26. All such applications shall be delivered to the secretary and shall be by him presented to the directors at the next following meeting, and the directors shall determine whether any such application shall be approved, and may approve the same in part or on such terms as they may deem proper, and may demand such security from the applicant as they may think necessary. In the event of the application being approved in part only or being varied, a new application shall be signed by the applicant in accordance with the approval and the former application cancelled. 1921, c. 33, s. 27.

27. When an application has been finally approved by the directors, such approval shall be certified on the application in the form prescribed and shall be signed by the secretary and by the president or vice-president, and a record of all applications approved shall be entered in the minutes of the association. 29. Before any moneys are advanced in pursuance of an approved application, the lender or association may require the borrower to sign a note or notes for the amount of the moneys to be advanced, and the association shall endorse such note or notes, but the terms of such notes shall not vary in any way from the terms of the approved application or from the provisions of this Act. The secretary is hereby authorized to endorse such notes on behalf of the association. 1921, c. 33, s. 30.

30. The rate of interest payable by a borrower on a loan guaranteed by an association shall not exceed seven per centum per annum, and out of the interest paid one-seventh shall be paid to the association for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, which share of interest shall be paid by the lender to the association as soon as the loan and all interest thereon

31. In the event of a borrower not being able to repay the amount of his loan on or before the 31st day of December for reasons which appear to the directors to be justifiable, or on account of the loan having been granted for purposes not productive within one year, the directors may, on the application of the borrower, authorize a renewal of any portion of the said loan until such further time as may be agreed, but not later than one year next after the maturity of the previous loan. The application for such renewal loan shall be in the same form as for any original loan, except that it shall be stamped with the word "Renewal," and shall be kept distinct from any new application made by the same borrower, but in all other respects the provisions of this Act relating to applications and the endorsements thereof, and the rights and liabilities arising thereunder, shall be applicable to such renewals. 1921, c. 33, s. 32.

If on the expiry of the fifteen days payment has not been made to the lender the balance unpaid on the subscriptions of the several members, the municipal corporation and the Government of Ontario shall forthwith become due and payable, and the liability of the municipal corporation and of the Government respectively to make payment thereof to the amount of such demand shall not be contingent upon payment by the members or any of them. Upon payment the lender shall deliver to the association all securities held by him for the said loan or any part thereof, and the association shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from the borrower by any means authorized by this Act or by any other statute or law applicable thereto. 1921, c. 33, s. 33.

any lands for the working of which such loan has been made or used, shall be subject to a lien for the amount of the loan in favour of the association approving without any further writing or act by the borrower, and none of the said property shall be removed from the premises of the borrower or beyond the limits of the district in which the association is authorized to carry on business, during the currency of such loan, without the consent of the secretary, except for the purpose of sale. All proceeds of the sale of any of the said property shall without delay be paid to the lender on account of the said loan. 1921, c. 33, s. 35.

35. The directors may, before granting any application, require such further security as they may think necessary, and upon such terms and conditions as they may approve of. The directors are hereby authorized to take in the name of the association any form of security and to exercise all rights thereunder, and may assign such security, with all rights appertaining thereto, to the lender. The powers of the directors as to taking security in the name of the association shall extend to and include the power to take, by way of additional security, mortgages on real or personal property or assignments of agreements of sale thereof, and to exercise all rights conferred by such securities. 1921, c. 33, s. 36.

36.—(1) The association shall have a lien or charge on all the personal property of the borrower for securing repayment of any such loan, upon filing a certificate of the secretary of the association in the office of the clerk of the county or district court of the county or district in which is situated the land upon which the borrower carries on the operations for which the loan was made to him, showing the amount of the loan and the name and address of the borrower.

(2) The certificate shall be registered within five days from the date thereof and shall have effect only from the date of registration.

(3) The registration in the same office of a subsequent certificate signed by the secretary of the association, showing repayment of such loan, shall operate as a discharge of such lien.

(4) The clerk of the county or district court shall register said certificate and discharge without the payment of any fee therefor. 1921, c. 33, s. 37.

37. The bank or person making a loan, or a representative, and the association endorsing a loan, or any officer or director thereof, shall have the right at any time during the currency of the loan to enter on the premises of the borrower and enquire into the manner in which the borrower is carrying on such farming or other operations as are required for the proper development of the purposes for which the loan was granted, or to ascertain that the terms of the loan are being carried out, or that the security for the loan is in good condition and on the premises of the borrower in the district. 1921, c. 33, s. 38.

38. In the event of the death, insolvency or insanity of the borrower, or of his deserting the premises, or of his failure to carry out the purposes of the loan, the directors of the association, or any three thereof, may apply to any county court judge for an order placing the association, or any person named by it, in possession of all goods, animals or property covered by any security given under this Act, and of any or all other property, real or personal, of the borrower lying within the municipality which may be required for the proper care, use, or preservation of the security, and such judge shall have power, after such notice to the borrower as he may think reasonable, or without notice, to make an order for the purposes aforesaid and to authorize such persons as he may name to carry out the provisions of such order. 1921, c. 33, s. 39.

39. No person who has obtained a loan under this Act, any part of which remains unpaid, shall dispose of or attempt to dispose of his stock, chattels or crops otherwise than in the ordinary course of business. 1921, c. 33, s. 40.

40. The borrower shall be personally liable for the payment of the amount of any loan granted under this Act, or any balance thereof, and for all interest charges and costs of collection thereof. 1921, c. 33, s. 41.

41. It shall not be incumbent on any person or bank making a loan under this Act to see to the due application of the moneys loaned, and the mis-application or non-application of such moneys shall not affect the security for the loan. 1921, c. 33, s. 42.

42. The directors of the association shall be qualified to act as a qualification committee under The Agricultural Development Act, and members of an association may make application through the secretary for a long-term loan under The Agricultural Development Act. 1921, c. 33, s. 43.

43. The Board shall have general supervision of all associations incorporated hereunder, and all books and records of any association shall be open at all times to inspection and audit by the Board or such other person as may be named by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1921, c. 33, s. 44.

44. The moneys received by an association from the share of interest received by it shall be applied,—

(a) in payment of the necessary expenses of the association;
(b) in payment of a dividend on the paid-up stock of not more than six per centum per annum;

(c) in accumulating a reserve which may, in the discretion of the directors, be invested in the same manner as the capital stock; in the event of the dissolution of any association, any accumulated reserve shall be divided amongst the subscribers in proportion to the amount of the capital stock respectively held by them. 1921, c. 33, s. 49.

45. Any person dealing with a borrower or a person believed to be a borrower from any association, and proposing to sell goods on credit or to lend money or make advances to such person, may apply to the secretary of the association for information as to the advances which have been made or authorized to such person and the purposes thereof, and the secretary, on being satisfied of the bona fides of such request, shall furnish any information shown on the records of the association at the date of such request. 1921, c. 33, s. 45.

46. The directors shall hold one or more meetings in each of the months of March and April, in every year, for the consideration of applications for loans, and shall hold such further meetings as may be required from time to time on the call of the president or on the written request of any three members of the board delivered to the secretary. The directors shall also hold one or more meetings in the month of January, in each year, for the consideration of loans, if any, on which the full amount has not been paid prior to the 31st day of December preceding. 1921, c. 33, s. 46.

47. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make regulations for the better carrying out of this Act, and such regulations shall have the same force and effect as this Act. 1921, c. 33, s. 48.
