R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 173.

178. If the election court determines that an agent of the candidate was guilty of a corrupt practice that would otherwise render the election void, and further finds that,

(a) no corrupt practice was committed at such election by the candidate personally, and that the corrupt practice of the agent was committed contrary to the order and without the sanction or connivance of the candidate;

(b) the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practices at such election;

If the election court or one of the judges thereof finds that an act constituting in law a corrupt practice was committed by a candidate, or with his actual knowledge and consent, but without any corrupt intent, and in an ignorance which was involuntary and excusable, and that the evidence showed that the candidate honestly desired, and in good faith endeavoured as far as he could, to have the election conducted according to law, the candidate shall not be subject to the penalties and disabilities which he would otherwise incur under subsection 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 176.

Every person other than a candidate found guilty of a corrupt practice in a proceeding in which, after notice of the charge, he has had an opportunity of being heard, or who upon his own evidence given on the trial of a petition has been found to have been guilty of a corrupt practice and has been reported, therefor, unless such finding and report have been reversed or set aside on appeal under The Controverted Elections Act shall, during the eight years next after the date of his being found guilty, be subject to the penalties and disabilities mentioned in section 180.

R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 177.

Where the judges who constitute the election court disagree as to a corrupt practice having been committed by a candidate or his agent there may be an appeal as provided by The Controverted Elections Act, and if the Supreme Court determines that a corrupt practice was committed, then unless the court is of opinion that the case falls within section 178, the election shall be void, but the candidate shall not be disqualified. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 178.

If an election is set aside and a second election had, the second election shall be deemed to be a new election and shall not be avoided by reason of corrupt practices committed at the former election other than the personal acts of the candidate or of his agent done with his actual knowledge and consent, but the new election shall not be avoided for corrupt practices by the candidate at the former election or affecting the same which were not set up and proved at the trial and so adjudged by the election court as by law to involve the penalties and disabilities mentioned in section 180. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 179.

184. If on the trial of an election petition a candidate or votes to be struck off on his agent is proved to have committed a corrupt practice with respect to a voter, there shall be struck off from the number of votes given for such candidate one vote for each voter in respect to whom the corrupt practice is proved to have been committed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 180.

185. If on the trial of an election petition, a candidate is proved to have personally engaged any person, as a canvasser or agent, knowing that he has, within eight years previous to such engagement, been found guilty by a competent tribunal of or reported by an election court for a corrupt practice, the election of such candidate shall be void. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 181.

186. If, at any time after a person has become disqualified, the witnesses or any of them on whose testimony he has become disqualified are convicted of perjury in respect of such testimony, the Supreme Court, upon the motion of the person disqualified and upon being satisfied that such disqualification was procured by reason of perjury, may order that the disqualification shall thereafter cease and determine. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 182.

187. Every executory contract, promise or undertaking, in any way referring to, arising out of, or depending upon an election, even for the payment of lawful expenses, or the doing of a lawful act, shall be void. R.S.O. 1927, c. 8, s. 183.

188. No pecuniary penalty or forfeiture shall be recoverable for a corrupt practice if it appears that the person charged and another person or other persons were together guilty of the act charged, either as giver and receiver, or as accomplices or otherwise, and that the person charged has previously bona fide prosecuted such other person or persons or any of them for the corrupt practice; but this provision shall not apply if the court or judge, before whom the person claiming the benefit thereof is charged, certifies that it clearly appears that the person so charged took the first step towards the commission of the offence, and that he was in fact the principal offender. The voter is to vote only for one candidate.

The voter shall go into one of the compartments and, with a black lead pencil there provided, place a cross within the white space containing the name of the candidate for whom he votes, thus X.

The voter shall then fold the ballot paper so that the initials on the back and the number on the counterfoil can be seen without opening it; he shall then return the ballot paper so folded to the deputy returning officer, who shall, in full view of those present including the voter, remove the counterfoil, destroy the same, and place the ballot paper in the ballot box; the voter shall then forthwith leave the polling place.

If a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper so that he cannot conveniently use it as he desires, he may return it to the deputy returning officer, who will give him another.

If the voter votes for more than one candidate, or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted.

If the voter fraudulently takes a ballot paper out of the polling place, or fraudulently delivers to the deputy returning officer, to be placed in the ballot box, any other paper than the ballot paper given him by the deputy returning officer, he will be liable to imprisonment for one year.

In the following form of ballot paper, given for illustration, the candidates are Wm. R. Brown, Frank Hamon, Joseph O’Neil and John R. Smith, and the voter has marked his ballot paper in favour of John R. Smith, and the counterfoil has been detached.
