(2) If the declaration purports to be so signed and to be made or acknowledged in the presence of a notary public, or of a judge of a court of record, or of a mayor of any city, town or borough or other place, or a British consul or vice-consul, or other accredited representative of the British or Canadian Government, the directors may, in the absence of actual notice of a contrary claim, give full credit to the declaration. (3) If any director present when any such transfer is allowed, forthwith, or if any director then absent, within twenty-four hours after he becomes aware of such transfer, and is able to do so, enters on the minute book of the corporation his protest against the same, and within eight days thereafter causes such protest to be notified, by registered letter, to the Minister and the registrar, such director shall thereby exonerate himself from such liability.

(4) Where a share upon which a call is unpaid is transferred with the consent of the directors, the transferee shall be liable for the call to the same extent and with the same liability to forfeiture of the shares if the call remains unpaid, as if he had been the holder when the call was made, and the transferor shall remain also liable for the call until it has been paid.

(5) Where the letters patent or the by-laws of a corporation confer that power on the directors they may decline to register a transfer of shares belonging to a shareholder who is indebted to the corporation. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 97.

(9) After the power of attorney is filed any process in any action or proceeding against the corporation for a liability incurred in Ontario may be validly served on the corporation at its chief agency; but nothing herein shall render invalid service in any other mode in which a corporation may be lawfully served.

(10) This section shall apply notwithstanding any special or other legislation of Ontario affecting any registered corporation. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 119.

(2) The term shall begin from the date of such commencement and shall end not later than the 30th day of June then next ensuing.

(3) The Registrar shall also cause to be entered on the register the place where the head office and the chief agency, if any, are situate, and if there is a chief agency the name and address of the chief agent, and of the agent or agents appointed under the next preceding section.

(7) A certificate of registry which does not specify an earlier date of expiry shall, unless sooner suspended or cancelled, remain valid until the then next ensuing 30th day of June inclusive, when, if the corporation has complied with the law and continues solvent, it shall be entitled to a certificate of renewed registry, and so on every succeeding 30th day of June thereafter.

(8) Notwithstanding failure to comply with the provisions of this Act within the prescribed time the Registrar may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, grant an interim certificate of registry or extend the currency of a subsisting certificate. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 120.

(2) Every president, vice-president, director, auditor, manager or other ofTicer of a corporation, who,

VERIFICATION OF ANNUAL STATEMENTS MADE TO REGISTRAR; SPECIAL AUDIT.

143.—(1) The Registrar or any person authorized under his hand and seal shall, with the approval of the Minister, have at any time within reasonable business hours of every day except holidays access to the books, vouchers, securities and documents of a corporation, and any officer or person in charge, possession, custody or control of such books, vouchers, securities or documents refusing or neglecting to afford such access shall be guilty of an offence, and the corporation, if registered, shall be liable to have its registry suspended.

(2) The corporation, on continued refusal or neglect to afford such access, shall be liable to have its registry cancelled or not renewed after termination of the current certificate.

(3) Where a corporation is three months in default in the delivery of the financial statement required by section 117 or upon proof that its accounts have been materially and wilfully falsified, or that for eighteen consecutive months there has been no bona fide audit of the books and accounts; or where there is filed with the Registrar a requisition for audit bearing the signatures, addresses and occupations of at least twenty-five shareholders of the corporation, holding shares upon which not less than $10,000 has been paid in, and alleging to the satisfaction of the Registrar specific fraudulent or illegal acts, or repudiation of contracts, or insolvency, and accompanied by a deposit of $300 or such less sum as the Registrar may fix as security to cover the costs of the audit, the Registrar may nominate a competent accountant who shall under his direction make a special audit of the corporation's books, accounts and securities, and make to him a written report thereupon verified upon oath.

(4) A special auditor so appointed shall be sufficiently accredited if he delivers to the secretary or to any managing officer of the corporation a written statement under the hand and seal of the Registrar to the effect that the Registrar has nominated him to audit the books, accounts and securities of the corporation.

(5) The expense of such special audit shall be borne by the corporation, and the auditor's account therefor when approved in writing by the Registrar shall be conclusive and shall be payable forthwith.

(6) Where the facts alleged in the requisition appear to the Registrar to have been partly or wholly disproved by the audit, and he deems it just, he may pay the costs of the audit partly or wholly out of the deposit.

(7) The deposit or the balance, if any, remaining after payment of such costs shall be returned to the requisitioning shareholders upon the order of the Registrar.

(8) Where a corporation, by its officer, employee, servant or agent having in his custody, possession or power the funds, books, vouchers, securities, or documents of the corporation, refuses to have the same duly audited, as provided by section 109, or by this section or by section 144, or obstructs an auditor or examiner in the performance of his duties, the Registrar, upon proof of the fact, may suspend or cancel the registry of the corporation, or may terminate the registry after the expiry of the current certificate of registry.

(9) If the report of the special auditor appears to the Registrar to disclose fraudulent or illegal acts on the part of the corporation, or a repudiation of its contracts, or its insolvency, he shall notify the corporation accordingly and furnish it with a copy of the report, allowing two weeks for a statement in reply to be filed with him.

(10) Upon consideration of the report and of the corporation's statement in reply, and of such further evidence, documentary or oral, as he may require, the Registrar shall render his decision in writing, and may thereby continue or terminate, or suspend or cancel the registry of the corporation. 144.—(1) The Attorney-General, of his own motion or upon an application being made to him in writing, may appoint some competent person to make a special examination and audit of the corporation's books, accounts and securities, and to enquire into the conduct of the business of the corporation generally.

(2) The application shall be supported by such evidence as the Attorney-General may require for the purpose of showing that there is good reason for requiring such investigation to be made, and that it is not prompted by malicious motives.

(3) The Attorney-General may require security for the payment of the costs of the enquiry to be given before appointing the examiner.

(4) The examiner may summon witnesses and take evidence under oath, and generally, for the purposes of such examination, audit and enquiry, shall have the like powers as may be conferred on a commissioner appointed under The Public Inquiries Act.

(5) Upon the conclusion of such examination, audit and enquiry the examiner shall make his report in writing to the Attorney-General. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 136.

(6) The Registrar may, by notice in writing, whenever he sees fit, require a corporation to make in addition to its annual or other returns required by this Act, a return verified by affidavit of one of its officers, or to furnish information verified in the same manner upon any subject connected with its affairs, and the corporation shall make the return within the time mentioned in the notice requiring the same.

(7) The notice in subsection 6 referred to may be made to the president, secretary, managing director or other officer or officers having apparent control of the books of the corporation, or any of them in the Province of Ontario, and non-compliance with such notice shall be an offence. 1918, c. 20, s. 36.

(8) Upon the request of the Dominion Mortgage and Investments Association or the Land Mortgage Companies Association of the Province of Ontario, the Attorney-General shall appoint an examiner as provided under subsection 1 of this section. 1919, e. 42, s. 19.

145. Every director, manager, auditor, officer, agent, collector, servant, or employee of the corporation who refuses or neglects to make any proper entry in any book of record, entry or account of the corporation, or to exhibit the same, or to allow the same to be inspected or audited, either for the general purposes of the corporation or for the purposes of this Act, and extracts to be taken therefrom shall be guilty of an offence. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 137.
146.—(1) A notice published in the Ontario Gazette over the name of the Registrar or Assistant Registrar shall, without further proof, be prima facie evidence of the facts set forth in such published notice.

(2) All copies of returns, reports or other official publications of the Registrar purporting to be printed by the King's Printer, or to be printed by order of the Assembly, shall, without further proof, be admitted as evidence of such publication and printing and as true copies of the originals.

(3) A certificate under the hand of the Registrar or Assistant Registrar and the Registrar's seal of office, that on a stated day the corporation mentioned therein was or was not registered, or that the registry of any corporation was originally granted, or was renewed, suspended, revived or cancelled, on a stated day, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.

(4) Copies of, or extracts from, any book, record, instrument or document in the office of the Registrar or of or from any official instrument or document issued under this Act shall, if certified by him or by the Assistant Registrar to be true copies or extracts and sealed with the Registrar's seal of office, be held as authentic and shall be prima facie evidence of the same legal effect as the original. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 138.

147.—(1) In any action or proceeding against a corporation the books mentioned in section 107 shall be prima facie evidence of the facts purported to be thereby stated.

(2) The books of a corporation shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters purporting to be therein recorded as between the corporation and its shareholders, and as between its shareholders. R.S.O. 1914, c. 184, s. 139.

148.—(1) The Registrar shall visit personally, or cause a duly qualified member of his staff to visit, at least once in each year the head office of each corporation registered under this Act, and examine carefully the statements of the condition and affairs of each such corporation and report thereon to the Minister as to all matters requiring his attention and decision.

(2) For the purpose of such examination, the corporation shall prepare and submit to the Registrar such statement or statements with respect to its business, finances or other affairs of the corporation, in addition to the statement mentioned in any of the sections or subsections of this Act, as the Registrar may require, and the officers, agents and servants of the corporation shall cause their books to be open for inspection and shall otherwise facilitate such examination so far as it is in their power.

(3) The Registrar may examine under oath the officers, agents or servants of the corporation for the purpose of obtaining any information which he deems necessary for the purpose of such examination. 1921, c. 61, s. 11, part.

149. If as the result of the examination as aforesaid of any corporation registered under this Act the Registrar believes that the assets of the corporation are insufficient to justify its continuance in business, he shall make a special report to the Minister on the condition of such corporation. 1921, c. 61, s. 11, part.

(3) The fees shall be payable to the Registrar.

(4) Where a corporation proves to the satisfaction of the Registrar that it is discontinuing business in Ontario, and has given such public notice of intended discontinuance as shall be required, the fee for registry or renewal of registry, as the case may be, may, on the certificate of the Registrar, be commuted to one-fourth of the prescribed fee; but registry at such commuted fee shall not be granted for more than four years in all, unless for cause shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar, in which case registry may be granted year by year for an additional number of years.
