwise exempt from this Act that is provided by an educational institution to a student or member of its staff except that, where there is a council or association representing the residents, the exemption does not apply in respect of a rent increase unless there has been consultation with the council or association respecting the increase;

(g) a rental unit situate in a residential complex owned, operated or administered by a religious institution for a charitable use on a non-profit basis.

(2) This Part does not apply to a rent increase to a tenant in subsidized public housing who is occupying a rental unit other than a unit referred to in clause (a) or (b) of subsection 1, but this Part does apply to the unit itself.

(3) Where a landlord, by reason of the existence of depressed economic conditions in a local municipality, designated by order of the Minister, reduces a tenant’s rent, and thereafter, not sooner than twelve months after the reduction took effect, desires to increase the rent, the landlord may increase the rent to,

(a) the maximum rent that could have been charged by the landlord for the rental unit at the date of the intended increase without applying to the Commission under section 126 had the rent not been decreased; or

(b) the current maximum rent previously established by the Commission on an application made under section 126.
