ATTACHMENT OF SALARIES OF CIVIL SERVANTS.

15.—(1) Where a debt or money demand, not being strictly a claim for damages, is due and owing to any person from a civil servant, either on a judgment or otherwise, and a debt is due and owing from the Crown, to such civil servant the person to whom the first mentioned debt or money demand is so due and owing (hereinafter designated the creditor) may recover in the manner herein provided any debt due or owing to the civil servant from the Crown, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the claim of the creditor, subject always to the rights of other parties to the debt owing from the Crown.

(2) The creditor may serve a notice personally on the Treasurer or on the Assistant Treasurer, or on some other officer appointed by the Treasurer to receive the same, specifying the nature of the claim, and shewing the name and residence of the civil servant and the nature of his occupation; and the service of such notice upon the Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer or other officer shall have the effect, subject to the rights of other persons, of attaching and binding in the hands of the Treasurer all debts then owing from the Crown to the civil servant, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the claim of the creditor, to the same extent as a garnishing or attaching order issued by or from a court of law.

(3) After service of the notice the Treasurer shall, when the creditor’s claim is a judgment, retain all moneys then owing from the Crown to the civil servant, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the judgment, and a payment into Court or to the creditor, or where an execution is in the hands of a sheriff or bailiff, to the sheriff or bailiff, of the amount due to the civil servant, or of the amount due and costs unsatisfied on the judgment, shall be a discharge to that extent of the debt owing from the Crown to the employee.

(4) Where judgment has not been recovered for the claim, the creditor, besides serving the notice provided by subsection 2, shall also serve a copy of such notice on the civil servant, together with a memorandum requiring the civil servant if he disputes the claim to file a disputing note with the Treasurer within ten days from the date of service.

(5) If no disputing note is filed, the Treasurer, on being satisfied that notice has been served on the civil servant, shall retain any moneys due and owing to such civil servant and pay the same or a sufficient part thereof to satisfy the creditor’s claim, subject to the provisions of subsection 8.

(6) If a note disputing the claim is filed, the Treasurer may with the consent of all parties determine whether any and what sum is due by the civil servant to the creditor upon the claim, or he may require the creditor to bring an action therefor against the civil servant, and in such case he shall retain any moneys due and owing to the civil servant or sufficient thereof to pay any claim and costs which may be recovered in the action to abide the result of the action provided such action is promptly prosecuted to judgment.

(7) There shall be kept in the Treasury Department an attachment book, in which shall be entered the names of parties, the dates of service of notices, the statement of claim, and the amount, if any, due and owing to the civil servant at the time of service.

(8) This section shall not apply to any debt contracted before the 17th day of January, 1898, nor where the amount due to the civil servant does not exceed $25, nor if such amount exceeds $25 beyond the amount of such excess, nor to any debt not contracted for board or lodging which does not exceed $25.
