1974

138 The City of Belleville Act, 1974

Ontario
CHAPTER 138

An Act respecting the City of Belleville

Assented to April 26th, 1974

WHEREAS The Corporation of the City of Belleville hereby applies for special legislation in respect of the matters hereinafter set forth; and whereas it is expedient to grant the application;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. In this Act,

(a) "Corporation" means The Corporation of the City of Belleville;

(b) "council" means the council of the Corporation;

(c) "employee" means the city clerk of the Corporation, namely Adam S. Stalker.

2. Notwithstanding any general or special Act, the council may pass a by-law granting an annual retirement allowance, payable weekly, monthly or otherwise, to the employee during his life, if he has had continuous service for at least twenty years with the Corporation and if he,

(a) is retired because of age; or

(b) while in the service of the Corporation has become incapable through illness or otherwise of efficiently discharging his duties, provided that no retirement allowance together with the amount of any pension payments payable to the employee in any year under a pension plan of the Corporation will exceed three-fifths of his average annual salary for the preceding three years of his service.

3. Where the council grants an annual retirement allowance to the employee under section 2, the by-law may include provision for continuing the allowance to the surviving spouse, if any, during her life, in an amount not exceeding one-half of the annual allowance payable to the employee.

4. Subsection 2a of section 239 of The Municipal Act applies mutatis mutandis to the spouse of the employee as if the employee had been eligible for a retirement allowance under such section 239.

5. This Act comes into force on the day it receives Royal Assent.

6. This Act may be cited as The City of Belleville Act, 1974.