V. c. 34, s. 15.

16. The proceedings leading to incorporation shall be as hereinbefore prescribed for the incorporation of loan corporations. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 16.

(See Order in Council of 28th Oct., 1907.)

(2) Where money is entrusted to the company for the bona fide purpose of its being invested by the company as trustee for, or as agent of the person by whom it is entrusted, the guarantee by the company of the repayment of the same or of the payment of the interest thereon at such rate as may be agreed on on fixed days shall not be deemed to be a debenture nor shall the money be deemed to be money borrowed by the company by issuing debentures within the meaning of subsection 1. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 17.

18.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the next preceding three sections, and to the law of Ontario, the Letters Patent may authorize the company to exercise any or all of the following powers:

(a) To take, receive and hold all estates and property, real and personal, which may be granted, committed, transferred or conveyed to the company with its consent, upon any trust or trusts whatsoever not contrary to law, at any time or times, by any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, or by any Court in Ontario;

19. The liability of a trust company to persons interested in an estate held by the company as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, liquidator, assignee, guardian, or committee shall be the same as if the estate had been held by any private person in the like capacity, and the company's powers shall be the same. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 19.

20.—(1) Where a trust company is authorized to execute the office of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, liquidator, assignee, guardian or committee, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council approves of such company being accepted as a trust company for the purposes of the Supreme Court, every Court or Judge having authority to appoint such an officer may, with the consent of the company, appoint such company to exercise any of such offices in respect of any estate or person under the authority of such Court or Judge, or may grant to such company probate of any will in which such company is named as an executor; but no company which has issued or has authority to issue debentures or debenture stock, or which has received or has authority to receive deposits, shall be approved.

(2) A trust company so approved may be appointed to be a sole trustee, notwithstanding that but for this Act it would be necessary to appoint more than one trustee.

any of the offices mentioned in subsection 1 jointly with another person.

(4) Such appointment may be made whether the trustee is required under the provisions of any deed, will or docu ment creating a trust or whether the appointment is under the provisions of The Trustee Act or otherwise.

(5) Notwithstanding any rule or practice or any provi sion of any Act requiring security it shall not be necessary for the company to give any security for the due perform ance of its duty as such executor, administrator, trustee, re ceiver, liquidator, assignee, guardian or committee unless otherwise ordered.

(6) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may at any time revoke the approval given under this section. 2 Geo.
V. c. 34, s. 20.

REVOCATION OF CHARTER.

21. The charter or powers of a corporation may, at any time, for cause shown to his satisfaction, be amended, sus pended or revoked and made void by the Lieutenant-Govern or in Council. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 21.

EXTRA PROVINCIAL BUSINESS.

22.—(1) Where the existence or operation of a Provincial corporation is not by the Act or instrument constituting it, limited in time or area the corporation may, in general meeting of the members, called for that purpose by notice duly given, pass a by-law authorizing its directors to extend the business of the corporation beyond Ontario, but in com pliance with the law of the country to which the business may be so extended; and the directors may give effect to such by-law without being liable or responsible as for any breach of trust in so doing.

(2) Where, as provided in this section, a Provincial cor poration carries on business outside of Ontario the corpora tion may in general meeting of the members, called for that purpose by notice duly given, pass a by-law authorizing the directors to invest the money of the corporation in the erec tion or purchase of buildings required for the occupation of the corporation in any place where the corporation is so carrying on business and in conformity with the law of the country in which such place is situate. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 22.

CALLS—LIABILITY OF SHAREHOLDER.

23.—(1) The directors may call in and demand from the shareholders the amount unpaid on shares by them subscribed or held at such times and places and in such payments or instalments as the Special Act, Letters Patent or this Act, or the by-laws of the corporation require or allow; and interest shall accrue upon the amount of any unpaid call from the day appointed for payment thereof.

(2) The demand shall state that in the event of non-payment the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 23.

(3) If after the demand any call is not paid within the time and in the manner provided by the Special Act, the Letters Patent, Supplementary Letters Patent or the by-laws, the directors, by resolution to that effect reciting the facts and duly recorded in their minutes, may summarily forfeit any shares whereon such payment is not made, and the same shall thereupon become the property of the company and may be disposed of as, by by-law or otherwise, the company may ordain; but such forfeiture shall not relieve the shareholder of any liability to the company or to any creditor. See 2 Geo. V. c. 31, s. 60 (3).

24.—(1) Every shareholder, until the whole amount of his shares has been paid up, shall be individually liable to the creditors of the company to an amount equal to that not paid up thereon, but shall not be liable to an action therefor by any creditor before an execution against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; and the amount due on such execution, but not beyond the amount so unpaid on such shares, shall be the amount recoverable, with costs, against such shareholder.

(2) Any shareholder may plead by way of defence, in whole or in part, any set-off which he could set up against the company, except a claim for unpaid dividend, or a salary or allowance as a president or a director of the company. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 24.

LENDING POWERS.

The Contract of Loan.

25.—(1) No borrower, whether he is or is not a shareholder in the corporation, shall be bound by the by-laws or rules thereof unless either the words "subject to the by-laws of the corporation," or the words "subject to the rules 15 s.—II.
of the corporation," as the case may be, are printed in conspicuous type on the back, and as part of the indorsement of the mortgage or other security given by him.

(2) Although the mortgage or other security is so endorsed a borrower from the corporation who is not a shareholder shall not be subject to the by-laws or rules unless the mortgage or other security expressly stipulates that they shall form part of the contract or obligation entered into by the borrower. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 25.

26.—(1) Where any loan or advance is made by a corporation the contract shall be evidenced by a written instrument within or on which all the terms and conditions of the contract shall be clearly set out; and unless so set out no term of, or condition, stipulation, warranty, by-law, resolution, rule or proviso varying or modifying the contract shall be valid or shall be admissible in evidence to the prejudice of the borrower; but nothing in this section shall prevent the application to the contract of the provisions of section 25 or of The Mortgages Act; or shall prevent the use in the contract of the short form authorized by The Short Forms of Mortgages Act, if such contract is expressed to be in pursuance of the last mentioned statute.

(2) As against the borrower, whether a shareholder or member or not, the contract shall not be in anywise altered, varied or affected by any by-law, resolution or rule of the corporation subsequently passed or adopted.

(3) The instrument shall fully and clearly state by the payment of what specific sum or sums, at a place and time or times stated, the loan or mortgage debt is to be discharged; and in case the loan or mortgage debt is dischargeable by instalments or periodical payments shall further clearly set out the several amounts of such instalments or periodical payments and the number thereof respectively required to discharge the loan or mortgage debt.

(4) No term or condition of the contract of loan, or of any contract or agreement collateral thereto, shall render the borrower liable to contribute for losses of the corporation or to make good any impairment of its capital.

(5) Where the instrument does not comply with the requirements of this section the loan or mortgage debt shall be held to consist of the principal sum or sums actually received by the borrower, less any sum or sums repaid by, or standing to the credit of, the borrower, together with simple interest thereon calculated at the legal rate of interest on such sum or sums of principal for the actual time or times during which the borrower has had the use thereof.

(6) This section shall apply to every contract of loan made or renewed in Ontario after the first day of June.
1904, by any corporation to any borrower on the security of any property, or made or renewed to any borrower elsewhere on the security of property situate in Ontario, and shall have effect as against the lender notwithstanding any stipulation or agreement to the contrary. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 26.

Investments. Holding Land Reserve Fund.

27.—(1) A registered loan corporation and a registered loaning land corporation may lend money on the security of certain securities, or purchase or invest in the following:

(b) Debentures, bonds, paid up stock and other securities, except bills of exchange and promissory notes, of or guaranteed by any government, or of any municipal corporation or school corporation, or of any chartered bank or incorporated company, if such bank or company is incorporated by Canada, or by any Province of Canada, or by any former Province now forming part of Canada.

(2) Subject always to the limitations imposed by section 32 any such corporation heretofore so authorized may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, invest in and lend upon real estate or securities other than those in that subsection mentioned.

(4) Any such corporation may, with the assent of two-thirds of the shareholders present or represented by proxy at an annual or special general meeting, called with due notice of such proposal, lend upon the security of the debentures, bonds, obligations or paid-up stock of any corporation other than those corporations heretofore in this section mentioned, but the aggregate of all such lending shall not exceed at any one time twenty-five per cent. of the paid-in capital of the lending corporation, and where the borrower is a corporation shall not exceed at any one time twenty-five per centum of the paid-in capital of the borrowing corporation.
(5) The corporation may do all acts that are necessary for advancing such sums of money, and for receiving and obtaining repayment thereof, and for compelling the payment of all interest accruing due thereon, and the observance and fulfilment of any conditions annexed to the advance, and for enforcing the forfeiture of any term or property consequent on the non-fulfilment of such conditions, or of conditions entered into for delay of payment. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 27.

28.-(1) A registered corporation may hold real estate which, having been mortgaged or hypothecated to it, has been acquired by it for the protection of its investment, and real estate conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business, and may from time to time sell, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of the same; and may sell or otherwise dispose of as it deems advisable any mortgage or security which it has lawfully acquired.

(2) The corporation, not being a loaning land corporation registered under this Act, shall, subject to the provisions of the next following section, sell any real estate acquired by it under any mortgage, charge or hypothecation, or in satisfaction of any debt, within twelve years after it has been so acquired, otherwise it may be forfeited to His Majesty for the use of Ontario; but no such forfeiture shall be enforced until the expiration of six calendar months after notice in writing to the corporation of the intention of His Majesty to claim such forfeiture.

(3) The corporation may give receipts, acquittances and discharges, either absolutely and wholly or partially, and may grant or take such deeds, assignments or other instruments as are necessary for carrying any such holding, purchase, exchange or re-sale into effect; and the grantee or assignee in any such instrument shall stand in the place of, and be entitled to, and have all the same rights, powers and remedies, and shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities as the grantor or assignor would have been entitled to or would have been subject to if the grant or assignment had not been made. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 28.

29. A registered corporation may hold absolutely to its own use and benefit such real estate as is necessary for the transaction of its business, or is acquired or held bona fide for building upon or improving for that purpose, and may sell, mortgage or dispose of the same. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 29.

30. A registered corporation, when so authorized by the Letters Patent or by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may acquire or may construct, on any lands so held, a building larger than is required for the transaction of its business and may lease any part of such building not so required. 2 Geo. Loans to Shareholders upon Shares.

32.—(1) A loan corporation and a loaning land corporation may pass a by-law prohibiting absolutely the loaning to shareholders upon the security of their shares, or, subject to the limitations contained in this section, may pass a by-law fixing the aggregate amount which may be loaned on such shares, and neither of such by-laws shall be repealed until all liabilities of the corporation are discharged.

(2) Subject to subsection 1 the corporation may lend upon its own paid-up stock to an amount not exceeding at any one time in the aggregate of all such loans ten per centum of the corporation’s paid-up stock.

(3) No such loan shall exceed eighty per cent. of the market price of the stock. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 32.

33. A corporation shall not, except in the manner provided by section 32, lend on its own shares with or without collateral security. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 33.

Interest; Payments of Blended Interest and Principal; Limitation of Mortgagor’s Liability for Interest.

34. Subject to the provisions of the next following section a registered corporation may stipulate for, take, reserve and exact any rate of interest or discount that may lawfully be taken by individuals, and may also receive payment at any time on any loan or advance. R.S.C. 1906, c. 120, s. 1.

35.—(1) Wherever any principal money or interest secured by mortgage of real estate is, by the same, made payable on the sinking fund plan, or on any plan under which the payments of principal money and interest are blended, or on any plan which involves an allowance of interest on stipulated repayments, no interest whatever shall be chargeable, payable or recoverable on any part of the principal money advanced, unless the mortgage contains a statement showing the amount of such principal money and the rate of interest chargeable thereon, calculated yearly or half-yearly, not in advance.

(2) Wherever the rate of interest shown in such statement is less than the rate of interest which would be chargeable by virtue of any other provision, calculation or stipulation in the mortgage, no greater rate of interest shall be chargeable, payable or recoverable on the principal money advanced than the rate shown in such statement.

97.—(1) No transfer of shares of a Provincial corporation, the whole amount whereof has not been paid, shall be made without the consent of the directors.

(9) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may grant such confirmation, if he is satisfied of the bona fide character of the changes provided for in the by-law, unless it appears that the confirmation of the by-law would not be in the public interest.

(10) With the consent of the corporation, evidenced by a resolution of the directors, the changes provided for in any such by-law may be varied or amended by the confirming order-in-council, and may be made subject to such conditions as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may deem proper.

(2) A corporation shall not be registered on more than one of such registers, nor transact or undertake business in Ontario other than the business for which it is registered.

(3) Nothing in this section shall diminish the powers conferred on any trust company by or under the authority of any other Act of Ontario, nor shall the possession of powers so conferred debar it from registry on the Trust Companies Register. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 115.

116.—(1) The duty of determining, distinguishing and registering those corporations which under this Act are required to be registered and are entitled to registry, and of granting registry accordingly, shall devolve upon the Registrar subject to appeal as hereinafter provided.

(8) Whenever the corporation changes its agent or chief agency in Ontario it shall file with the Registrar a power of attorney, as hereinbefore provided, stating the change or changes and containing a similar declaration as to service of process and notices as hereinbefore provided.

(9) After the power of attorney is filed any process in any action or proceeding against the corporation for a liability incurred in Ontario may be validly served on the corporation at its chief agency; but nothing herein shall render invalid service in any other mode in which a corporation may be lawfully served.

120.—(1) The Registrar shall cause to be entered on the proper register the name of every corporation which from time to time he or, in case of appeal, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council finds to be entitled to registry, together with the date of the commencement of the registry and the term for which the registry is to endure.

(7) A certificate of registry which does not specify an earlier date of expiry shall, unless sooner suspended or cancelled, remain valid until the then next ensuing thirtieth day of June inclusive, when, if the corporation has complied with the law and continues solvent, it shall be entitled to a certificate of renewed registry, and so on every succeeding thirtieth day of June thereafter.

135.—(1) The Registrar or any person authorized under his hand and seal shall, with the approval of the Minister, have at any time within reasonable business hours of every day except holidays access to the books, vouchers, securities and documents of a corporation, and any officer or person in charge, possession, custody or control of such books, vouchers, securities or documents refusing or neglecting to afford such access shall be guilty of an offence, and the corporation, if registered, shall be liable to have its registry suspended.
(2) The corporation, on continued refusal or neglect to afford such access, shall be liable to have its registry cancelled or not renewed after termination of the current certificate.

(3) Where a corporation is three months in default in the delivery of the financial statement required by section 110 or upon proof that its accounts have been materially and willfully falsified, or that for eighteen consecutive months there has been no bona fide audit of the books and accounts; or where there is filed with the Registrar a requisition for audit bearing the signatures, addresses and occupations of at least twenty-five shareholders of the corporation, holding shares upon which not less than $10,000 has been paid in, and alleging to the satisfaction of the Registrar specific fraudulent or illegal acts, or repudiation of contracts, or insolvency, and accompanied by a deposit of $300 or such less sum as the Registrar may fix as security to cover the costs of the audit, the Registrar may nominate a competent accountant who shall under his direction make a special audit of the corporation's books, accounts and securities, and make to him a written report thereon verified upon oath.

(8) Where a corporation, by its officer, employee, servant or agent having in his custody, possession or power the funds, books, vouchers, securities, or documents of the corporation, refuses to have the same duly audited, as provided by section 102, or by this section or by section 136, or obstructs an auditor or examiner in the performance of his duties, the Registrar, upon proof of the fact, may suspend or cancel the registry of the corporation, or may terminate the registry after the expiry of the current certificate of registry.
(9) If the report of the special auditor appears to the Registrar to disclose fraudulent or illegal acts on the part of the corporation, or a repudiation of its contracts, or its insolvency, he shall notify the corporation accordingly and furnish it with a copy of the report, allowing two weeks for a statement in reply to be filed with him.

(10) Upon consideration of the report and of the corporation's statement in reply, and of such further evidence, documentary or oral, as he may require, the Registrar shall render his decision in writing, and may thereby continue or terminate, or suspend or cancel the registry of the corporation. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 135.

136.—(1) The Attorney-General, of his own motion or upon an application being made to him in writing, may appoint some competent person to make a special examination and audit of the corporation's books, accounts and securities, and to enquire into the conduct of the business of the corporation generally.

(2) The application shall be supported by such evidence as the Attorney-General may require for the purpose of showing that there is good reason for requiring such investigation to be made, and that it is not prompted by malicious motives.

(3) The Attorney-General may require security for the payment of the costs of the enquiry to be given before appointing the examiner.

(4) The examiner may summon witnesses and take evidence under oath, and generally, for the purposes of such examination, audit and enquiry, shall have the like powers as may be conferred on a commissioner appointed under The Public Inquiries Act.

(5) Upon the conclusion of such examination, audit and enquiry the examiner shall make his report in writing to the Attorney-General. 2 Geo. V. c. 34, s. 136.

137. (4) Copies of, or extracts from, any book, record, instrument or document in the office of the Registrar or of or from any official instrument or document issued under this Act shall, if certified by him or by the Assistant Registrar to be true copies or extracts and sealed with the Registrar’s seal of office, be held as authentic and shall be prima facie evidence of the same legal effect as the original. 2 Geo.
