c 160 Definition of Time Act

Ontario
SECTION IX.
MERCANTILE LAW.

CHAPTER 160.

The Definition of Time Act.

1.—(1) Where an expression of time occurs in any Act or in any Rule of Court, by-law, deed or other instrument, herefore or hereafter enacted or executed, or where any hour or other period of time is stated either orally or in writing, or any question as to a period of time arises, the time referred to or intended shall, unless it is otherwise specifically stated, be held to be "standard time."

(2) As regards that part of Ontario which lies east of the meridian of ninety degrees west longitude, standard time shall be reckoned as five hours behind Greenwich time.

(3) As regards that part of Ontario which lies west of that meridian, standard time shall be reckoned as six hours behind Greenwich time. R.S.O. 1914, c. 132, s. 2.

(4) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time make regulations, and may from time to time amend, modify, suspend, repeal and re-enact such regulations, varying the reckoning of standard time as defined by subsections 2 and 3 hereof.

(5) Such regulations may authorize the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board to fix the time tables of all railways subject to its control, and to make such other orders as may be necessary for the convenient carrying out of the provisions of this Act, in so far as may be necessary or convenient for carrying out the said regulations. 1918, c. 20, s. 25.

2. The expression "month," where it occurs or is stated as in the next preceding section mentioned, shall mean a calendar month unless it is otherwise specifically stated. R.S.O. 1914, c. 132, s. 3.

3. The hours of the day may in any locality be numbered in one series up to twenty-four. R.S.O. 1914, c. 132, s. 4.
