to the extent of the amount of the capital gain or capital loss, as the case may be, that would not, if section 12 were read in the manner described in clause a of subsection 1 of this section, be included or be deductible, as the case may be, in computing the corporation’s income for the fiscal year or any other fiscal year. New.

(i) if the property was disposed of in the fiscal year, the amount, if any, by which the corporation's proceeds of disposition exceed the aggregate of the adjusted cost base to it of the property immediately before the disposition and any outlays and expenses to the extent that they were made or incurred by the corporation for the purpose of making the disposition, or

(ii) if the property was disposed of before the fiscal year, the amount, if any, claimed by the corporation under subclause iii in computing the corporation's gain for the immediately preceding fiscal year from the disposition of the property,

(iii) such amount as the corporation may claim, not exceeding a reasonable amount as a reserve in respect of such of the proceeds of disposition of the property that are not due to the corporation until after the end of the fiscal year as may reasonably be regarded as a portion of the amount determined under subclause i in respect of the property; and

(b) a corporation's loss for a fiscal year from the disposition of any property is,

(i) if the property was disposed of in the fiscal year, the amount, if any, by which the aggregate of the adjusted cost base to the corporation of the property immediately before the disposition and any outlays and expenses to the extent that they were made or incurred by the corporation for the purpose of making the disposition, exceeds its proceeds of disposition of the property, and

(ii) in any other case, nil.

(iii) a loss from the disposition of any personal-use property of the corporation other than listed personal property, is nil.

(3) Where,

(a) the aggregate of all amounts required by subsection 2 of section 55, except clause b thereof, to be deducted in computing the adjusted cost base to a corporation of any property at any time in a fiscal year,

exceeds

(b) the aggregate of the cost to it of the property and all amounts required by subsection 1 of section 55 to be included in computing the adjusted cost base to a corporation of that property at that time, the amount of the excess shall be deemed to be a gain of the corporation for the fiscal year from a disposition at that time of that property. New.

43.—(1) For the purposes of this Part, a corporation’s taxable net gain for a fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property is one-half of the amount determined under subsection 2 to be its net gain for the fiscal year from dispositions of such property.

(2) A corporation’s net gain for a fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property is an amount determined as follows,

(a) determine the amount, if any, by which the aggregate of its gains for the fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property exceeds the aggregate of its losses for the fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property; and

(b) deduct from the amount determined under clause a its listed-personal-property losses for the five fiscal years immediately preceding and the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year, except that for the purposes of this clause,

(ii) no amount is deductible in respect of the listed-personal-property loss of any fiscal year until the deductible listed-personal-property losses for previous fiscal years have been deducted, and

(iii) no amount is deductible in respect of listed-personal-property losses from the amount determined under clause a for a fiscal year except to the extent of the amount so determined for the fiscal year, and the remainder determined under clause b is the corporation's net gain for the fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property.

(3) In this section, "listed-personal-property loss" of a corporation for a fiscal year means the amount, if any, by which the aggregate of its losses for the fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property exceeds the aggregate of its gains for the fiscal year from dispositions of listed personal property. New.

44. In computing a corporation's proceeds of disposition of any property for the purposes of this Subdivision, there shall be included any amount received or receivable by the corporation as consideration for any warranty, covenant or other conditional or contingent obligation incurred by the corporation in respect of the disposition, and in computing the corporation's income for the fiscal year in which the property was disposed of or for any of the six immediately following fiscal years, any outlay or expense made or incurred by the corporation in any such fiscal year pursuant to or by virtue of the obligation shall, if the obligation was a legal obligation incurred by the corporation, be deemed to be a loss of the corporation for that fiscal year from the disposition of a capital property. New.

45. For the purpose of computing a corporation's gain for a fiscal year from the disposition of a part of a property, the adjusted cost base to the corporation, immediately before the disposition, of that part is such portion of the adjusted cost base to the corporation at that time of the whole property as may reasonably be regarded as attributable to that part. New.

46. Where in a fiscal year a corporation has received proceeds of disposition described in subclause iii or iv of clause i of section 56 of any property, in this section referred to as its "former property", and, before the end of the following fiscal year, has expended an amount to acquire other property as a replacement for its former property, notwithstanding subsection 1 of section 42,
(a) the gain, if any, from the disposition of its former property is the lesser of,

(ii) the amount, if any, by which the proceeds of disposition of its former property exceed the cost to the corporation, otherwise determined, of the other property; and

(b) the cost to the corporation of the other property shall be deemed to be the cost to the corporation of the other property otherwise determined, minus the amount, if any, by which the gain described in subclause i of clause a exceeds the excess, if any, determined under subclause ii of clause a. New.

47.—(1) For the purposes of this Subdivision the following rules apply,

(a) where a corporation,

(i) having acquired property for some other purpose, has commenced at a later time to use it for the purpose of gaining or producing income therefrom, or for the purpose of gaining or producing income from a business, or

(iv) immediately thereafter reacquired it at a cost equal to that fair market value;

(b) where property has, since it was acquired by a corporation, been regularly used in part for the purpose of gaining or producing income therefrom or for the purpose of gaining or producing income from a business and in part for some other purpose, the corporation shall be deemed to have acquired, for that other purpose, the proportion of the property that the use regularly made of the property for that other purpose is of the whole use regularly made of the property at a cost to the corporation equal to the same proportion of the cost to it of the whole property; and, if the property has, in such a case, been disposed of, the proceeds of disposition of the proportion of the property deemed to have been acquired for that other purpose shall be deemed to be the same proportion of the proceeds of disposition of the whole property; and

(c) where, at any time after a corporation has acquired property, there has been a change in the relation between the use regularly made by the corporation of the property for gaining or producing income therefrom or income from a business and the use regularly made of the property for other purposes,

(i) if the use regularly made by it of the property for those other purposes has increased, it shall be deemed to have,

(A) disposed of property at that time for proceeds equal to the proportion of the fair market value of the property at that time that the amount of the increase in the use regularly made by the corporation of the property for those other purposes is of the whole use regularly made of the property, and

(B) immediately thereafter reacquired the property so disposed of at a cost equal to the proceeds referred to in sub-subclause A, and

(ii) if the use regularly made by the corporation of the property for those other purposes has decreased, it shall be deemed to have disposed of property at that time and the proceeds of disposition shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the proportion of the fair market value of the property at that time that the amount of the decrease in use regularly made by it of the property for those other purposes is of the whole use regularly made of the property.

(2) For the purposes of this Subdivision and section 17, where clause a of subsection 1 and paragraph 2 of subsection 6 of section 17 would otherwise be applicable in respect of any property of a corporation for a fiscal year and the corporation so elects as provided under subsection 2 of section 45 of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the corporation shall be deemed not to have commenced to use the property for the purpose of gaining or producing income therefrom or for the purpose of gaining or producing income from a business except that if the corporation rescinds such election in a subsequent fiscal year in respect of the property, it shall be deemed to have commenced so to use the property on the first day of that subsequent fiscal year.

(b) the proceeds of disposition of the part so disposed of shall be deemed to be the greater of,

(i) the proceeds of disposition thereof otherwise determined, and

(ii) the amount determined under subclause (i) of clause (a).

(b) had, immediately before the first disposition referred to in clause a, an aggregate fair market value greater than $1,000, the properties shall be deemed to be a single personal-use property and each such disposition shall be deemed to be a disposition of a part of that property.

(4) Where it may reasonably be regarded that, by reason of a decrease in the fair market value of any personal-use property of a corporation, partnership or trust,

(a) a corporation's gain, if any, from the disposition of a share of the capital stock of a corporation, an interest in a trust or an interest in a partnership has become a loss, or is less than it would have been if the decrease had not occurred; or

(b) a corporation's loss, if any, from the disposition of a share or interest described in clause a is greater than it would have been if the decrease had not occurred;

the amount of the gain or loss, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been but for the decrease. New.

(a) the corporation shall be deemed to have disposed of each such previously-acquired property immediately before the particular time for proceeds equal to its adjusted cost base to it immediately before the particular time; and
(b) the corporation shall be deemed to have acquired each such identical property at the particular time at a cost equal to the quotient obtained when,

(i) the aggregate of the adjusted cost bases to the corporation immediately before the particular time of the previously-acquired properties, and the cost to it, determined without reference to this section, of the newly-acquired properties, is divided by

(ii) the number of such identical properties owned by the corporation immediately after the particular time.

New.

50. --(1) For the purposes of this Subdivision, where at any time in a fiscal year a corporation ceases to be resident in Canada, it shall be deemed to have disposed of each property, other than any property that would be taxable Canadian property if at no time in the fiscal year it had been resident in Canada, owned by the corporation at that time, for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value of the property at that time, and to have reacquired the property immediately thereafter at a cost equal to that fair market value.

(ii) in computing the cost to the purchaser of the property, the consideration received by him for the option.

(4) Where,

(a) an option granted by a corporation in a fiscal year, in this subsection referred to as the "initial fiscal year", is exercised in a subsequent fiscal year, in this subsection referred to as the "subsequent fiscal year";

52.—(1) For the purposes of this Subdivision, where a debt owing to a corporation at the end of a fiscal year, other than a debt owing to it in respect of the disposition of a personal-use property, is established by it to have become a bad debt in the fiscal year, it shall be deemed to have disposed of it at the end of the fiscal year and to have reacquired it immediately thereafter at a cost equal to nil.

(2) Where a debt owing to a corporation at the end of a fiscal year that is a personal-use property of the corporation is established by it to have become a bad debt in the fiscal year,

(3) Where a corporation that is a shareholder of another corporation has, after 1971, received a stock dividend in respect of a share owned by it of the capital stock of the other corporation, it shall be deemed to have acquired the share or shares received by it as a stock dividend at a cost to it equal to the amount of the stock dividend.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection 3, where a corporation has a net loss, any amount which may be deducted under subsection 1 may be deducted in subsequent fiscal years to the extent that the deduction allowed under subsection 1 exceeds the tax otherwise payable by the corporation in the previous fiscal years and, except as herein provided, no deduction shall be allowed in any fiscal year of the corporation ending after the 31st day of March, 1974, except that with respect to the first fiscal year of the corporation ending after the 31st day of March, 1974 the amount which may be deducted from the tax otherwise payable for that fiscal year shall not exceed the portion of the tax otherwise payable for that fiscal year that the number of days in that fiscal year prior to the 1st day of April, 1974, bears to 365.

(a) the tax payable by the corporation under Part II of this Act for the fiscal year in or in respect of which such a payment is made or becomes payable is the amount that the tax of the corporation under Part II of this Act would be if no amount under the contract were included in computing its income for the fiscal year plus,

(i) the property of the bankrupt did not pass to and vest in the trustee in bankruptcy on the receiving order being made or the assignment filed but remained vested in the bankrupt, and

(ii) any dealing in the estate of the bankrupt or any act performed in the carrying on of the business of the bankrupt estate by the trustee was done as agent on behalf of the bankrupt and any income of the trustee from such dealing or carrying on is income of the bankrupt and not of the trustee;

and Mutual Fund Corporations

109.—(1) Where a corporation is an investment corporation, as defined by subsection 3 of section 130 of the Income Tax Act (Canada), or is a mutual fund corporation, as defined by subsection 8 of section 131 of such Act, and the corporation has elected in respect of the full amount of a dividend that has become payable by it at any particular time after 1971 in accordance with subsection 1 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (Canada),

(a) the dividend shall be deemed to be a capital gains dividend to the extent that it does not exceed the corporation’s capital gains dividend account as defined by paragraph b of subsection 6 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) at the particular time; and

(b) notwithstanding anything in this Act, any amount received by a corporation in a fiscal year as, on account of or in lieu of payment of, or in satisfaction of the dividend shall not be included in computing the corporation’s income for the fiscal year as income from a share of the capital stock of the paying corporation, but shall be deemed to be a capital gain of the corporation for the fiscal year from the disposition of capital property.

(2) Where a corporation has in a fiscal year become entitled to a refund by virtue of subsection 2 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Minister,

(a) may upon mailing the notice of assessment for the fiscal year, refund without application therefor an amount equal to 25 per cent of its capital gains refund for the fiscal year determined under subsection 2 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) for the same fiscal year; and

(b) shall make such a refund after mailing the notice of assessment if application therefor has been made in writing by the corporation within 4 years from the end of the fiscal year.

(3) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under subsection 2, the Minister may, where the corporation is liable or about to become liable to make any payment under this Act, apply the amount that would otherwise be refunded to that other liability and notify the corporation of that action.

(4) Section 78 does not apply to deem a dividend to have been paid by a corporation to any of its shareholders, or to deem any of the shareholders of a corporation to have received a dividend on any shares of the capital stock of the corporation, if at the time the dividend would, but for this subsection, be deemed by section 78 to have been so paid or received, as the case may be, the corporation was a mutual fund corporation. New.

Non-Resident-Owned Investment Corporations

110.—(1) The income of a non-resident-owned investment corporation for a fiscal year shall be computed as if its only income was taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses referred to in clause b of section 12 from dispositions of taxable Canadian property or property that would be taxable Canadian property if at no time in the fiscal year the corporation had been resident in Canada. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 45 (1), amended.

(ii) the corporation's surplus determined in prescribed manner at the end of its 1971 fiscal year, for fiscal years ending before 1972 for which it was not taxable under section 70 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) as it read in its application to the 1971 fiscal year; and

(4) Where at any particular time after 1971 a dividend has become payable by a non-resident-owned investment corporation to shareholders of any class of shares of its capital stock, if the corporation so elects in respect of the full amount of the dividend, in prescribed manner and in prescribed form and at or before the particular time or the first day on which any part of the dividend was paid if that day is earlier than the particular time, the following rules apply.

(a) the dividend shall be deemed to be a capital gains dividend to the extent that the portion thereof in excess of the corporation's 1971 undistributed income on hand immediately before the particular time does not exceed the corporation's capital gains dividend account immediately before the particular time; and

(b) any amount received by another non-resident-owned investment corporation in a fiscal year as, on account or in lieu of payment of, or in satisfaction of the capital gains dividend shall not be included in computing the corporation's income for the fiscal year.

(a) within the fiscal year or within 12 months thereafter to its customers of the fiscal year; and

(b) within the fiscal year or within 12 months thereafter to its customers of a previous fiscal year, the deduction of which from income of a previous fiscal year was not permitted. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 49 (1).

(2) Notwithstanding subsection 1, if the corporation has not made allocations in proportion to patronage in respect of all its customers of the fiscal year at the same rate, with appropriate differences for different types or classes of goods, products or services, or classes, grades or qualities thereof, the amount that may be deducted under this section is an amount equal to the lesser of,

(a) the aggregate of the payments mentioned in subsection 1; and

(b) the aggregate of,

(i) the part of the income of the corporation for the fiscal year attributable to business done with members, and customer of that fiscal year on terms that the customer is entitled to or will receive payment thereof, computed at a rate in relation to the quantity, quality or value of the goods or products acquired, marketed, handled, dealt in or sold, or services rendered by the corporation from, on behalf of or to the customer, whether as principal or as agent of the customer or otherwise, with appropriate differences in the rate for different classes, grades or qualities thereof, if,

(i) the amount was credited,

(A) within the fiscal year or within 12 months thereafter, and

(B) at the same rate in relation to quantity, quality or value aforesaid as the rate at which amounts were similarly credited to all other customers of that fiscal year who were members or to all other customers of that fiscal year, as the case may be, with appropriate differences aforesaid for different classes, grades or qualities, and

(ii) the application by the corporation of an amount to a member's liability to the corporation, including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, an amount applied in fulfilment of an obligation of the member to make a loan to the corporation and an amount applied on account of payment for shares issued to a member, pursuant to a by-law of the corporation, pursuant to statutory authority or at the request of the member, or

(iii) the amount of a payment or transfer by the corporation that, under subsection 2 of section 58, is required to be included in computing the income of a member. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 49 (4).

(4) For the purpose of this section a corporation shall be deemed to have held forth the prospect that amounts would be credited to a customer of a fiscal year by way of allocation in proportion to patronage, if,

(b) prior to the commencement of the fiscal year or prior to such other day as may be prescribed for the class of business in which the corporation is engaged, the corporation has published an advertisement in prescribed form in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation throughout the greater part of the area in which the corporation carried on business holding forth that prospect to customers who are members or non-member customers, as the case may be, and has filed copies of the newspapers with the Minister before the end of the 30th day of the fiscal year or within 30 days from the prescribed day, as the case may be. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 49 (5).

(6) Where a payment pursuant to an allocation in proportion to patronage, other than an allocation in respect of consumer goods or services, has been received by a corporation, the amount of the payment shall be included in computing the recipient’s income for the fiscal year in which the payment was received and, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, where a certificate of indebtedness or a share was issued to a corporation pursuant to an allocation in proportion to patronage, the amount of the payment by virtue of the issue thereof shall be included in computing the recipient’s income for the fiscal year in which the certificate or share was received and not in computing its income for the fiscal year in which the indebtedness was subsequently discharged or the share was redeemed. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 49 (7).

(3) For the purposes of this Act, any annual or other periodic amount paid or payable by a credit union to a member thereof in respect of his share in the credit union, other than any such amount paid or payable as or on account of capital, shall be deemed to have been paid or payable, as the case may be, by the credit union as interest and, when received by the member, to have been received by him as interest.

(4) Where a payment has been received by a corporation from a credit union in a fiscal year in respect of an allocation in proportion to borrowing, the amount thereof shall, if the money so borrowed was used by the corporation for the purpose of earning income from a business or property, otherwise than to acquire property the income from which would be exempt or to acquire a life insurance policy, be included in computing the corporation's income for the fiscal year.

(5) In this section,

(ii) the amount of money borrowed by the member from the credit union;

(4) Notwithstanding subsections 2 and 3 and subject to subsection 5 of section 149, where for the purposes of this section any corporation estimates the amount of tax payable for a fiscal year to be less than $300, the corporation may, instead of paying the instalments required by subsection 2 or 3, pay such tax on or before the fifteenth day of the first month of the fiscal year following that in respect of which the tax is payable. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 76 (4).

by the regulations, on the amount it failed to pay from the day on or before which it was required to make the payment to the day of payment or the beginning of the period in respect of which it becomes liable to pay interest thereon under subsection 1, whichever is earlier. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 77 (2).

(3) Where the Minister has reassessed the tax payable for a fiscal year under subsection 4 of section 150 and the tax payable is greater than the tax previously assessed for that fiscal year, the interest payable under subsection 2 and the penalty under subsection 1 of section 146 shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 150 provided,

(a) that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply where subsection 3 or 4 of section 146 apply; and

(b) the provisions of this subsection shall apply only with respect to instalments of tax due and payable before the thirtieth day following the date of such reassessment. New.

(4) Where a corporation is entitled to deduct under subsection 1 of section 99 in computing its taxable income for a taxation year an amount in respect of a loss sustained in the fiscal year immediately following the taxation year, hereinafter in this subsection referred to as "the loss year", for the purpose of computing interest and penalty interest under this section on tax or a part or instalment of tax for the taxation year for any portion of the period in respect of which the interest is payable on or before the last day of the loss year, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been if the corporation were not entitled to deduct an amount under subsection 1 of section 99 in respect of that loss. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 77 (3).

(2) After examination of a return, the Minister shall send by mail or by registered mail or deliver by personal service a notice of assessment to the corporation that delivered the return. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 78 (2).

(3) Liability for tax imposed by this Act is not affected by an incorrect or incomplete assessment or by the fact that no assessment has been made. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 78 (3).

(4) The Minister may at any time assess tax, interest or penalties, or notify in writing any person by whom a return of income or other subject of tax for a fiscal year has been filed that no tax is payable for the fiscal year, and may, (a) at any time, if the corporation or person filing the return,

(i) has made any misrepresentation or committed any fraud in filing the return or supplying any information under this Act, or

(ii) has failed to file financial statements with the return required to be filed under section 145, or

(iii) has been negligent in supplying any information under this Act, or

(iv) has filed with the Minister a waiver in a prescribed form within six years from the day of mailing of a notice of an original assessment or of a notification that no tax is payable for a fiscal year, or

(v) has claimed a deduction under clause u of subsection 1 of section 24; and

(b) within six years from the day referred to in sub-clause iv of clause a, in any other case, reassess or make additional assessments or assess tax, interest or penalties, as the circumstances require. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 78 (4).
(5) Where a corporation has delivered the return required by section 145 for a fiscal year and, within one year from the day on or before it was required by section 145 to deliver a return for that fiscal year, has filed an amended return for the fiscal year claiming a deduction from income under subsection 1 of section 99 in respect of a loss sustained in the fiscal year immediately following that fiscal year, the Minister shall reassess the tax payable by the corporation for that fiscal year. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 78 (5).

(6) The Minister is not bound by a return or information delivered by or on behalf of a corporation and may, notwithstanding a return or information so delivered or if no return or information has been delivered, assess the tax payable under this Act. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 78 (6).

(7) An assessment, subject to being varied or vacated on an objection or appeal and subject to a reassessment, shall be deemed to be valid and binding notwithstanding any error, defect or omission therein or in any proceeding under this Act relating thereto. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 78 (7).

(1) Every corporation shall within thirty days from the day of mailing of the notice of assessment pay any part of the assessed tax, interest and penalties then remaining unpaid, whether or not an objection to or appeal from the assessment is outstanding. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 79 (1).

(2) Where in the opinion of the Minister a corporation is attempting to avoid payment of a tax imposed by this Act or where the Minister has assessed the tax payable under this Act pursuant to subsection 6 of section 150, he may, notwithstanding subsection 2 of section 150, serve the notice of assessment upon the corporation or the president, manager, secretary or any director, agent or representative thereof and direct that all taxes, penalties and interest as set out therein shall be paid forthwith. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 79 (2).

DIVISION D—REFUNDS OF OVERPAYMENTS

(1) If the return required to be delivered by a corporation under section 145 for a fiscal year has been delivered within four years from the end of that fiscal year, the Minister, (a) may, upon mailing the notice of assessment for the fiscal year, refund without application therefor any overpayment made on account of the tax payable for the fiscal year; and
(b) shall make such a refund after mailing the notice of assessment if application therefor has been made in writing by the corporation within four years from the day on which the overpayment was made or the day on which the notice of assessment was mailed.

R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 80 (1).

(2) Instead of making a refund that might otherwise be made under this section, the Minister may, where the corporation is liable or about to become liable to make another payment under this Act, apply the amount of the overpayment to that other liability and notify the corporation of such action.

R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 80 (2).

(3) Where an amount in respect of an overpayment is refunded or applied under this section on other liability, interest at such rate as is prescribed by the regulations shall be paid or applied thereon for the period commencing with the latest of,

(a) the day on which the overpayment arose;

(b) the day on or before which the return of the corporation in respect of which the overpayment arose was required by section 145 to be delivered; or

(c) the day on which the return of the corporation in respect of which the overpayment arose was delivered, and ending with the day of refunding or application aforesaid, unless the amount of the interest so calculated is less than $1, in which event no interest shall be paid or applied under this subsection.

R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 80 (3).

(4) Where by a decision of the Minister under section 154 or by a decision of a court it is finally determined that the tax payable under this Act by a corporation for a fiscal year is less than the amount assessed by the assessment under section 150 to which objection was made or from which the appeal was taken and the decision makes it appear that there has been an overpayment for the fiscal year, the interest payable under subsection 3 on that overpayment shall be computed at such rate as is prescribed by the regulations.

R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 80 (4).

(5) Where an amount has been paid with respect to the provisions of section 167 and the tax payable under this Act for the fiscal year as finally determined is less than the payment, the interest payable on that overpayment shall, notwithstanding subsection 3, be computed at such rate as is prescribed for the purpose of subsection 4 as though the day on which the overpayment arose is the day upon which the payment was made. New.

(6) Except as provided in subsection 5, for the purpose of this section, "overpayment" means the aggregate of all amounts paid on account of tax payable for a fiscal year minus all amounts payable under this Act or an amount so paid where no amount is so payable. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 80 (5).

(7) Where a corporation is entitled to deduct under subsection 1 of section 99 in computing its taxable income for a taxation year an amount in respect of a loss sustained in the fiscal year immediately following the taxation year, hereinafter in this subsection referred to as "the loss year", and the amount of the tax payable for the taxation year is relevant in determining an overpayment for the purpose of computing interest under subsection 3 for any portion of a period ending on or before the last day of the loss year, the tax payable for the taxation year shall be deemed to be the amount that it would have been if the corporation were not entitled to deduct an amount under subsection 1 of section 99 in respect of that loss. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 80 (6).

153.—(1) Where instalments of tax as required by subsection 3 of section 148 are overpaid at any time prior to the day the return of the corporation in respect of which the overpaid instalments occurred was required by section 145 to be delivered or the day on which a refund was made upon assessment where such assessment is made before the day the return was due to be filed, whichever is earlier, interest at such rate as is prescribed for the purpose of subsection 3 of section 152 shall be allowed on the overpayment to the extent that interest has been otherwise assessed under subsection 2 of section 149 except that under no circumstances shall the credit interest so allowed exceed the interest otherwise assessed under that section.

(2) Subsection 1 does not apply with respect to any amount to which subsection 5 of section 152 applies. New.

DIVISION E.—OBJECTIONS TO ASSESSMENT

154.—(1) A corporation that objects to an assessment under section 150 may within ninety days from the day of mailing of the notice of assessment serve on the Minister... a notice of objection in duplicate in the prescribed form setting out the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 81 (1).

(2) A notice of objection under this section shall be served by being sent by registered mail addressed to the Minister. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 81 (2).

(3) The Minister may accept a notice of objection under this section notwithstanding that it was not served in duplicate or in the manner required by subsection 2. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 81 (3).

(4) Upon receipt of the notice of objection, the Minister shall with all due despatch reconsider the assessment and vacate, confirm or vary the assessment or reassess and he shall thereupon notify the corporation of his action by registered letter. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 81 (4).

DIVISION F—APPEALS

155.—(1) Where a corporation has served notice of objection to an assessment under section 154, the corporation may appeal to the Supreme Court to have the assessment vacated or varied after the Minister has confirmed or reassessed, but no appeal under this section may be instituted after the expiration of ninety days from the day notice has been mailed to the corporation under section 154 that the Minister has confirmed the assessment or reassessed. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 82 (1).

(2) An appeal to the Supreme Court shall be instituted by serving on the Minister a notice of appeal in duplicate in the prescribed form and by filing a copy thereof with the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the local registrar of the Supreme Court for the county or district in which the corporation appealing has its head office or other permanent establishment. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 82 (2).

(3) A notice of appeal shall be served upon the Minister by being sent by registered mail addressed to the Minister. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 82 (3).

(4) The corporation appealing shall set out in the notice of appeal a statement of the allegations of fact, the statutory provisions and reasons that it intends to submit in supporting its appeal. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 82 (4).
156.-(1) The Minister shall with all due despatch serve on the corporation appealing and file in the court a reply to the notice of appeal admitting or denying the facts alleged and containing a statement of such further allegations of fact and of such statutory provisions and reasons as the Minister intends to rely on. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 83 (1).

(2) The court or a judge may in its or his discretion strike out a notice of appeal or any part thereof for failure to comply with subsection 4 of section 155 and may permit an amendment to be made to a notice of appeal or a new notice of appeal to be substituted for the one struck out. R.S.O. 1970, c. 91, s. 83 (2).
