(3) For the purposes of subsection 2 and paragraph 21 of subsection 2 of section 15, a document evidencing indebtedness of the allottee does not constitute property and services shall be past services actually performed for the co-operative, and the value of property or services shall be the value the directors determine by express resolution to be in all the circumstances of the transaction the fair equivalent of the cash value.

40. No transfer of common shares in a co-operative with share capital, unless made by sale under execution or under the decree, order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or by transmission to the personal representative of a member, is valid for any purpose unless, whether absolutely or conditionally, for shares in the co-operative, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for such shares but no such commission or discount shall exceed 25 per cent of the amount of the subscription price.

(2) Except as provided in subsection 1, no co-operative shall apply any of its shares or capital, either directly or indirectly, in payment of any commission, discount or allowance to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for shares of the co-operative or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions whether absolute or conditional, for such shares, whether the shares or capital is so applied by being added to the purchase money of any property acquired by the co-operative or to the contract price of any work to be executed for the co-operative, or is paid out of the nominal purchase money or contract price or otherwise.

42. The shares of a co-operative are personal property and are transferable in such manner and subject to such conditions and restrictions as are prescribed by this Act and the articles of the co-operative.

43. Where the articles or by-laws so provide the co-operative has a lien to the extent of the debt on the shares registered in the name of a member who is indebted to the co-operative.

Share and Loan Certificates

44.—(1) Every member is entitled to a share or loan certificate in respect of the shares held or loans made by him, signed by the proper officers in such form as the by-laws of the co-operative provide, but in no case is the co-operative bound to issue more than one share or loan certificate in respect of a share or shares held or a loan made jointly by several persons, and delivery of a share or loan certificate to one of several joint holders or lenders is sufficient delivery to all.

(2) A co-operative may charge a fee of not more than $1 for every share certificate issued, except that in the case of the allotment and issue of shares, no fee shall be charged.

45. A share or loan certificate shall be signed manually by at least one officer of the co-operative or by or on behalf of a transfer agent of the co-operative, and the co-operative may by by-law provide that any additional signatures required on share or loan certificates may be printed, engraved, lithographed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon, and in such event share or loan certificates so signed are as valid as if they had been signed manually.

46.—(1) Every share or loan certificate shall state upon its face,

(a) the name of the co-operative and the words "A co-operative incorporated under the law of the Province of Ontario" or words of like effect;

(b) the name of the person to whom the share or loan certificate is issued as holder;

(3) Where the articles or by-laws provide that a co-operative has a lien on shares as authorized by section 43, the right of the co-operative to the lien shall be noted conspicuously on every share certificate issued by the co-operative.

(4) In this section, "noted conspicuously" means written in such a way that the person against whom words so noted or appearing are to operate ought reasonably to notice them.

47.—(1) A share certificate issued for a share of a class of preference shares shall,

(a) legibly state on the certificate or have attached thereto a legible statement of the preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, prohibitions or limitations attaching to that class of shares; or

(b) legibly state on the certificate that there are preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, prohibitions or limitations attaching to that class and that a copy of the full text thereof is obtainable on demand and without fee from the co-operative.
(2) Where a share certificate contains a statement as provided in clause b of subsection 1, the co-operative shall furnish to the holder of the shares on demand without fee a copy of the full text of the preferences, rights, conditions, restrictions, prohibitions and limitations attaching to the share.

48. Where, as a result of a change in authorized capital of a co-operative, a person becomes entitled to a fraction of a share, he is not entitled to be registered on the records of the co-operative in respect thereof or to receive a share certificate therefor, but he is entitled to receive a bearer fractional certificate in respect of such fraction, and on presentation at the head office of the co-operative or at a place designated by the co-operative of bearer fractional certificates for fractions that together represent a whole share, a share certificate for a whole share shall be issued in exchange therefor.

Loan Capital

49.—[1] The capital of co-operatives without share capital may be in the form of loans from members, called “member loans”, and such loans may be in such amounts, payable on demand or at such times and without interest or at interest not exceeding 8 per cent per annum, or if authorized by by-law of the co-operative, at such a lesser rate as the board of directors may by resolution determine.

(2) A co-operative may borrow money from its members not being loans made as a condition of membership or as compulsory loans of patronage returns, in such amounts payable on demand or at such times and either without interest or with interest at such rate as the by-laws provide or, if authorized by by-law, at such rate as the directors may by resolution determine.

Borrowing Powers

50.—[1] Where authorized by by-law, the directors may,

(a) borrow money on the credit of the co-operative; or

(b) issue, sell or pledge debt obligations of the co-operative; or

(c) charge, mortgage, hypothecate or pledge all or any currently owned or subsequently acquired real or personal movable or immovable property of the co-operative, including book debts, rights, powers, franchises and undertaking, to secure any debt obligations or any money borrowed or other debt or liability of the co-operative.

(2) Any by-law referred to in subsection 1 may.

(a) limit the amount to be borrowed as determined by the by-law; and

(b) provide for the delegation by the directors of the powers conferred on them under the by-law to such directors or officers of the co-operative and to such extent and manner as is set out in the by-law.

51. Nothing in this Act prohibits the issue of debt obligations in bearer form.

52. A condition contained in a debt obligation or in an instrument for securing a debt obligation is not invalid by reason only that the debt obligation is thereby made irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency, however remote, or on the expiration of a period, however long.

53.—(1) Where a co-operative makes a charge, mortgage or other instrument of hypothecation or pledge to secure its debt obligations, the co-operative shall forthwith after the making thereof file a duplicate original or certified copy of the instrument in the office of the Minister, but such filing may be made by any interested person.

(2) Where the filing is by an interested person under subsection 1, that person is entitled to recover from the co-operative the amount of any prescribed fee paid by him on such filing.

(3) Subsection 1 does not apply to an instrument filed or registered under any other Act.

DIVIDENDS AND SURPLUS

54. A co-operative may by by-law provide that, before any distribution of surplus arising from the business of the co-operative in each fiscal year is made, the co-operative may,

(a) set aside reserve funds;

(b) provide for the payment of dividends on the share capital at a rate not to exceed 8 per cent per annum of the amount paid up thereon.
Subject to subsection 4, the surplus arising from the business of a co-operative, other than a direct charge co-operative, in each fiscal year shall be allocated, credited or paid to the members in proportion to the business done by each member with or through the co-operative, computed at a rate in relation to the quantity, quality or value of the goods or products acquired, marketed, handled, dealt in or sold or services rendered by the member or by the co-operative from or on behalf of or to the member, or the co-operative whether as principal or as agent of the member or otherwise, with appropriate differences in the rate for different classes, grades or qualities thereof.

(2) The co-operative may by by-law provide that part of the surplus may be allocated, credited or paid to non-members at the same or at lesser rates than to members.

(3) The amount that is allocated, credited or paid to members or non-members in each fiscal year shall be known as the patronage return.

(4) The co-operative may by by-law provide that, where the value of the goods or products acquired, marketed, handled, dealt in or sold, or services rendered by the co-operative from or on behalf of or to any member or non-member in any year does not exceed $250, or such lesser amount as is specified in the by-law, no patronage return shall be allocated, credited or paid to such member or non-member.

(5) Where members of a co-operative are required by a marketing plan established under an Act of the Legislature, or of the Parliament of Canada, to sell or deliver products or goods or render services to or for a marketing board, then for the purposes of making a patronage return to the members of the co-operative, the members shall be deemed to have sold, delivered or rendered those goods, products or services to the co-operative.

A co-operative may by by-law provide that in each fiscal year the whole, or such part as the directors may by resolution determine, of the patronage return of each member shall be applied to the purchase for the member of a stated number of unissued shares of the co-operative or a stated number of issued shares of the co-operative, if obtainable.

(2) Where a co-operative has enacted a by-law under subsection 1 and the whole or part of the patronage return of a member is required to be invested in issued shares, the co-operative shall mail a written notice to each member stating the number of shares to be purchased by him.

(3) Unless within thirty days from the date of mailing of the notice referred to in subsection 2 the member required to purchase issued shares has presented for transfer to himself the number of shares that he is required to purchase, the co-operative may on behalf of such member,

(a) purchase the required number of shares from members who are willing to sell such shares;

(b) pay out of the patronage return of such member the purchase price;

(c) transfer such shares to the member; and

(d) issue and forward to such member a certificate representing such shares.

(4) A co-operative may enact by-laws requiring its members to lend to it the whole, or such part as the directors may determine, of the patronage returns to which they may become entitled in each fiscal year upon such terms and at such rate of interest as the directors, if authorized by by-law, may by resolution determine, but in no case at a rate of interest greater than 8 per cent per annum.

(5) No member shall be required under this section to purchase issued or unissued shares at a price in excess of the par value thereof or issued shares when no such shares are available for purchase.

(6) Where the co-operative is insolvent, no member shall be required under this section to lend his patronage return or to purchase shares of the co-operative.

(7) This section does not prevent a member from receiving so much of his patronage return as has not been appropriated to loans to the co-operative in accordance with a resolution of the board of directors or the by-laws.

57.—(1) A co-operative may, when authorized by by-law, deduct a percentage amount from the moneys received by the co-operative on the goods, products or services marketed, handled or dealt in by the co-operative for or on behalf of any member.

(2) An amount retained by a co-operative under subsection 1 shall be applied by the co-operative,
(a) as a loan on such terms and at such rate of interest not exceeding 8 per cent per annum as the by-law provides; or

(b) as an investment by the member in common shares of the co-operative, but no member shall be required to purchase such shares in the co-operative at a price in excess of the par value thereof.

Dividends

58. — (1) Subject to subsection 2 and the articles of the co-operative, the directors may declare and the co-operative may pay dividends on its issued shares.

(2) A dividend shall not exceed 8 per cent per annum of the par value of the share.

(3) A dividend may be paid in cash or in property not exceeding in value the amount of the dividend.

(4) The directors shall not declare and the co-operative shall not pay any dividend when the co-operative is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which renders the co-operative insolvent or that diminishes its capital.

59. For the amount of any dividend that the directors may declare payable in cash, they may declare a stock dividend and issue therefor shares of the co-operative as fully paid.

Members

Membership

60. — (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the articles of the co-operative, membership therein is governed by the by-laws of the co-operative.

(2) The articles of a co-operative may provide for more than one class of membership and in that case shall set forth the designation of and the terms and conditions attaching to each class.

61. — (1) Each incorporator of a co-operative who has subscribed for a common share in the co-operative or who has paid a membership fee, if any, shall upon the effective date of incorporation be entered upon the register of members.
(2) No person shall become a member of a co-operative until his application for membership has been approved by the directors and the applicant has complied fully with the by-laws governing admission of members.

(3) A subscription for common shares in a co-operative with share capital constitutes an application for membership and the allotment of a common share to the applicant constitutes admission to membership.

(4) An application for authorization of the transfer of common shares in a co-operative with share capital constitutes an application for membership and the passing of the resolution authorizing the transfer constitutes admission to membership.

62. No transfer of a membership in a co-operative without share capital is valid for any purpose whatever.

(a) unless a written application for membership by the transferee has been approved by a resolution of the directors of the co-operative or by a person authorized by such a resolution to approve such applications; and

(b) until notification of the approval under clause (a) has been sent to the transferee and his name has been entered on a register of members, except only as evidence of the rights of the parties thereto towards each other.

63. —(1) Subject to the by-laws of the co-operative, a person of the full age of sixteen years or more may become a member thereof.

(2) Any person under the full age of eighteen years admitted to membership in the co-operative is competent to enter into any contract with the co-operative, and with respect to contracts with the co-operative is sui juris.

64. —(1) Subject to section 67, a member may withdraw from a co-operative by giving to the secretary of the co-operative six months notice of his intention to withdraw.

(2) A deceased member shall be deemed to have given notice to the co-operative on the day of his death of his intention to withdraw.

(3) Subject to subsection 4, where notice of intention to withdraw has been given to a co-operative under subsection 1 — or is deemed to have been given under subsection 2, the co-operative shall, within six months of the receipt thereof,

(a) purchase for an amount equal to the par value together with all dividends declared but unpaid or for an amount that is less than par value and that is agreed to by the co-operative and the member or his personal representative, all shares in the co-operative held by the member; and

(b) pay to him or his personal representative all amounts held to his credit, excluding term loans, together with any interest accrued thereon and the amount outstanding on loans made to the co-operative by the member that are repayable on demand by the member together with any interest accrued thereon.

Electing by member

Dealing by co-operative with personal representatives

65.—(1) Where a person is shown on the records of a co-operative as holding a share as a personal representative, the receipt by such person is a valid and binding discharge to the co-operative for any payment or other distribution made in respect of the share whether notice of any trust has been given to the co-operative or not, and the co-operative is not bound to see to the application of such payment or other distribution.

(2) Where shares are purchased by a co-operative under subsection 1 of section 32 or subsection 3 of section 64 or section 66 or accepted under subsection 1 of section 33 and are not thereby cancelled, no person is entitled to receive notice of or to vote at meetings of members or to receive any payment in respect of the shares whether by way of dividend or otherwise until such shares are resold.

66.—(1) A member may be expelled from membership in a co-operative by resolution passed by a majority of the board of directors at a meeting duly called for the purpose not later than thirty days before the date set for the annual meeting of the co-operative.

(2) A resolution under subsection 1 is not valid unless,

(a) prior written notice is given to the member setting forth the grounds upon which it is sought to expel him;

(b) the notice is given the member ten days or more before the date of the meeting of the board of directors called to consider the resolution expelling that member; and

(4) Where a resolution expelling a member is passed under subsections 1 and 2, the member may appeal the decision of the board of directors at the next annual or general meeting of members and the members by majority vote may confirm, vary or set aside the resolution.

(5) A member who wishes to appeal his expulsion to a meeting of members shall give notice of his intention to appeal within twenty-one days of receipt of the notice of expulsion mentioned in subsection 3, and the directors shall, if written representations are received seven or more days before the mailing of the notice of the meeting, at the expense of the co-operative, forward with the notice of the meeting a copy of such representations to each member entitled to receive notice of the meeting.

(6) Where a member has been expelled, the co-operative shall purchase from the member, within one year after his expulsion became final, at par value all his shares in the capital of the co-operative together with all amounts held to his credit together with any interest accrued thereon and the amount outstanding on loans, made to the co-operative by the member that are repayable on demand by the member together with interest accrued thereon.

(7) If the whereabouts of a member is unknown to the co-operative after all reasonable efforts have been made to ascertain his address for the purpose of making payment to him under subsection 6, amounts payable thereunder to him shall be transferred to a reserve fund of the co-operative; and any amounts so transferred shall, if claimed within thirty years after being so transferred by a person who produces evidence to the satisfaction of the directors of the co-operative that he is entitled thereto, be paid over to such person and, after the expiration of such thirty-year period, any amount so transferred shall be forfeited to the co-operative and transferred out of the reserve fund to it.

67.—(1) A co-operative shall not exercise its powers under section 64 or 66,

(a) if the co-operative is insolvent or if the exercise of its powers under that section would render the co-operative insolvent; or

(b) if such exercise of its powers would in the opinion of the board of directors be detrimental to the financial stability of the co-operative.

(2) Where the shares of a member are acquired under section 64 or 66,

(a) if the articles so require, the shares shall be cancelled and thereupon the authorized and issued capital of the co-operative are thereby decreased, and the articles are amended accordingly;

(b) if the articles do not require the shares to be cancelled,

(i) the board of directors may at the time of the purchase cancel the shares, in which case the authorized and issued capital of the co-

(ii) the board of directors may resell the shares at such time and price and on such terms as it determines.

Member's Rights

68.—(1) Subject to subsection 2, a member of a co-operative may maintain an action in a representative capacity for himself and all other members of the co-operative suing for and on behalf of the co-operative to enforce any right, duty or obligation owed to the co-operative under this Act or under any other statute or rule of law or equity that could be enforced by the co-operative itself, or to obtain damages for any breach of any such right, duty or obligation.

(2) An action under subsection 1 shall not be commenced until the member has obtained an order of the court permitting the member to commence the action.

(3) A member may, upon at least seven days notice to the co-operative, apply to the court for an order referred to in subsection 2, and, if the court is satisfied that,

(b) the member has made reasonable efforts to cause the co-operative to commence or prosecute diligently the action on its own behalf; and

(c) the member is acting in good faith and it is prima facie in the interests of the co-operative or its members that the action be commenced, the court may make the order upon such terms as the court thinks fit, except that the order shall not require the member to give security for costs.

(4) At any time or from time to time while the action commenced under this section is pending, the plaintiff may apply to the court for an order for the payment to the plaintiff by the co-operative of reasonable interim costs including solicitor's and counsel fees and disbursements, for which interim costs the plaintiff shall be accountable to the co-operative if the action is dismissed with costs on final disposition at the trial or on appeal.
(5) An action commenced under this section shall be tried by the court and its judgment or order in the cause, unless the action is dismissed with costs, may include a provision that the reasonable costs of the action are payable to the plaintiff by the co-operative or other defendants taxed as between a solicitor and his own client.

(6) An action commenced under this section shall not be discontinued, settled or dismissed for want of prosecution without the approval of the court and, if the court determines that the interests of the members may be substantially affected by such discontinuance, settlement or dismissal, the court, in its discretion, may direct that notice in manner, form and content satisfactory to the court shall be given, at the expense of the co-operative or any other party to the action as the court directs to the members thereof whose interests the court determines will be so affected.

69.—(1) If, at a meeting of members of a co-operative,

(a) a resolution passed by the directors authorizing the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all the property of the co-operative is confirmed with or without variation by the members;

(b) a resolution approving an agreement for the amalgamation of the co-operative with one or more other co-operatives is passed by the members;

(c) a resolution passed by the directors approving the conversion of the co-operative into a corporation to which The Business Corporations Act applies is confirmed with or without variation by the members;

(d) a resolution passed by the directors approving the conversion of the co-operative into one with or without share capital is confirmed with or without variation by the members; or

(e) a resolution passed by the directors under section 159 is confirmed with or without variation by the members, any member who has voted against the confirmation of the resolution may within ten days after the date of the meeting give notice in writing to the co-operative requiring it to purchase his shares or refund the amount outstanding on loans made to the co-operative by the member together with any interest accrued thereon.

(2) Within ninety days from,
(a) the date of the completion of the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition;

(b) the date set forth in the certificate of amendment or amalgamation; or

(c) the date of delivery to the Minister of a request in writing for his authorization under section 159, the co-operative, or amalgamated co-operative, shall purchase the shares of, or refund the amount outstanding on loans made to the co-operative by, every member who has given notice under subsection 1, and every such member shall sell or deliver up his securities to the co-operative.

(3) The amount and terms of the purchase of a member's shares shall be at their par value or at a value that is less than par value and that is agreed to by the co-operative and the member together with all amounts held to his credit and with interest accrued thereon.

(4) The amount and terms of the repayment of any loans made by the member to the co-operative shall be at the full amount outstanding together with any interest accrued thereon and unpaid.

(5) The co-operative shall not purchase any shares or repay any member's loans under subsection 2 or 3 if it is insolvent or if the purchase or repayment would render it insolvent.

(6) If the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition is not completed, the certificate of amendment or amalgamation is not issued, or the authorization of the Minister is not given, the rights of the dissenting member under this section cease and the co-operative shall not purchase the shares of the member nor refund the amount outstanding on loans made to the co-operative by the member under this section.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a co-operative to repay a member's term loan before the date of maturity.

70.—(1) Ten per cent of the members of a co-operative may requisition the directors to call a meeting of the directors for the purpose of passing any by-law or resolution that may properly be passed at a meeting of the directors duly called, constituted and held for that purpose.

(2) The requisition shall set out the by-law or resolution, as the case may be, that is required to be passed at the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the head office of the co-operative, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists.
(3) Upon deposit of the requisition, the directors shall forthwith call a meeting of the directors for the purpose of passing the by-law or resolution, as the case may be, set out in the requisition.

(4) Where the directors do not, within twenty-one days from the date of the deposit of the requisition,

(a) call and hold such a meeting and pass such a by-law or resolution; and

(b) call a general meeting of the members for the purpose of confirming the by-law or resolution if the resolution requires confirmation at a general meeting of the members before it is effective, any of the requisitionists may call a general meeting of the members for the purpose of passing such a by-law or resolution, and the meeting shall be held within sixty days from the date of the deposit of the requisition.

(5) A meeting of the members called under subsection 4 shall be called as nearly as possible in the same manner as meetings of members are called under the by-laws, but, if the by-laws provide for more than twenty-one days notice of meetings, twenty-one days notice is sufficient for the calling of the meeting.

(6) Where a by-law or resolution is passed at a meeting of the members called under subsection 4, either as set out in the requisition or as varied at the meeting, it is as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly called, constituted and held for that purpose and confirmed at a meeting of the members duly called, constituted and held for that purpose, and if the resolution or by-law is passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the members called under subsection 4, it shall be conclusively deemed to be a special resolution or a by-law, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Act.

(7) The co-operative shall,

(a) reimburse the requisitionists for any reasonable expenses incurred by them by reason of the failure of the directors to act in accordance with subsections 3 and 4; and

(b) retain out of any moneys due or to become due, by way of fees or other remuneration for their services, to such
of the directors as were in default, an amount equal to the amount the requisitionists were reimbursed, unless, at the meeting called under subsection 4, the members, by a majority of the votes cast, reject the reimbursement of the requisitionists.

(8) Where a by-law or resolution in respect of which a meeting of directors is requisitioned under this section is not passed or confirmed at a meeting of the members, no requisition for a meeting of directors in respect of a similar by-law or resolution shall be made for a period of at least two years.

71.—(1) On the requisition in writing of 5 per cent of the members of the co-operative, the directors shall,

(a) give to the members entitled to notice of the next meeting of members notice of any resolution that may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at that meeting; or

(b) circulate to the members entitled to vote at the next meeting of members a statement of not more than 1,000 words with respect to the matter referred to in any proposed resolution or with respect to the business to be dealt with at that meeting.

(2) The notice or statement or both, as the case may be, shall be given or circulated by sending a copy thereof to each member entitled thereto in the same manner and at the same time as that prescribed by this Act, the articles or the by-laws, for the sending of notice of meetings of members.

(3) Where it is not practicable to send the notice or statement or both at the same time as the notice of the meeting is sent, the notice or statement or both shall be sent as soon as practicable thereafter.

(4) The directors are not bound under this section to give notice of any resolution or to circulate any statement unless,

(a) the requisition, signed by the requisitionists, is deposited at the head office of the co-operative,

(i) in the case of a requisition requiring notice of a resolution to be given, not less than twenty-one days before the meeting,

(ii) in the case of a requisition requiring a statement to be circulated, not less than fourteen days before the meeting; and
(b) there is deposited with the requisition a sum reasonably sufficient to meet the expenses of the co-operative in giving effect thereto.

(5) The directors are not bound under this section to circulate any statement if, on the application of the co-operative or any other person who claims to be aggrieved, the court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this section are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter, and on any such application the court may order the costs of the co-operative to be paid in whole or in part by the requisitionists notwithstanding that they are not parties to the application.

(6) No co-operative or a director, officer or employee thereof or person acting on its behalf, except a requisitionist, is liable in damages or otherwise by reason only of the giving of a notice or the circulation of a statement, or both, in compliance with this section.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in the by-laws of the co-operative, where the requisitionists have complied with this section, the resolution, if any, mentioned in the requisition shall be dealt with at the meeting to which the requisition relates.

(8) The co-operative shall pay to the requisitionists the sum deposited under clause (b) of subsection 4 unless at the meeting to which the requisition relates the members by a majority of the votes cast reject the repayment to the requisitionists.

Liabilities of Members

72.—(1) Where the issued loan or share capital of a co-operative is decreased by an amendment to the articles, each person who was a member on the effective date of the amendment is individually liable to the creditors of the co-operative for the debts due on that date to an amount not exceeding the amount of the repayment to him.

(2) A person is not liable under subsection 1 unless,

(a) the co-operative has been sued for the debt within six months after the effective date of the amendment and execution has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; and

(b) he is sued for the debt in a court of competent jurisdiction within two years from the effective date of the amendment.
(3) After execution has been so returned, the amount due on the execution, not exceeding the amount of the repayment to the person, is the amount recoverable against such person.

(4) Where it is made to appear that there are numerous members who may be liable under this section, the court of competent jurisdiction may permit an action to be brought against one or more of them as representatives of the class and, if the plaintiff establishes his claim as creditor, may make an order of reference and add as parties in the referee's office all such members as may be found, and the referee shall determine the amount that each should contribute towards the plaintiff's claim and may direct payment of the sum so determined.

(5) No person holding shares or loans in the capacity of a personal representative and registered on the records of the co-operative as a member and therein described as representing in such capacity a named estate, person or trust is personally liable under this section, but the estate, person or trust is subject to all liabilities imposed by this section.

73. A member of a co-operative as such is not answerable or responsible for any act, default, obligation or liability of the co-operative or for any engagement, claim, payment, loss, injury, transaction, matter or thing relating to or connected with the co-operative.

Meetings of Members

74.—(1) Subject to subsections 2 and 3, the meetings of the members shall be held at the place where the head office of the co-operative is located.

(2) Where the by-laws of the co-operative so provide, the meetings of the members may be held at any place within Ontario.

(3) Where the articles of the co-operative so provide, the meetings of the members may be held at one or more places outside Ontario specified therein.

75.—(1) Subject to subsection 2 and in the absence of other provisions in that behalf in the articles or by-laws of the co-operative,

(a) notice of the time and place for holding a meeting of the members shall be given to each person who is entitled to notice of meetings and who on the record date for notice appears on the records of the cooperative as a member by sending the notice by pre-paid mail to his latest address as shown on the records of the co-operative ten days or more before the date of the meeting but in no case more than fifty days before the date of the meeting;

(b) all questions proposed for the consideration of the members at a meeting of members shall be determined by the majority of the votes cast, and the chairman presiding at the meeting has a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes;

(c) the chairman presiding at a meeting of members may, with the consent of the meeting and subject to such conditions as the meeting decides, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place;

(d) the president or, in his absence, a vice-president who is a director shall preside as chairman at a meeting of members, but, if there is no president or such a vice-president or if at a meeting neither of them is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, the members present shall choose a person from their number to be the chairman;

(e) unless a poll is demanded, an entry in the minutes of a meeting of members to the effect that the chairman declared a motion to be carried is admissible in evidence as proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the motion.

(2) The articles or by-laws of the co-operative shall not provide for fewer than ten days notice for meetings of members and in no case shall notice be given fifty days before the date of the meeting and the articles or by-laws shall not provide that notice may be given otherwise than individually.

(3) If a poll is demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the by-laws prescribe, and, if the by-laws make no provision therefor, then as the chairman directs.

76. -(1) A member of a co-operative has only one vote.

(2) Subject to subsection 3, no member of a co-operative shall vote by proxy.

(3) A corporate member may appoint under its corporate seal one of its directors or officers to attend and vote on its behalf at meetings of members and such director or officer has only one vote.

77. A co-operative shall hold an annual meeting of its members not later than eighteen months after its incorporation and subsequently not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding annual meeting and at such meeting any member shall have an opportunity to raise any matter relevant to the affairs and business of the co-operative.

78. The directors may at any time call a general meeting of the members for the transaction of any business, the general nature of which is specified in the notice calling the meeting.

79.—(1) Five per cent of the members of a co-operative may requisition the directors to call a general meeting of the memers for any purpose that is connected with the affairs of the co-operative and that is not inconsistent with this Act.

(2) The requisition shall state the general nature of the business to be presented at the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the head office of the cooparative and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists.

(3) Upon deposit of the requisition, the directors shall forthwith call a general meeting of the members for the transaction of the business stated in the requisition.

(4) If the directors do not within thirty days from the date of the deposit of the requisition call and hold the meeting, any of the requisitionists may call the meeting, which shall be held within sixty days from the date of the deposit of the requisition.

(5) A meeting called under this section shall be called as nearly as possible in the same manner as meetings of members are called under the by-laws, but, if the by-laws provide for more than twenty-one days notice of meetings, twenty-one days notice is sufficient for the calling of the meeting.

(6) The co-operative shall,

(a) reimburse the requisitionists for any reasonable expenses incurred by them by reason of the action taken by them under subsection 4; and

(b) retain out of any moneys due or to become due, by way of fees or other remuneration for their services, to such of the directors as were in default, an amount equal to the amount the requisitionists were reimbursed, unless, at the meeting, the members by a majority of the votes cast reject the reimbursement of the requisitionists.

80. Notwithstanding section 79, upon application by a member of a co-operative, the court, if satisfied that the application is made in good faith and that it is prima facie in the interests of the co-operative or its members that the meeting be held on requisition, may make an order, upon such terms as to security for the costs of holding the meeting or otherwise as to the court seem fit, requiring the directors to call a general meeting of the members for any purpose that is connected with the affairs of the co-operative and that is not inconsistent with this Act.

81. If for any reason it is impracticable to call a meeting of members of a co-operative in any manner in which meetings of members may be called or to conduct the meeting in the manner prescribed by this Act, the articles or by-laws, the court may, on the application of a director or a member who would be entitled to vote at the meeting, order a meeting to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the court thinks fit, and any meeting called, held and conducted in accordance with the order shall for all purposes be deemed to be a meeting of members of the co-operative duly called, held and conducted.

82. The by-laws may provide for the fixing in advance of a date as the record date,

(a) for the determination of the members entitled to notice of meetings of the members, which record date for notice shall not be more than fifty days before the date of the meeting and not fewer than the minimum number of days for notice of the meeting and where no such record date for notice is fixed, the record date for notice shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given or sent; and

(b) for the determination of the members entitled to vote at meetings of the members which record date for voting shall not be more than two days, excluding Saturdays and holidays, before the date of the meeting and where no such record date for voting is fixed, the record date for voting shall be the time of the taking of the vote.
83.—(1) Where a person holds shares as a personal representative of a member, the personal representative is entitled to vote at all meetings of members.

(2) Where a person mortgages or hypothecates his shares, that person is the person entitled to vote at all meetings of members unless, in the instrument creating the mortgage or hypothec, he has expressly empowered the person holding the mortgage or hypothec to vote, in which case, subject to the articles, such holder is the person entitled to vote.

84. Where two or more persons hold the same share or shares jointly, any one of such persons present at a meeting of members has the right in the absence of the other or others to vote, but, if more than one of such persons are present and vote, they shall vote together as one on the share or shares jointly held by them.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

85.—(1) Every co-operative shall have a board of directors, however designated.

(2) The board of directors shall consist of a fixed number of directors, not fewer than five.

(2) The first directors of a co-operative have all the powers and duties and are subject to all the liabilities of directors.

87. No person shall be a director of a co-operative unless he is a member thereof or a director, officer, shareholder or member of a corporate member thereof, and, where a director or a corporation of which he is an officer, director, shareholder or member ceases to be a member, he thereupon ceases to be a director.

88.—(1) A co-operative may by by-law increase or, subject to subsection 2 of section 85, decrease the number of its directors as set out in its articles.

(2) Where a co-operative incorporated under The Corporations Act or a predecessor of that Act or under a general or special Act of the Legislature before the coming into force of this Act has fewer than five directors, it shall, under subsection 1, within two years of the coming into force of this Act, increase the number of its directors to not fewer than five.

Filing of by-law

(3) A co-operative shall file with the Minister a certified copy of the by-law within ten days after the by-law has been confirmed by the members.

89. — (1) No person under eighteen years of age shall be a director of a co-operative.

Qualifications

(2) No undischarged bankrupt or mentally incompetent person shall be a director, and, if a director becomes a bankrupt or a mentally incompetent person, he thereupon ceases to be a director.

Consent

(3) A person who is elected or appointed a director is not a director unless,

(a) he was present at the meeting when he was elected or appointed and did not refuse at the meeting to act as director;

(b) where he was not present at the meeting when he was elected or appointed, he consented to act as director in writing before his election or appointment or within ten days thereafter.

Idem

(4) For the purposes of subsection 3, a person who is elected or appointed as director and refuses under clause a of subsection 3 or fails to consent under clause b of subsection 3 shall be deemed not to have been elected or appointed as a director.

90. — (1) The directors shall be elected by the members in general meeting, and the election shall be by ballot in the manner prescribed by section 91.

Idem

(2) The election of directors shall take place yearly or at such other interval not exceeding five years as is provided by the articles and all the directors then in office shall retire, but are eligible for re-election.

Continuance in office

(3) If an election of directors is not held within the prescribed period, the directors continue in office until their successors are elected.
(4) The articles or by-laws may provide for the election and retirement of directors in rotation, but in that case no director shall be elected for a term of more than five years and at least two directors shall retire from office in each year.

(5) It shall not be necessary for all directors to hold office for the same term.

91. Every member entitled to vote at an election of directors, if he votes, shall cast thereat a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected, and the member shall distribute the votes among the candidates in such manner as he sees fit, but no candidate shall receive more than one vote from each member.

92. (1) Subject to subsection 2, where a vacancy occurs in the board, and a quorum of directors remains, the directors remaining in office may appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term, but the articles may provide that such vacancy may only be filled by election at a general meeting of the members duly called for that purpose.

(2) Where the number of directors is increased, the vacancies resulting from such increase shall only be filled by election at a general meeting of the members duly called for that purpose.

(3) When there is not a quorum of directors in office, the director or directors then in office shall forthwith call a general meeting of the members to fill the vacancies, and, in default or if there are no directors then in office, the meeting may be called by any member.

93. Unless the articles or by-laws otherwise provide, a majority of the board of directors constitutes a quorum, but in no case shall a quorum be less than two-fifths of the board of directors.

94. (1) Subject to subsection 2, the meetings of the board of directors and the executive committee shall be held at the place where the head office of the co-operative is located.

(2) Where the by-laws of the co-operative so provide, the meetings of the board of directors and of the executive committee may be held at any place within or outside Ontario, but in any financial year of the co-operative a majority of the meetings of the board of directors and a majority of the meetings of the executive committee shall be held at a place within Canada.

(3) Subject to the by-laws of the co-operative, where all the directors have consented thereto, any director may parparticipate in a meeting of the board of directors or of the executive committee by means of conference, telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and a director participating in a meeting pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be present in person at that meeting.

(4) If a majority of the directors participating in a meeting held pursuant to subsection 3 are then in Canada, the meeting shall be deemed to have been held in Canada.

95. — (1) In addition to any other provision in the articles or by-laws of a co-operative for calling meetings of directors, a quorum of the directors may, at any time, call a meeting of the directors for the transaction of any business the general nature of which is specified in the notice calling the meeting.

(2) In the absence of any other provision in that behalf in the by-laws of the co-operative, notice of the time and place for the holding of the meeting called under subsection 1 shall be given to every director of the co-operative by sending the notice by prepaid mail ten days or more before the date of the meeting to his latest address as shown on the records of the co-operative.

96. — (1) The board of directors shall manage or supervise the management of the affairs and business of the co-operative.

(2) Subject to section 97, no business of a co-operative shall be transacted by its board of directors except at a meeting of directors at which a quorum of the board is present and at which a majority of the directors present are resident Canadians.

(3) Where there is a vacancy or vacancies in the board of directors, the remaining directors may exercise all the powers of the board so long as a quorum of the board remains in office.

97. — (1) Where the number of directors of a co-operative is more than six, and if authorized by a by-law, the directors may elect from among their number an executive committee consisting of not fewer than three of whom a majority shall be resident Canadians and may delegate to the executive committee any powers of the board of directors, subject to the restrictions, if any, contained in the by-law or imposed from time to time by the directors.

(2) An executive committee may fix its quorum, which shall be not less than a majority of its members.
(3) No business shall be transacted by an executive committee except at a meeting of its members at which a quorum of the executive committee is present and at which a majority of the members present are resident Canadians.

98.—(1) Every director of a co-operative who has, directly or indirectly, any interest in any contract or transaction to which the co-operative or a subsidiary thereof is or is to be a party, other than a contract or transaction in which his interest is limited solely to his remuneration as a director, officer or employee, shall declare his interest in such contract or transaction at a meeting of the directors of the co-operative and shall at that time disclose the nature and extent of such interest including, as to any contract or transaction involving the purchase or sale of property by or to the co-operative or a subsidiary thereof, the cost of the property to the purchaser and the cost thereof to the seller, if acquired by the seller within five years before the date of the contract or transaction, to the extent to which such interest or information is within his knowledge or control, and shall not vote and shall not in respect of such contract or transaction be counted in the quorum.

(2) Subsection 1 does not require the disclosure of any interest in any contract or transaction unless,

(a) the interest and the contract or transaction are both material; or

(b) the subject of the contract or transaction is of a type not available to all members of the co-operative.

(3) The declaration required by this section shall be made at the meeting of the directors at which the proposed contract or transaction is first considered, or if the director is not at the date of the meeting interested in the proposed contract or transaction, at the next meeting of the directors held after he becomes so interested, or if the director becomes interested in a contract or transaction after it is entered into, at the first meeting of the directors held after he becomes so interested, or if a contract or a proposed contract or transaction is one that in the ordinary course of the co-operative’s business, would not require approval by the directors or shareholders, at the first meeting of the directors held after the director becomes aware of it.

(4) If a director has made a declaration and disclosure of his interest in a contract or transaction in compliance with this section and has not voted in respect of the contract or transaction at the meeting of the directors of the co-operative, the director, if he was acting honestly and in good faith at the time the contract or transaction was entered into, is not by reason only of his holding the office of director accountable to the co-operative or to its members for any profit or gain realized from the contract or transaction, and the contract or transaction, if it was in the best interests of the co-operative at the time the contract or transaction was entered into, is not voidable by reason only of the director’s interest therein.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this section, a director, if he was acting honestly and in good faith, is not accountable to the co-operative or to its members for any profit or gain realized from any such contract or transaction by reason only of his holding the office of director, and the contract or transaction, if it was in the best interests of the co-operative at the time it was entered into, is not by reason only of the director’s interest therein voidable,

(a) if the contract or transaction is confirmed or approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of the members duly called for that purpose; and

(b) if the nature and extent of the director’s interest in the contract or transaction are declared and disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the meeting.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a general notice to the directors by a director declaring that he is a director or officer of or has a material interest in a person that is a party to a contract or proposed contract with the co-operative is a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract so made.

99. -(1) Where a co-operative acquires any of its shares or repays any of its loans in contravention of this Act or the articles, the directors who voted in favour of or consented to the resolution authorizing the acquisition or repayment are jointly and severally liable to the co-operative to the extent of the amount paid out.

(2) Where a co-operative acquires any of its shares or repays any of its loans in contravention of this Act or the articles,

(a) any member of the co-operative; or

(b) where the acquisition or repayment is in contravention of subsection 2 of section 32, subsection 1 of section 67 or section 69, any creditor of the co-operative who was a creditor at the time of the acquisition or repayment, may apply to the court within two years of the acquisition or repayment and the court may, if it considers it to be just and equitable under the circumstances, make an order making any member whose shares were acquired liable to the co-operative jointly and severally with the directors, to the extent of the amount paid to him.

100. Where any dividend is declared and paid in contravention of section 58,

(a) the directors who voted in favour of or consented to the resolution authorizing the declaration of the dividend are jointly and severally liable to the co-operative to the extent of the amount of the dividend so declared and paid or such part thereof as renders the co-operative insolvent or diminishes its capital; and

(b) any member of the co-operative or any creditor of the co-operative who was a creditor at the time of the declaration of the dividend may apply to the court within two years of the declaration, and the court may, if it considers it to be just and equitable under the circumstances, make an order making any member to whom the dividend is paid jointly and severally liable with the directors to the extent of the amount of the dividend paid to him.

101. (1) A director who was present at a meeting of the board of directors or an executive committee thereof when,

(a) the redemption or purchase of shares of the co-operative is authorized;

(b) the declaration and payment of a dividend is authorized; or

(c) the repayment of loans to members is authorized,

shall be deemed to have consented thereto unless,

(d) his dissent is entered in the minutes of the meeting;

(e) he files his written dissent with the person acting as secretary of the meeting before its adjournment; or
(f) he delivers or sends his dissent by registered mail to the co-operative immediately after the adjournment of the meeting, and within seven days after complying with clause \(d, e \) or \(f\) he sends a copy of his dissent by registered mail to the Minister.

(2) A director who voted in favour of a matter referred to in subsection 1 is not entitled to dissent under subsection 1.

(3) A director who was not present at a meeting of the board of directors or any executive committee thereof when,

\(a\) the redemption or purchase of shares of the co-operative is authorized;

\(b\) the declaration and payment of a dividend is authorized; or

\(c\) the repayment of loans to members is authorized,

shall be deemed to have consented thereto unless,

\(d\) he delivers or sends to the co-operative by registered mail his dissent; or \(e\) he causes his dissent to be filed with the minutes of the meeting,
