Ontario
CHAPTER 214.

The Private Detectives Act.

1. No person shall engage in the business of a private detective, industrial service agency or an investigator, for hire or reward, or advertise or indicate in any letter, document or paper that he is engaged in any such business without having first obtained from the Treasurer of Ontario a license so to do as hereinafter provided. 1926, c. 47, s. 2.

2. No person shall engage in the business of furnishing or supplying for hire or reward, information as to the personal character of any person or as to the character or kind of business or occupation of any person or own or conduct or maintain a bureau or agency for any of the above-mentioned purposes without first having obtained from the Treasurer of Ontario as hereinafter provided a license so to do for each bureau or agency and for each and every sub-agency, office and branch office, owned, conducted or maintained by such person for the conduct of such business. 1926, c. 47, s. 3.

3. Nothing in the two next preceding sections shall apply to or affect any person carrying on a business or agency for the purpose of supplying information to subscribers as to the financial rating of persons or firms. 1926, c. 47, s. 4.

4. Any person desiring the license in sections 1 and 2 of this Act mentioned shall apply in writing (Form 1) to the Treasurer of Ontario and shall enter into a bond, approved by the Treasurer, with two sufficient sureties or executed by a guarantee company, in the sum of $3,000 for the faithful, honest and lawful conduct of such business by such applicant. 1926, c. 47, s. 5.

5. The Treasurer of Ontario, upon such application and upon such further inquiry and investigation as he may deem proper of the character and competency of the applicant and upon approving the bond in section 4 mentioned and upon receiving from the applicant the fee of $300 may issue and deliver to such applicant a license (Form 2) to conduct such business for the term of one year from the date thereof, and such license may be renewed annually on a further payment of $300 per annum, but shall be revocable at any time by the Treasurer for cause. 1926, c. 47, s. 6.
6. Immediately upon the receipt of the license the licensee named therein shall cause such license to be posted up and at all times displayed in a conspicuous place in the bureau, agency, sub-agency, office or branch for which it is issued. 1926, c. 47, s. 7.

7. In case of removal of the bureau, agency, sub-agency, office or branch of a licensee to a place other than that described in the license, he shall, within twenty-four hours immediately following such removal, give written notice of such removal to the Treasurer of Ontario, which notice shall describe the premises to which removal is made. 1926, c. 47, s. 8.

8. Every corporation licensed under this Act shall make and file with the Provincial Secretary annually on or before the 8th day of February in each year, a summary statement containing the like particulars and information and verified in the like manner as required in the case of a corporation to which section 138 of The Companies Act applies, and in default shall incur the same penalties provided in cases of default in compliance with the said section and no renewal license shall be issued until the statement has been filed. 1926, c. 47, s. 9.

9. A license shall not be required by an employee of a duly licensed private detective but every licensed private detective shall be responsible for the conduct of his employees. 1926, c. 47, s. 10.

10. Every licensee shall keep a record of all operatives employed by him which record shall be open for inspection at all times by the Commissioner of the Ontario Provincial Police. 1926, c. 47, s. 11.

11. A person while holding the position of a provincial or county constable shall not do any of the things for which a license is required by sections 1 and 2 of this Act. 1926, c. 47, s. 12.

12. This Act shall not apply to barristers, solicitors or their employees in the regular practice of their profession. 1926, c. 47, s. 13.

13. A person who is or has been a licensee under this Act or the employee of a licensee shall not divulge to anyone other than his employer or as his employer may direct, except as he may be required by law, any information acquired by him during such employment in respect of any of the work to which he shall have been assigned by his employer. 1926, c. 47, s. 14.
Licenses not to be collectors.

14. A licensee under this Act shall not act as a collector of accounts, or undertake, or hold himself, or advertise as undertaking to collect accounts for any person either with or without remuneration. 1926, c. 47, s. 15.

Penalty.

15. Any person doing anything in contravention of this Act shall upon summary conviction thereof incur a penalty of not less than $200 nor more than $500 recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act. 1926, e. 47, s. 16, part.
