HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. The Workmen's Compensation Act, being chapter 505 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1970, is amended by striking out "workman", "workman's", "workmen" and "workmen's" wherever such expressions occur and inserting in lieu thereof in each instance "employee", "employee's", "employees" and "employees'" as the case may be.

2.—(1) Subsection 1 of section 1 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following clause:

(ga) "dependent widower" means the man who was the legal husband and a dependant of an employee immediately before her death.

(2) Subsection 4 of the said section 1 is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

(4) For the purposes of this Act, a municipal corporation, commission or board mentioned in subsection 3 shall be deemed to be the employer of a member of a municipal volunteer fire brigade or a municipal volunteer ambulance brigade and such employment shall be deemed to be included in the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the corporation, commission or board and it shall yearly, on or before such date as the Board may prescribe or at such other times as the Board may prescribe, notify the Board, specifying the number of volunteers engaged and shall select such amount of coverage for such volunteers, which in no case shall be less than a rate which will provide the minimum amount of compensation under section 43 or more than the maximum rate of annual earnings established by subsection 1 of section 44.
3. Section 11 of the said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

Where compensation is payable out of the accident fund and an employer carries himself on his payroll or an executive officer of a corporation is carried on the payroll of the corporation at a salary or wage that the Board considers reasonable, but at a rate not less than a rate which will provide the minimum amount of compensation provided by section 43 or more than the maximum rate of annual earnings established by section 44 and it is stated in the payroll statement furnished to the Board under section 93 that it is desired that such employer or executive officer be included as an employee, and the amount of his salary or wages is shown in such statement and included in the estimate for the year, such employer or executive officer shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning of this Act and he is or his dependants are entitled to compensation accordingly, but, for the purpose of determining the compensation, his earnings shall not be taken to be more than the amount of his salary or wages as shown by such statement.

4. Subsection 4 of section 26 of the said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

(4) In any case where compensation is payable and the Board is of the opinion that the interest or pressing need of the employee or dependant warrants it, the Board may advance or pay to or for the employee or dependant such lump sum as the circumstances warrant.

5.—(1) Clauses c and d of subsection 1 of section 36 of the said Act, as re-enacted by the Statutes of Ontario, 1973, chapter 46, section 1, are repealed and the following substituted therefor:

(c) where the widow or a widower is the sole dependant, a monthly payment of $250;

(d) where the dependants are a widow or a widower and one or more children, a monthly payment of $250, with an additional monthly payment of $70 to be increased upon the death of the widow or widower to $80 for each child under the age of sixteen years.

(2) Subsections 2 and 3 of the said section 36 are repealed and the following substituted therefor:

wife or husband or where an employee has had during the entire period of two years immediately preceding his or her death a common-law wife or husband by whom he or she has had one or more children and leaves no dependent widow or widower, the compensation to which a dependent widow or widower would have been entitled under this Part shall be paid to the dependent common-law wife or husband until such time as he or she marries.

(3) A dependent common-law wife or husband receiving compensation under this section may not be paid compensation for acting or claiming to act as a foster-mother to the children of the deceased employee.

(3) Subsections 6 and 7 of the said section 36 are repealed and the following substituted therefor:

(6) Where a child is entitled to compensation under this section and is being maintained and taken care of by a suitable person who is acting in loco parentis in a manner that the Board considers satisfactory, such person while so doing is entitled to receive the same monthly payments of compensation for himself or herself and the child as if he or she were a widower or widow of the deceased and in such case the child's part of such payments shall be in lieu of the monthly payments that he would otherwise be entitled to receive.

(7) In addition to any other compensation provided for, the widow or widower, or where the employee leaves no widow or widower, the person acting in loco parentis, as described in subsection 6, is entitled to a lump sum of $500.

6. Section 37 of the said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

37. --(1) If a dependent widow or widower remarries or a dependent common-law wife or husband remarries, the monthly payments shall cease, but such widow or widower or dependent common-law wife or husband is entitled in lieu of them to a lump sum equal to the monthly payments for two years, and the lump sum is payable within one month after the day of the remarriage.

(2) Subsection 1 does not apply to payments to a widow or widower in respect of a child.

7. Sections 5 and 6 do not apply to a widower or a dependent common-law husband where death occurred before the 1st day of January, 1974.
