c 124 Dominion Commissioners of Police Act

Ontario
CHAPTER 124.

The Dominion Commissioners of Police Act.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may authorize any commissioner of police appointed under The Dominion Police Act to act within Ontario, to exercise within the territory named in his commission all the powers, authority, rights and privileges appertaining to a police magistrate and to justices of the peace generally. R.S.O. 1914, c. 93, s. 2.

2. It shall not be necessary for a commissioner of police to possess any property qualification or to be actually resident within the territorial division for which he is appointed, or to take or subscribe any oath of allegiance or of office. R.S.O. 1914, c. 93, s. 3.

3. Every police constable appointed by a commissioner of police shall have all the powers, authority, rights and privileges and shall be charged with the duties and responsibilities appertaining to a constable appointed in Ontario, but shall not have power or authority in respect of any purely municipal matter or offences against municipal by-laws. R.S.O. 1914, c. 93, ss. 4, 5.
